

i feel like trying less and going outside less lowered men's success nowadays

Ironically without the "blackpill" a short guy would try to approach a high number of girls until he finally got someone, nowadays after a few failures guys read 'blackpill statistics' and stop trying to approach and LDAR

Exeggrated example but if you approach 10000 girls instead of 10 you would have more chance.

It makes us feel worthless when there's men out there who can pull women with little to no effort.

ElectricBugs • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 06:31 PM

That's about your self esteem and based on hyper focusing on the minority not the majority. If you focus on the negative then you won't achieve the positive.

SilentFroggy • 3 points • 13 October, 2022 06:35 PM

It's more about accepting. Not all of us can accept the beta lifestyle

ElectricBugs • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 06:42 PM

Accepting what?! Everything in life is contingent on your efforts. Although there can be outside forces at play. That doesn't negate the fact that you have to actively participate. If you choose to opt out that's on you. But you don't get to complain about it. You also need to own the fact you're making the decision out of fear and likely low self esteem. Not because it's what you truly would like.

no man, none of them, can pull women with no effort. you are not thinking about the thousands of hours they spent socialising and learning about how to be around people.

SilentFroggy • 8 points • 13 October, 2022 09:25 AM

Are you serious? Attractive men can pull women online with no effort. They are also treated better by women making it easier to socialize with them. The men who put in hours of work definitely had to put in effort.

you don't know what you're talking about.

by explaining that nobody is born with social skills, that placed the blame for your failure completely at your feet. the second your brain feels blame, your pre-frontal cortices (rationality, logic) are shut down and all power is given to the amygdala for your fight / flight mode in order to respond to the stress of being attacked.

the reason you said all that stupid shit about people being basically born with social skills is because your brain is not working. you're making up any old stupid bullshit to protect yourself from the fact that you are a complete fuck up in the social sense. and it is your fault.

EDIT: tally of incels terminated by this post: ~~DOUBLE KILL~~ ~~MULTI-KILL~~ ~~MEGA-KILL~~ ~~ULTRA-KILL~~ ~~M-M-M-MONSTER KILL~~

SilentFroggy • 4 points • 13 October, 2022 11:01 AM

I never said people are born with social skills. Attractive men were pretty much forced it upon them. It's a different life they live compared to the average men.

And why do some of you guys feel some kind superiority thinking your effort with women made you some kind of top value man? No one is jealous of you.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 3 points • 13 October, 2022 09:32 PM

Bullshit from you again.

Repeating myself from a previous thread: I knew someone at university who had a face like a bucket of smashed crabs, was ginger, with eyes like two piss-holes in the snow, not particularly witty, skinny-fat and who had the social skills and sounded like Sloth from the Goonies when he spoke (google that, young millennial).

But he was 6'7"

He once walked in to a nightclub, saw a petite girl on the dancefloor that he liked the look of, walked over to her and literally picked her up with one hand. She was trying to get her tongue down his throat before he'd made it ten steps. No words exchanged.

Was that no effort? I suppose he did need to exert himself to lift her up...

All things are relative. Those who have it easy don't realise they have it easy. And they make comments about how those shorter / less attractive than them don't really have it hard.

Oh, and btw? "Thousands of hours socialising and learning about how to be around people"? That's self improvement: Red Pill teachings. Welcome to the dark side, young wokeling.

RedditsOlderBrah • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 09:57 PM

wow! a whole anecdote of a single event told by a narrator with a vested interest in being a whiniging pissbaby who refuses to change and blames everyone else!

De_Carabas_of_Below • 4 points • 13 October, 2022 10:10 PM

wow! someone denying my lived experience? LOL

Not sure why you think I'm blaming other people for anything, or am refusing to change. I'm Red Pill sonny - honest appraisal of reality and personal improvement is what we're all about.

De_Carabas_of_Below • -3 points • 13 October, 2022 09:22 PM

That's defeatist. Change your mindset.

Use each rejection as research. Approach women with the full expectation that you are going to be rejected, and that you are going to forensically examine that rejection in the cold light of day to see what you can do to make subsequent rejections less likely.

Each rejection you get is a lesson in how to avoid getting rejected next time. Learn it. In due course you will be a way, way better man than Chad, who had pussy available with no effort.

Earn more money. Gain in status. Go to the gym. Practice talking to people. Turn yourself in to something that a hypergamous woman would want.l

Take the Red Pill.

SilentFroggy • 4 points • 13 October, 2022 09:38 PM

Already working on status/money/gym. Not doing it for women and hopefully never.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 09:54 PM

Good lad. That is the correct attitude.

Keep working - make it habitual.

It might take a few years, but you will see the fruits of your labour, and women will be just one of them.

Pissrael_2 • 1 point • 27 October, 2022 07:25 PM

It also feeds women's ego we try to get them, I'm not doing that anymore.

no_bling_just_ding • 4 points • 13 October, 2022 07:40 AM the question is, 10000 girls: is it worth it? three a day, (that's an unrealistic pace to keep up) and that's easily nine years of your life and two months. what else can you do in that time? are they even worth it after they accept dating you?

ElectricBugs • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 06:35 PM

So you'd prefer to not try, whinge online and get nothing than to put the effort in to attracting women and possibly get something significant? The trick is to not focus on it as your sole endeavour but to supplement your life. Find happiness in other areas and put effort in.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 09:33 PM

Couldn't agree more.

no_bling_just_ding • 1 point • 14 October, 2022 10:34 AM i did try im just not going to do it 10000 times like op says

ElectricBugs • 1 point • 14 October, 2022 12:18 PM

That's still your choice. If you decide to not continue the effort you can't complain if you don't get any outcomes

kokorwqac[S] • -3 points • 13 October, 2022 07:41 AM

If you dedicate your life to whşnşng about blackpill then it means it's probably big enough problem for them to whine about debatelord_1 • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 09:38 AM

Yeah people go out way less than older generations. I expected university to be wild with tons of partys, drugs, alcohol and people hooking up.

Instead many people don't drink at all, it's mostly fairly boring LTRs or perma singles and bars are so fucking expensive

RedditsOlderBrah • -4 points • 13 October, 2022 07:29 AM i agree, blackpill is a moon logic worldview for the mentally unwell.

i don't agree that we should huddle around and wonder about why they aren't fucking.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 09:38 PM

...because a few of them end up picking up guns?

We had one here in the UK - in Plymouth - triggered by a rejection here on Reddit. Autistic lad who thought he had no chance of getting any poon, ever. Killed his mum and a few other people.

RedditsOlderBrah • 2 points • 13 October, 2022 10:00 PM

no. because they are severely mentally unwell. there are 9 different types of hopelessness as classified by psychiatrists. if yo identify with a few, you might need therapy. black pill rejects are guilty of all 9, at the same times, and every single one of the associated behaviours. all i need is a black pill volunteer and i can effortlessly prove it.

De_Carabas_of_Below • 0 points • 13 October, 2022 10:15 PM

...and you don't think they became severely mentally unwell due to constant rejection from females, and becoming convinced thereby that they were worthless?

Keep pushing kiddo, you'll get there...

RedditsOlderBrah • 2 points • 13 October, 2022 10:28 PM

all from the article i gave you perfectly making fun of your attempt at a post

Jumping to conclusions: arriving at any conclusion based on limited or no evidence

Catastrophizing: magnifying the relevance of an event or believing in the worst possible outcome of a given situation

Control fallacies: believing you either have no control or all control over what happens to you and others

_Duriel_1000_ • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 07:34 AM ldar?

kokorwqac[S] • 2 points • 13 October, 2022 07:37 AM

Lay down and rot

Pilling_it • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 06:26 PM

Everyone got shitty social skills nowadays. And yes, women becoming more awkward also impact men's success.

As for a man, well. You miss 100% of the shots you don't take.

Whether it's worth taking is up to the individual.

kokorwqac[S] • 1 point • 13 October, 2022 06:34 PM

i mean i don't care if a guy decides it's not worth it and stays a virgin, it's just that those people spend their lives whining about this, then also just LDAR when you tell them to work hard.
