

Feminist says a medical device for collecting sperm samples is misogynistic, shames male patients who can't produce sperm samples naturally. But not all feminists, right?

Of course we have this, but women still don't get pain meds with IUD insertion. Cool. Cool cool cool.

Thank youuuuuuu.

I was like 'now men can't even wank themselves on their own' 🤔 Meanwhile I have a doctor inserting a metal duck mouth up my vag, cranking it open and screwing it into place, then getting BBQ tongs and grabbing some of my cervix off with them for biopsies AKA 'stage 2' of a smear with complications (common). No numbing cream. Nothing.

What a fucking world.

Edit: Thank you for the award. I'm keeping your energy close to my vag for the next time I'm up in stirrups

Main character syndrome

And who's stopping these women from inventing medical devices for themselves if they so need em?

Subversive • 17 points • 19 September, 2022 05:23 AM

The Patriarchy, of course.

Always hate this logic. If women are so underappreciated and not focused on in the medical industry, why do they literally have multiple medical fields designed around their gender (maternity and gynecology)? Like, I'm not saying there aren't problems, but when psychiatry was basically borne out of getting women off, I think we need to show a little more nuance and maybe consider that male sexual health might actually be underserved.

We're going to have to donate to groups like NCFM and ask them to fight for us on this front.

PrimeWolf88 • 16 points • 19 September, 2022 12:00 AM

They're just hateful misandrist bigots. Childless and single.

RatDontPanic[S] • 16 points • 19 September, 2022 12:04 AM

Not always childless. Clementine Ford is the mother of a boy and she's the one who said not enough men are dying of coronavirus.

PricklyGoober • 12 points • 19 September, 2022 06:17 AM

I sincerely pity the son.

Organic-Efficiency10 • 12 points • 19 September, 2022 07:37 AM*

Has anyone tried to get help to that boy?

Edit- <https://www.mamamia.com.au/clementine-ford-welcomes-baby/> she seems to have loved him when he was a baby at least. Less alarmed about her having a boy now but given her history I think there should be some kind of regular inspections (monthly or every 2-3 months) to see if she is treating him properly (maybe I'm being dramatic but she has literally said that she wants "all men to die" publicly once)

RatDontPanic[S] • 2 points • 19 September, 2022 02:01 PM

Seriously she needs him to be taken from her.

They are hareful misandrist bigots, but how is being childless/single related to that?

PrimeWolf88 • 1 point • 20 September, 2022 08:02 PM

Why do you think they all get cats? Everything else living runs from them.

KatsutamiNanamoto • 2 points • 20 September, 2022 10:30 PM

What, even if they're allergic to cats? ☐

I just meant that your comment sounded like it's bad to be childless/single [for anybody] - which really is not, like, I want to be childless and single. Sorry if I misunderstood you.
