

Alpha married with older women?

October 31, 2018 | 0 upvotes | by Bruchibre

I've recently seen that:

- Chris Hemsworth (35) was married with Elsa Pataki, 6 years older than him
- Jason Momoa (39) was married with Lisa Bonet, 12 years older than him with a kid from her previous marriage.

These two dudes are the impersonation of alphaness on cinema screens and make all pussies wet.

How do you explain this? Are these guys not so alpha or are these women very high SMV? These two could basically bang 18yo top models any day of the week.

Any of you married with older women?

These two dudes are the impersonation of alphaness

My wife idolizes The Man with No Name not the sissy actor Clinton Eastwood.

Low effort, low value. Go to askMRP for shitty questions.
