

Do men in general envy women?

Crosspost "Do men in general envy women?" from /r/PurplePillDebate:

Not only in the "west" but all over the world in general. I don't say all but I think most men envy women in general, even men who say they don't maybe it's because they haven't realized the privileges they have. I think any man envies women when it comes to tinder, dating, sexuality, sex work, society and so on. For example how a poor woman can date up or have sex with a rich man but a poor man can't. There is also how men are held to higher standards such as having confidence, a good job, a house, a car, height, penis size, sexual performance... I think any man envies how women don't go through that.

And lastly: Pregnancy and how women are the only ones who decide whether reproduction happens or not. Or as I mentioned in another post how a woman can get pregnant by someone "superior" but a man can't do that.

I envy the power that women have in society. If I was a woman, I could sell my box on Onlyfans and be able to make a living off just that. Whereas as a man, you usually have to be born into wealth or earn it.

In terms of envying women when it comes to sex, I have created a Grindr account specifically to look for trans/CD girls. And men have hit me up like crazy on there. So if I want that Chad dick, I could get it anytime I wanted if I really want it. You're not special if you can get Chad dick. I can get Chad dick. You're not special if you have a warm wet box. I've had sex with 9 civ girls, 14 prostitutes. And only enjoyed sex with 2 of the women (and they were both LTRs). The definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again and expecting a different result. So I guess I must be insane. Because I've tried casual sex and prostitutes so many times and it always ends up leaving me disappointed.

Pussy is not as good as the incels think it is. My right hand can make me cum in less than a minute and its way less hassle than pussy. My right hand feels better than a pussy. Why do I date then? Because oxytocin is one hell of a drug. Pussy does feel much better when you're in love with the woman attached to it.

The problem is that I'm not into cismen. And passing transwomen and crossdressers are not that common. I had a date with a passing CD and we went to second base. But she ghosted me because I wouldn't give her a ride to a friend's house. lol. Hypergamy is really rough out there. Even TS/CD girls have inflated egos these days.

It is so wild to read this as a young woman with dark skin. The amount of hate we get for existing would cripple the average male. Many of us have to earn it just to be told we are UNDESIRA LE for aquiring financial success. Imagine you having a profession worked against you

Then the hate women who do OF get is so unreasonable. Do you think everyone would be able to recieve that? Do you know how men express hate? Violence. Threats of r*pe. Stalking. Attempts at humiliation. Sabotage.

You could easily make the same money peddling your body to gay men online. You would be using men's sex drive for profit.

Anytime this is said, men will say "I'm not gay" as if that matters. Sex workers are not attracted to the people who pay them. They objectify themselves for money so naturally, you can do the same

This "power" is available to men.

There are plenty of white boys like me who are attracted to women of colour and have been in love with one or more in the past. Why focus your attention on the haters who don't appreciate your skin colour? I'm sure you have plenty of white simps sliding into your DMs.

Then the hate women who do OF get is so unreasonable. Do you think everyone would be able to receive that? Do you know how men express hate? Violence. Threats of rape. Stalking. Attempts at humiliation. Sabotage.

That's because there's a movement of red pill/black pill misogynists online who are targeting e-thots. If I was a chick, the financial independence would be worth the risk to me. As men we'd like to think that we wouldn't exploit sims and male thirst for financial gain for ourselves just like women do. But if I was in that same position as a woman, I would totally start an Onlyfans. Who doesn't want their rent and bills paid for doing fuck all work?

I find Onlyfans to be more ethical than women using their boyfriends for money, getting free meals off your boyfriend, bumming rides off your boyfriend, getting your boyfriend to pay your bills, etc. I'd rather 400 sims pay $10/month to Onlyfans (and they give like 80% to the content creator) than mooch a large sum off a boyfriend. If I was a woman, I'd want to be with a man who I actually like and see as an equal. Not a human ATM. But I'd be perfectly fine with accepting money from sims online.

You could easily make the same money peddling your body to gay men online. You would be using men's sex drive for profit.

I would if I could tbh. Gay men are not as thirsty as heterosexual men. Gay men can get cock/ass very easily on Grindr. Or maybe that's just me. Because I get flooded with DMs on Grindr from men even though I make it clear on my profile that I'm there to meet TS/CD girls.

Yeah I agree that you don't have to be attracted to your johns in order to do your job. Though as someone who has been with 14 prostitutes, I never want to see a hooker again when it is obvious that she is not into me or detached from the interaction. I only repeat with hookers who at least manage to fool me into thinking they are into me. I often request GFE. I've stopped seeing hookers 3 years ago though because in the back of my mind I'm always wondering if it's just an act or if she really thinks I'm cute. And I always feel like a piece of shit every time a hooker is cold and distant towards me and don't enjoy myself. Can't even get hard if a hooker seems detached.

Black women do get hell and it's shameful for colonized self-hating black men to be a part of causing that suffering. That being said though

The amount of hate we get for existing would cripple the average male.

We would get crippled by it if we lived that long. Which a lot of us black men don't.

I genuinely don't understand why more women aren't using OnlyFans.

Belle Delphine makes $1,000,000 a month doing OnlyFans. All she needs to do to make a million bucks is sell her farts and bathwater in jars, and get nude on camera: <https://youtu.be/GD7O1aTp9Fk>

There's a lot of lower class men who will never live to see $1,000,000 in their lifetimes if they aren't educated and work minimum wage jobs. And all Belle Delphine has to do is run an OnlyFans and she makes that in a single month.

If I was a woman you bet I'd be doing what she does. "Dignity" be damned.

you understand that onlyfans creators incomes follow a pareto distribution that makes tinder look like the soviet union, right?

We really don't know how much deprivation contributes to the motivation a man needs to thrive in life. When you see a immigrant come to the west without a single penny becoming a successful person through hardwork, while a citizen who has every possible privilege and every possible advantage end up living on government handouts, it makes you question, is deprivation really all that bad?

I know a lot of young men can be envious of young women because of xyz. But I think that process of struggling to become something, makes the success that much sweeter. I believe most successful people don't regret the things they lacked in life. It only fueled their ambitions and motivated them even more.

In my experience,they don't seem to envy woman they just seems to be mad about privilege that woman get.
