Some of the top comments.

Boy moms are even more delusional than the typical male lover. They are actually dangerous because they bring sons into this world who go on to terrorize women. I fume when I think of all the males who have assaulted or put me in danger knowing their mommies think they raised a good one. I don't blame them for their sons actions, not even the best mother can stop male mature. I do blame them for thinking they could be the exception. There's nothing feminist about breeding and especially breeding boys. These same women can't even get their partners to stop jerking it to porn and Instagram models but sure they are totally gonna influence their sons. There was an article not too long ago that showed the mothers of men accused of rape and assault in college helped cover up the evidence. One of the women who was heavily involved in the Metoo movement son ended up accused of rape. These mothers have no power. I wish women would stop larping online and stick to liberal feminism.

"Boymoms are the scum of the universe

This so much, my family member that's a boy mom had the nerve to tell me to "make more guy friends" ....like she doesn't have a son who is assaulting little girls, like her son didn't assault me. Those types are especially frustrating and triggering to me. This reasoning is actually why I made the post, they are so much more harmful to us as a whole, they willingly breed our oppressors and then have the NERVE to stay stupid shit like that. They're complicit in the abuse of women, they facilitate it. They will send all of us to slaughter if it means protecting their shitty offspring.

They think breeding boys is raising future oppressors in the patriarchy, and fears they can't breed away the patriarchy (She means men. Radical feminist idea. Breed away the male sex and replace society's power with female.)

Another example of feminist radicalization.

Holy shit.

There's "Not all, but enough men" stuff, and then there's "The only good men is dead men" shit like this.

How does this stay on this platform...

"There's nothing feminist about breeding"

So feminism=extinction in her eyes.

You can't hide your crazy eyes!

Feminism has been wrongfully associated with strength. Feminism is synonymous with ignorance, greed, stupidity, and violence. There is only true strength and wisdom in Masculinity That's why it's called toxic feminism.

Feminists claim "Only weak men are afraid of strong women." So, by virtue of equality, only weak women are afraid of strong men. The Patriarchy teaches men to be strong. Feminists fear the Patriarchy. Therefore feminists are afraid of strong men. THUS feminists are weak.

Men have been conditioned over the long-term to think and believe that accepting a combative, insufferable, disrespectful attitude comes naturally with being in a modern relationship...and Feminism has conditioned them to think that harboring such behaviors is being "a strong woman."

There are no weak men. There are men who have been taught they are weak, they are "less than" & it is up to us, up to you, to change that perspective. So when you see a man who you perceive as weak, you should go above & beyond to show him that he is the stronger sex.

MASCULINISM is: "The radical notion that men are people."

"If we're going to survive as a nation both feminism, the kind of people it has emboldened, and anyone who chooses to identify with it."must be denounced". Men Must RISE UP! and SPEAK OUT! against repeated sexist bigotry from various feminists of both individual and collective groups."We need to attack feminism directly," We don't want a "kinder, gentler version of it," but we want it done away with completely!

That fact that these people actually exist is just... sad. I really don't feel any emotions towards them other than pity. They are so mislead that most of them truly believe what they're saying. Poor souls.
