

Why are people on reddit dumb?

November 23, 2022 | 8 upvotes | by switchretro45

Like I get it the rich use idealism and mechanical materials and metaphysics to dupe us into serving them. They are parasites I get that but people on purple pill regardless of pill eat up their shit like it's cookies. Like what is your gain for believing in their pessemistic and nihlistic rhetoric? You are negatively impacted by their ideology but you all worship it as if it's your God as if freedom is the only moral framework as if the environment has little to no influence us on how we behave or act. I am tired of this free choice bullshit that you ride your horses on. I want all of you normies, feminist, and red pills to know I genuinely hate you more than the parasites who fuck up or society. You all fail to apply analytical and Critical thinking skills in any meaningful way. You all might think I am some loon or incel but I genuinely want to you to know I hate all you redditors so fucking much it's therapeutic for me to let you know that. You are all abelist asshole who hate the mentally ill and fail to understand us at any single level that includes you progressive sex positive feminist. You all need a brain and a heart. I am done.

get some sleep man, jerk off a bit to calm down (if you're not on nofap) and meditate

EulenWatcher • 3 points • 23 November, 2022 03:23 AM

What kind of reaction do you want to get?

switchretro45[S] • 2 points • 23 November, 2022 03:24 AM

None I want to see how smart these people really are

EulenWatcher • 3 points • 23 November, 2022 03:29 AM

You can't really see it from a subreddit most people use for fun.

switchretro45[S] • 2 points • 23 November, 2022 03:43 AM

By fun do you mean mocking the mentally disabled and ignoring material reality for a stupid idealistic value such as freedom.

EulenWatcher • 3 points • 23 November, 2022 03:48 AM

By fun I mean creating alts, larping, posting fake stories etc. Not my sort of fun, but it seems quite a lot of users are into it.

Decent discussions happen from time to time, but for that both sides have to be adequate and eloquent enough. And, well, actually interested in the discussion. I've had quite a few good debates with different users, we might disagree on a lot of things, but find points where we get each other.

switchretro45[S] • 1 point • 23 November, 2022 04:12 AM

The issue is that I hate the knee jerk around idealist bullshit of predisposition and freedom. What pisses me most of all is the pessemism and hedonism these people spread around. What's even worse is that people who champion critical thinking skills won't even apply it outside of school and believe anything that resembles more freedom. The apathy and dogmatism that these people have piss me off. I had my entire world view changed because of self reflection, I learned empathy, I did so many things that these people are afraid to do. I have been through shit but I am still optimistic I am lonely, my relatives died, I was bullied by my entire school with no friends. I should be a school shooter on paper but why am I not Ms feminist. Do you have an answer or guess or is this going to be individualism bullshit blaming me for all my problems and forcing me to solve my problems by myself and expecting me to have a therapist and shit to myself. I am sorry Ms progressive sex positive feminist but I am done listening to people like you who only made me suffer more. I am quitting my therapist, I am done working on myself, I love my OCD and I will keep. It's like what you liberals preach learn to live with people different than you.

EulenWatcher • 1 point • 23 November, 2022 04:42 AM

I have no idea what your issues are and I guess you just want to rant. You're free to do so, but then there's nothing to discuss really.

switchretro45[S] • 1 point • 23 November, 2022 04:47 AM

This is the problem you all deflect what I say without trying to understand me. Oh there is something to be discussed you don't get to decide what is not being discussed.

EulenWatcher • 1 point • 23 November, 2022 05:07 AM

The problem is that you can't hold a discussion when one of you is just ranting. You can choose a topic you wish to discuss if you want though.

switchretro45[S] • 1 point • 23 November, 2022 05:09 AM

I see what you mean well I want to talk about something related the rant I just want to vent out my hatred for the people online and liberals. I just want someone to hear me and actually take something from what I said. You don't have to agree just understand h1shman • 2 points • 24 November, 2022 02:11 AM

Definitely needed a good laugh. Thank you

switchretro451 points 24 November, 2022 02:42 AM [recovered]

Shut the fuck up you useless piece of meat. You deserve to be lynched like the lots of you h1shman • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 03:25 AM

Lol you have to be trolling

switchretro451 points 24 November, 2022 04:05 AM [recovered]

Yes why don't you agitate a potential school shooter the more you bully one the more likely one becomes one lmao

no_bling_just_ding[M] • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 07:21 PM

if you feel you are going to do something dangerous please calm yourself down and talk to someone you trust. you don't have to be like this. and please stay off of reddit. people here don't respond well to mental issues and you seem to have a lot of complicated feelings that even you aren't properly expressing right now if you make any posts calling for violence explicitly or implicitly in the future i will ban you on sight

HateSpeechFanBoy • 2 points • 23 November, 2022 11:19 AM

I also hate Redditors, they are anti free speech and politically biased.

Eyesofmalice • 0 points • 24 November, 2022 05:33 AM

Only idiots defend free speech.

HateSpeechFanBoy • 2 points • 24 November, 2022 05:35 AM

Only fragile and insecure authoritarians fear or are against free speech

Eyesofmalice • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:36 AM

Authoritarianism is the result of free speech.

HateSpeechFanBoy • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:38 AM

Yes, authoritarians are known to be open to views that are different to theirs

Eyesofmalice • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:43 AM

Christ alive.

The struggle for new forms of freedom comes with the dismantling of established forms of oppression, therefore forms of speech that go against institutionalized oppression are doomed to be less popular.

People routinely will defend discourses that go against their interests because those speeches conform the very structure with which they order reality. As Wittgenstein put it "language is the limit to my world"

It's also frankly stupid that you wish to live in a society in which we have to discuss every day that black deserve rights and that the earth is flat. Some views should not be discussed nor have a platform, certain views should be so inherently abhorrent that they're condemned to subjective extinction.

HateSpeechFanBoy • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:44 AM

Yes and you should be the one to decide what views shouldn't be discussed

Eyesofmalice • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:45 AM

You're hopeless.

HateSpeechFanBoy • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:47 AM

You're the wisest of the wise. You can decide for everyone what is abhorrent

Eyesofmalice • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:48 AM

And also can't read.

Eyesofmalice • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 06:02 AM

I'll try to explain it again, because ugh I don't know I'm an incel so I have nothing better to do.

If I'm saying people routinely defend discourses that go against their benefit, am I implying I'm not people? When did I say I would get to decide on all issues?

You're so dumb but anyway.

There are subjects which are objective, in those the subject of the study is not changed by your predictions on statements on them. For example gravity doesn't change by you saying it's 8.7 m/s

Those subjects cannot admit public discussion since there's no point, they're established facts.

There are subjects such as economy and anthropology in which our predictions and analysts changes the very things being studied, these type of subjects MIGHT be debated publicly, however a huge hurdle to overcome is that previous views that are actively shaping the structure of society are prevalent and USUALLY obscure problems which are clear for certain groups of said social structure. HOWEVER the opinion on those problems by individuals who are in a position of power should be discarded as long as their discourse preserves and keeps the oppressed oppressed.

There are voices that need to be silenced when discussing certain topics, for example we shouldn't have pedophiles participate in conversations about the ideal infrastructure of our schools. We shouldn't have straight people discussing what it is to do with the access of gay people to equal rights.

Thinking that we're supremely rational humans that have transcended our biases and that all voices are as rational and relevant as any other is so so so dumb.

It's literally what keeps authoritarian governments in place since usually we have individuals who aren't part of certain realities giving their opinions and taking decisions on behalf of others, and since they usually represent conservative and canonical views they'll be able to gain more traction than revolutionary or transformative views.

You project on me the arrogance of someone who wants to decide everything for everyone else, yet YOU'RE the one advocating for protecting your right to being nosy and deciding for others regardless of how ignorant and bigoted you are.

What??

Eyesofmalice • 1 point • 13 December, 2022 01:21 AM

Well just uneducated people believe in free speech.

A social system relies on interiorizing the ideas of the ruling class, therefore the ideas that defend the current state of things will invariably become more prevalent than those fringe positions, and not only that, the academic system will ensure that such central positions transcend from being opinions to being axioms which determine the path of a society. Therefore for a democracy to work you need to silence some people in power to give voices to those fringe positions because if not society will cannibalize itself as it is happening at the moment with democratic governments become more and more totalitarian.

I trust you're not a troll so if you're interested you can read on the ideas of Ricoeur's and Gadamer's on the horizon of expectations or you can read on reification by György Lukács.

Green-Quantity1032 • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 12:50 AM

No one hates the mentally ill, they're indifferent to them.

Now use your free choice and admit yourself to the local, eh, ok I'm getting out of line.

switchretro45[S] • 2 points • 24 November, 2022 12:54 AM

No people hate us, like you do. All you dumbass do is tell us we are broken it's our fault and get therapy.

You idiots are so retarded you think suicide should be free choice hell Canada is using suicide as legit option to treat depression. Fuck you my uncle killed himself it's not his fault and there was nothing wrong with him it was society's fault

Indifference, not hate. The issues are far too removed from most people's sphere of relevance to be on concern.

Society doesn't exist.

But I digress, I'm gonna stop responding now seriously.

btw - Are you sure OCD is the issue? I've known people with OCD, none of them had paranoia as a comorbidity. Go back to your therapist, be well

switchretro45[S] • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 02:41 AM

Shut the fuck up you know nothing about OCD, I have black friend so I know black experienzen. I will not seek therapist I am ending therapy just to spite you nimrod neurotypicals. God I hate you all

Eyesofmalice • 1 point • 24 November, 2022 05:32 AM

Wholeheartedly agree. Blue pillers and red pillers Belice in a cookie dough world in which there's someone for everyone and everyone can pull themselves up by their shoelaces. They're so delusional.

Peacesquad • 1 point • 25 November, 2022 09:20 PM

This a trick question lmao

Glad-Discount-4761 • 1 point • 29 November, 2022 11:03 AM

Reddit is place where we are allowed to be worst version of ourselves
