

The last trace of humanity in me has died

God has chosen to mock me every day, or is it fake that is mocking me? I come so close to what I desire and then he rips it away from me. A girl messaged me today, the perfect girl, and then she ghosted me. Refused to reply. I didn't even message her first. It was like God himself was mocking me. It's been happening for weeks now. I can't keep friends. They always ghost me. I don't know what I'm doing wrong. God has just cursed me to be alone my whole life. I've started to see humans as animals. They follow their emotions and instinct but they only really care about themselves. I'm an outcast from this species. God has decided I am not human, but I feel like I am the only human. I feel nothing but hatred for the human race. They're cruel creatures; but I don't really care much about what they think anymore.

Its online dating, what do you expect?

It was probably just a bot.

Some girls literally get off to doing that; knowing that someone is pining for their reply.

Most women are psycho/socio- paths so I'm not necessarily surprised/shocked.
