"Keep smelling shit everywhere you go..." Oh, wait, forgot. We're not allowed to point out personal responsibility.

My first post ever so I hope I did everything right.

Also for clarification purple user is the same person over 2 different posts.

It's gotta be at least 125% of men who are actively raping someone as we speak!

I left a comment somewhere on how I was happy to see Amber Heard under fire cause, as a result, it has brought attention to the fact that men CAN be abused by women, as I have had my own history of abusive relationships. The comments I got soon after were all lovely jabs at me and how, "Men cannot be abused by women, cause men are the typical abusers," and, "If you are that weak to not fight back or leave, then you clearly deserved it," and, "Men who are abused are the result of, "payback," cause women have been abused longer." Typically, if you're a male abuse victim, nobody gives a fuck -- Which is being confirmed and solidified for me.

The first one definitely is, yeah. The second one is just just random misandry.

I love how 99% of their fact-based opinions are actually based on anecdotal experience.
