

What are simple escalationS that can work but is still in a grey, innocent area? Especially in public?

For example, my friend does not really smoke (he does sometimes) but choose to go out and date chics who are smokers. When he notices them wanting to smoke (after eating out) he goes and says he wants to help light it up. It works most of the time, as he's able to isolate with her and escalate.

Are there any fun or grey area escalations especially in public? I particularly get shy or freeze because escalating in public (for me) can backfire and I don't like people looking at me or us. When I get a chance, I always ask if I can peck on the cheek. If they let me, it's usually a surefire way to escalate further.

Dont escalate in public, you run the risk of triggering the girls ASD. No one likes to be in the spotlight like that. Hence why it's called "ISOLATE and escalate," not "publicize and escalate."

Lmfao wtf. Read the fucking sidebar! You really asked her to peck on the cheek? You never ask a bitch for a damn thing, you go after what you want, regardless of who's watching. Stop operating in the safe zone, all you'll get is mediocre result, if that. Start doing things you're uncomfortable with. You can put your arms around her, lift her off the ground when you greet her with a hug, go for the kiss when you feel it's right. You'll miss 100% of the shots you don't take.

What do you think of consensual sex?

It's green light till she says "no" to which you stop immediately.
