

Is there any chance that you could be a terrible person?

It makes sense. If you try every piece of advice and nothing works, it has to be your personality.

Trying all advice means working significantly on your physical appearance, so even if you're not good looking the mastery of fashion / bodybuilding / hygiene will produce a change of some sort. If that change is not noticeable, there is only one other option.

The words I'm typing here won't matter to many. By placing the blame for their failure squarely at their feet and denying them excuses, they feel threatened. Genuinely threatened. In this state, the pre-frontal cortices which we need for logic and reason is literally shut off and everything is routed through the amygdala for your fight / flight response. Their brain needs to create a narrative for why this isn't true.

Introspection is the hardest thing you will endure as a human. Taking a good long look at yourself and admitting that parts of you are bad is not fun. Changing is harder. Good luck.

There's a 100% chance you're a twat

SilentFroggy • 5 points • 17 October, 2022 05:55 AM

There's no point in debating against delusion.

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • -1 points • 17 October, 2022 06:22 AM definitely. in a thread where a guy calls a certain type of person really pathetic and physically incapable of mounting an argument against him, it will look really, really good if the community's top answer is calling the op a 'twat' through tears.

SilentFroggy • 5 points • 17 October, 2022 06:52 AM

It's you who's delusional. No one here is hurt from what you're trying to say. We look down on you because we really don't want to end up like you.

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • -1 points • 17 October, 2022 07:08 AM

lol cool

It's funny how having a gf is validation for being a "good person". Females are the judges of what is good by the looks of it absolutely not what anyone is saying or implying. you made that up entirely in your brain and then refuted it.

FastBananaViral • 5 points • 17 October, 2022 04:28 AM

Yes, of course not why else would you ask if someone is a terrible person on a subreddit about "pills"

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 04:30 AM

why yes, if you don't look at what someone wrote, but instead peer into their hearts, you'll find they actually said whatever is convenient for your broken brain to argue against!

FastBananaViral • 4 points • 17 October, 2022 04:31 AM

I did read what you wrote and then I wrote my comment and I have not changed my mind.

"You have a bad personality hence you're alone" is saying what my initial comment says

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 04:32 AM

i'm not expecting you to change your mind. my op predicts that you will behave like this and your mind physically cannot be changed.

FastBananaViral • 2 points • 17 October, 2022 04:33 AM

Your OP says that someone is alone due to their personality.

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 04:33 AM

lol you could not be proving my point any harder

FastBananaViral • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 04:34 AM

I rephrased and summarised your "point"

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 04:34 AM

yes it was very good, but not for the reasons you intended.

Have you ever won at something and then got super annoyed when someone pointed out that your win was the result of luck?

Let's say you're attractive and successful in dating but you believe attractiveness doesn't matter. Since attractiveness doesn't matter and it definitely wasn't luck...it must be your great personality or something like that right?

Well when someone shows up and say that attractiveness matter...you might feel genuinely threatened because they are essentially saying that you might not have the awesome personality that you think you have. So you double down on attractiveness not mattering and their failure being entirely their fault, rather than admit that your success wasn't entirely because you're just a great dude and everyone that's failing are just terrible people.

The opposite bias exists, so it's pretty silly to use it to shut down your opposition because anyone can accuse you of being biased in the opposite direction.

And before you say something like "well I don't have success and I still think it's all about personality".

Yea, and some people have plenty of success and still think it comes down to looks/luck/etc... We can discuss why losers might emulate winners or why winners might emulate losers if you want but it's not a very strong argument in either direction.

Nah. there are literal studies where women are directly observed sacrificing their expectations of a man's appearance in exchange for particular traits and qualities.

My positions are based in reality, yours are not.

Is there any chance that you could be a terrible person?

Yes,I can be evil person sometimes

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 2 points • 17 October, 2022 02:19 AM outstanding. a realisation such as this won't automatically make you more attractive, but it will stop you from throwing away your self respect by blaming everyone else.

Glad-Discount-47611 points 17 October, 2022 02:24 AM [recovered] stop you from throwing away your self respect by blaming everyone else.

I don't know about that but weird thing is I do like being terrible or rude person.

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 02:31 AM excellent. people can choose not to like it, but on some level they will respect it.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 2 points • 17 October, 2022 06:56 AM

LOL. What is it you are attempting with this post, OP? I mean, you even added a "no true scotsman" defence to your own statement. (Doubtless you'll now claim I'm "fighting" or some BS)

Is there any chance you are a terrible person?

I mean, last time we spoke you ended up labelling autistic people as social retards. Not really the nicest thing to say, eh?

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 07:08 AM

Is there any chance you are a terrible person?

yes. i had to drastically change myself in just about every facet of my life. i am still growing.
so yes, absolutely.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:43 AM

OK.

So as you are a terrible person, why should anybody listen to a single thing you say?

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:45 AM

Because I'm a terrible person who is improving.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 2 points • 17 October, 2022 08:48 AM

You're still terrible though. Self admittedly.

Thus your opinion is worthless.

Come back when you aren't a terrible person, my dude. LOL

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 07:21 AM

can't stop laughing thinking about being genuinely surprised that someone genuinely believes in the positions they hold.

"are YOU a terrible person?!?!?!"

"yes. i worked to fix it"

"i am going to respond to that by saying 'ree' and throwing a tantrum"

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:45 AM

Eh?

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:45 AM

I assume you will say 'ree' soon.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:49 AM

Are you on some sort of medication?

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:54 AM here it comes. he's going to say 'ree'.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 12:38 PM

Why would I?

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 12:41 PM

ladies and gentlemen, please flank the hallway as we drilled. he is now reaching into his jacket pocket and has produced a speech enclosed in an envelope carrying one word only: Ree

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 12:52 PM

Okaay.

Again, why would I?

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 12:55 PM

the answer may surprise you, but you will understand why the jamaicans call me a hard-head / cah even when i'm on an island i'm still tryin to rise the machine and rass it.

no_bling_just_ding • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:00 AM not really because that's not what anyone tells me i am.

speaking of introspection, your turn

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • 1 point • 17 October, 2022 08:05 AM already answered your brave question elsewhere

RedditsOlderBrah[S] • -1 points • 17 October, 2022 03:38 AM

I typed all this up to respond to someone else who read this and decided to perfectly demonstrate another example of the brain being unable to function properly but he deleted it. But he really kicked my ass so you should read it.

This is the defence mechanism I was talking about. Zero ability to think.

I assume

Literally no need to assume. My case is in black text on a contrasting background.

Are people with autism terrible people? How about people who are ugly/deformed beyond remedy? People with various other mental and physical illnesses that make finding a partner extremely difficult - are they terrible people?

Absolute gibberish and has nothing to do with anything I actually wrote. But of course it's not. This person's brain is unable to engage with an argument. And I mean that literally. This person has to assume and make things up in order to beat those arguments instead.
