

Why have women been put in control of who is psychically linked to me (always against my will)?

- Why have women been put in control of who is psychically linked to me (always against my will)?
- Why does nearly everyone in the community around me know what I am doing in private behind closed doors?
- Why does it always seem like someone else gets to decide who is linked to me instead of me deciding or even saying fuck-no?

There was a point in my life where I experience some kind of forced religious experience, which I believe is related. I definitely feel that employers have some kind of control over this psychic linkage. Several times it seems like they pre-plan these situations to steal your position and give it to someone else in some kind of a psychic hierarchy. I believe the nasty ones can take control of your person against your will and perform sex with your partner etc for their own enjoyment. I believe religious and government groups are involved with this and they love terrorizing people in ways they can not prove.

People like to pretend like there is some kind of competition and/or a evaluation of ones intellect/accomplishments, my experience is its completely arbitrary and abusive. There is always a reason to disqualify any accomplishment and then include someone else no matter what.

Their thought process is like "what is the worst most oppressive thing we can do that will inhibit the guy the most we can". I heard one lady talking in third person in a way I could hear saying "this should be illegal", and "ohh try to avoid these nasty traps next time". Not that it matters that much, but the point being these actions are counterproductive to my life goals.

You should see a doctor. These are schizophrenic thoughts. Have some meds to calm your think process, and once in control re-evaluate.

I doubt that. You see, your reference to a very specific psychological issue means it is evidence of ignorance. The reason is a person with qualifications to make such a determination would never post a comment like that. It becomes a non-useful way of disregarding a persons experience.

You're right, it might not be schizophrenia.

But proof that you have a mental unbalance is the fact that you copy/paste that response when people call out your mental instability.

You're sick. It is immediately apparent when reading your writing. I don't know what it is specifically, but I do know you need help from a doctor.

The reason so many people say similar things to you is because they can also see it.

I think you should see a doctor to talk about these things.

I know that will be a hard thing to do, realizing that on some level there might be psychologic issues, but you would benefit from it.

There would be no benefit.

Yeah, they'd put on antipsychotics and you'll be able to participate in society like a normal person

You're being antagonistic, ego-driven, and trying to hurt him. That's not the right way you relate with unhappy people who feel surrounded by hostility.

You should see a psychiatrist. You have symptoms of paranoia. This could be a serious illness.
