Of course, this makes me wonder.. if a woman gets pregnant, despite the condom, from having sex with no intention to have a child, should she then be required to get an abortion.. since doing otherwise is aggravated sexual assault?

Not according the logic in Canada, where men are disposable and can only commit crimes, not be victims of them.

I either need a time machine or a plane ticket.

That's why the double jeopardy clause in our constitution rocks. No judge can say "Nah, I think this kids should burn," and overturn an acquittal.
