

Should I let women know I'm also attracted to men?

Not that I would go out of my way to let them know, but I've they do seem pretty uncomfortable finding out. I don't want to hide this part of me but it does seem I would be better off doing exactly that.

What have been your experiences with how women feel about men who also like men?

Most women I've told didn't care.

Don't hide it dude. If she cares so much, she's not right anyway. My ltr loves that I'm bi. She thinks it's very hot.

Depends on the type of women, more traditional women might care and be totally turned off.

More progressive women or queer women either won't care or think its interesting/sexy.
