

How are you guys against check your women's phones?

It's one thing to do it out of pure insecurity or everyday. But you're investing your time in her. And we all know women are sneaky as hell so you might never see any signs of it.

I don't get how you can just go about your life and relationship while there's a chance your women is getting fucked every Wednesday. And you just are nonchalant about it.

I think it's very smart to keep her in check with these things. That way if you find out you can just leave. Instead of potentially be in a relationship getting cucked and not knowing about it. Women do the same shit. I don't care what she thinks. I'm checking up on her occasionally. I'm not going to be played a fool so idk why you would want to.

Dumbass,

If your wife really wants some other dude's dick she'll get it, whether you're checking her phone, smelling her panties, or generally acting like a needy douche.

You should (1) make her want your dick and (2) stop worrying so much about other dudes' dicks.

FYI - As a business owner/captain stand point you're going to check on your employees (first mate) to make sure they're doing their jobs and not fucking around in the break room when they should be working you're going to "monitor" your employees' performance through just that - their fucking performance.

If my employees achieve their goals I don't fucking care if they're in the break room or in the bathroom masturbating.

p.s. You also posted about not knowing what to do with your spare time.

Obsessing about your wife cheating is not what you should be doing in your spare time.

Get outside dude, get some sun.

Christ.

Because there are much easier ways to trust but verify that don't involve making yourself look like a jealous 14 year old. My wife voluntarily hands me her phone to do various tasks on it and walks away because she WANTS me to check it because she wants me to know she's being faithful. Having to check her shit all the time just means something else is broken and if you think she can't still fuck around on you you're being naive.

My wife's text all link to her computer. She's unaware of this. But I ain't.

I will occasionally check that.

Apply this level of certainty to the question of whether she is texting other men.

Another insecure fuck going down the beta paranoid path. Lift. Sidebar. Use your free time other than jumping into your wife's frame.
