What if the B was blue for blue pill & beta, and the A was red for Alpha?

Some changes, hope you don't mind

From blue pill beta to red pill alpha. This is better.

Please fill the lightblue area above the bicep with some dark blue, it would look better

int3rnetz • 2 points • 6 August, 2013 06:43 PM

Why is it blue?

Zackcid • 3 points • 7 August, 2013 02:56 PM

That shade of blue looks pretty masculine to me. I like it

Red pill? Red? Blue Beta? I don't get it?

Zackcid • 1 point • 7 August, 2013 04:28 PM

Because duality looks nice and the colour red doesn't have to signify masculinity, maleness, or TRP. Back when I was a kid, blue was the colour for boys and red was for girls.

Because most people start out on this journey having just started to take The Red Pill. They're blue pill beta boys working their way to becoming red pill alpha men.
