Hi guys,

I would like to get your impressions on age difference for getting married please, since you are all MRP.

What is the age difference between you and your wife? has any of you married an older girl?

My current gf is 28, I am 35. It's a 7 years difference. Few years ago I was with a girl who was 7 years older than me. I have the impression I'd be fine with a girl my age :)

It's a survey to exchange on impressions. In general TRP tends to make you go for the youngest girl possible, I was wondering how it was in real life.

My wife is 12 years younger, she was 24 when we met and I was 36. She is Asian so we did not have a common culture to reference. I think it is a good thing since women age differently. Plus she was easy to get pregnant naturally and is still thin. The disadvantage of a younger girl is that you have to be more like a parent sometimes. When we first met I was like "Clean up your room." But over time it works out well, we've been together 18 years.

Thanks! my gf is also Asian btw so I feel you :) she was also 24 when we met... but I was 31 :) Yes sometimes I feel that I wish she was more mature. I think my problem with the fact that she is Asian is that she actually looks like she is 16 and has skinny arms and child hands so sometimes my brain shouts at me "beware! underage!"

Yeah I spend half the year in China and sometimes I feel like a perv for digging a chick only to find out she is 27 and I was fine, at other times I think a girl is 27 and she is 16. It is confusing. A high school kid asked my wife where she was planning on going to college, that was strange.

Haha, excellent.

Are you a teacher or something? does your wife travel to China with you?

My wife is a few years older than me (I wouldn't recommend it... marriage that is)

Bruchibre[S] • 1 point • 22 May, 2018 06:47 AM

You wouldn't recommend marriage? how would your life be if you weren't married at this stage? do you have kids?

Alphaphux • 1 point • 22 May, 2018 08:08 AM

I have 2 kids, love them to death couldn't imagine my life without them. However if I had my time again I would not get married so I would never have met my kids...

How would my life be? I'd have a shit load more spare cash, spare time, spare everything

Thanks for answering, I see what you mean. So basically you recommend never having kids and living the bachelor life for ever? :) Cash, time... in the end if you're alone, to do what? gets boring maybe... I want kids some day. If I ever get married it's only to have kids.

Alphaphux • 1 point • 22 May, 2018 08:27 AM

Im just saying what I would do, If you want kids then get married

I was a finance in house lawyer and I covered Asia (China, HK, Singapore, Tokyo) but now I teach lawyers in English and also do legal work for some companies. My mandarin is ok. My 11 yr old daughter has made 9 round trips to Asia and my 9yr old has made 7 round trips, usually park them in Taiwan. But I often go alone if they are in school.

6 months older than my wife....

I can see lots of benefits of a bigger gap.... But we grew up together.... it's too even... harder to captain etc.

Maybe I'm just complaining...
