That women are teaching each other to hurt their own long-term success and happiness. It was bizarre to watch once I understood it.

Maybe women are the worst enemy of women.

omega_dawg93 • 104 points • 25 June, 2019 12:47 PM

i don't believe it's maybe. i KNOW women are their own worst enemy.

from the horrible advice on hair & makeup, to sex, to how to deal with men, they tell their gfs what to do then laugh as they fuck up their lives.

then they cry together... and blame men.

source: my 3 older siblings are all females... that have lots of friends. I've watched them destroy each other with horrible advice from my teenage years until yesterday.

terra502 • 54 points • 25 June, 2019 01:38 PM

Because they would rather cry together than watch their peers ascend beyond them.

EvolvedVirus • 2 points • 27 June, 2019 05:10 AM

Sometimes I see women, who are about to make a good decision... and they suddenly make the worst or worse decision. And I can't help but think... "did she have a girlfriend talk the other night?"

account_for_rel • 10 points • 25 June, 2019 03:21 PM

So everything has been great since yesterday? ☐

omega_dawg93 • 18 points • 25 June, 2019 03:24 PM

probably not. they're likely putting blue streaks or weave in their heads or super long eye lashes... or some other stupid shit thinking men care and are attracted to that clown show.

yumyumgivesome • 9 points • 25 June, 2019 01:25 PM

Does it truly seem malicious or maybe they are just horrible at assessing relationships?

omega_dawg93 • 33 points • 25 June, 2019 01:45 PM

women are highly competitive.

they don't want their gfs to get married or get "happy" before they do.

so think of it as a "crabs in a barrel" mentality but with love... and with ALL the blame for anything wrong as a man's fault. iow, they hate each other but don't say it... but they want men but blame men.

some females are fucked up... that's why so many are on "make me feel good about my fucked up life" daily pills.

SyrenSpell • 1 point • 27 June, 2019 05:49 PM

women are highly competitive.

I always read that competitiveness is a male characteristic, I guess only the good kind is.

mrpoopistan • 28 points • 25 June, 2019 06:52 PM

It's malicious, and it's often a form of active denial of resources to their competitors.

I remember a chick I was dating a while back who I had met through a younger female friend of hers. The younger friend was very into me and single, but I found her boring as hell so I didn't pay her advances much mind. Also, I frankly like my women a bit on the trainwreck side -- if she's down to do crazy shit, I'm in.

Once I started dating the older of the two, the oldest one went out of her way to shut down any interactions between the younger one and me. The younger one regularly asked to hang out with us, and the older one always found ways to ditch her or make her fuck off. I never minded the young'un, I just found her shy and boring to a fault.

Notably, the chick I was dating had another friend I knew who was literally the hottest woman I've ever seen. Professional formal dancer who had a surprisingly bawdy figure. The dancer was never treated as a threat because her fiancé had game to spare and always kept that shit on lockdown. She followed him like a lost puppy.

What's the difference between the two friends?

One was seen as a clear competitor, and she went out of her way to shut that chick down. The other one was completely off the market, and she couldn't have cared less how much I interacted with the dancer.

To be clear: women are excellent at assessing relationships. Most female-oriented fiction is basically training videos on how to identify bitches who need to be put in their place.

Understand this fact: all sexual competition is between women. Men might occasionally fight for access to mates, but they can chill and be friends once an obvious winner has emerged.

Women never stop competing against their friends. Their entire lives are a crazy balancing act between trying to break their friends as sexual competitors while not pissing them off so badly as to face social ostracism.

It's one of the reasons that bitches wear the bitch badge loudly. They've lost the social game, and now they're just loudly advertising "if you compete with me, I will make you wish you were fucking dead."

MagnumBurrito • 5 points • 25 June, 2019 07:51 PM

solid breakdown

EvolvedVirus • 1 point • 27 June, 2019 05:14 AM

I remember a someone saying "girls are such shallow bitches... they're just always so shallow and superficial..."

I was aghast, thinking back, she was the shallowest bitch I've ever met. Likely expelled from her own friend group.

skunkbear444 • 2 points • 26 June, 2019 06:28 AM

Spectacular post. A way explained with more nuance and angles at explaining female friendships I hadn't seen.

mrpoopistan • 3 points • 26 June, 2019 04:55 PM

One of the holes in TRP is a lack of discussion of the perpetual combat between women.

Look at how women feel constantly attacked. Men dismiss it as crazy woman bullshit. The reality is that it's because women are constantly at war with each other. Even mothers and daughters do weird little shit to undermine each other.

skunkbear444 • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 09:12 PM

Also a fellow guy that has enjoyed dating some trainwrecks for the fun and experience, you get to see deeper layers of female psychology on display. These chicks can't hide their bad sides as well, you see the same things in good girls in lighter levels that they try to obscure this same side of themselves, even though they still pull dosage back it is clear as day if you look for it.

RedKepler • 8 points • 25 June, 2019 03:45 PM

Read Cat's Eye by Margaret Atwood. Essentially it's called the "Lord of the Flies" for girls, except its based on experiences of Atwood with other girls (she didn't go to mainstream school till early teens).

gpravda • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 09:44 PM

Pretty much. It's the reason why most girls hate befriending other girls.

greenlittleman • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 06:51 PM

Human females compete with each other unlike many other species. On the other hand.. imagine getting advices on how to get laid from blue pill virgin. It wouldn't be very good advice. Same here.

organicfluxx • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 07:55 PM

Any good examples?

omega_dawg93 • 8 points • 26 June, 2019 08:28 PM

I've got 100s... but here are a few:

1. "cut your hair off girl... short styles are the in thing. shave one side and the back too." as it's done, they start laughing at her and timing how long it will take to grow back.
2. "girl he fine... your hubby/bf won't know. he's feeling you and we won't tell if you leave with him. yolo! you go girl." if she does it, they call her a slut for cheating on her man. it's like a shit test btw women plus ammo (to ruin her relationship) when their friendships fall apart (they usually do).
3. "spend that money girl! fuck saving... you married & that's his credit card anyway." again... "yolo!" later... "that dumb bitch got kids in school and just dropped $800 on yet another purse she don't need. that's sad... them kids need stuff."

women give women horrible advice bc inherently women are highly competitive with other women for attention... any attention.

if left without guidance, most self destruct on their own (no father around usually = slut or can't keep a man). with female guidance they're encouraged to indulge in various acts of depravity... screaming "feminism," and "women can fuck around just like men," the whole time.

with a solid man that leads her (bc he cares for her) the emotional impulses are kept low. to keep her roller coaster ride (random thoughts and feelings all day every day) somewhat smooth is the work that most men hate doing... but is likely the most important she needs.

but an impulsive, emotional man + emotional woman = toxic "relationshit."

Shieldless_One • 35 points • 25 June, 2019 01:22 PM

Funny you posted this as I witnessed it the other day on FB.

On a page for a music fest I'm going to one girl (far cry from being called a chick) posted about body shaming and how "she feels free now" so she doesn't shave her armpits or her legs. All the girls were like "you go girl say no to body shaming!" Most of the guys posted how they thought it was unattractive but girls would respond with F your opinion!

Women really are ruining it for themselves.

VictorEremitaK • 10 points • 25 June, 2019 08:50 PM

They are just glad they have one less person to compete with. That's why they are so evil towards other women, they are trying to lower their quality on the market.

Shieldless_One • 3 points • 26 June, 2019 12:53 AM

Idk if its always malicious though. Sometimes I think these bitches actually believe they are "doing the right thing" and virtue signaling to other people because as we all know women are never wrong.

I think its because of evolution that they developed this need to express acceptance in the "tribe" as a safety measure so she never gets kicked out of it.

Shieldless_One • 2 points • 26 June, 2019 12:58 AM

And just to add on to this point I remember an incident in college where one girl started mocking this one kid because everyone else was doing it. We (as in the guys) weren't mocking him maliciously we were just joking around as guys. But once she caught on she joined in and added "awww trying to fit innnn" in reference to the guy we were making fun of. It was a clear way of trying to join the side of the majority/"the tribe".

I think thats also why women respond well to strong boundries because women often have none but when they are with a strong guy that has strong boundaries they can kind of relax in a way and not have to do any of the critical thinking because they are bad at it and they know it.

bakamoney • 6 points • 25 June, 2019 12:54 PM

Media trends / news etc will fuck us all over.

IndiansSmellLikePoo • 25 points • 25 June, 2019 10:24 AM mulga122 • 4 points • 25 June, 2019 01:08 PM

Could you please elaborate on that one a little bit? What exactly are you referring to? I suspect some things, but not sure if you meant the same

Azkik • 3 points • 25 June, 2019 06:55 PM

The short of it is: Feminism isn't just a shit test. All of these notions such as "vulnerability is strength" are ways for women to put other women in compromising positions. This is also why betas love feminism, and commonly end up like DrPizza. It's a morally loaded social sleight-of-hand used by sociopathic women and men to prey upon more naive women.

[deleted] • 0 points • 25 June, 2019 03:47 PM

I think (((they))) taught them first.

uptimex • 111 points • 25 June, 2019 08:07 AM

Nexting.. I haven't met more efficient mechanism than that. Especially soft nexting.. they always come back.

I used to use Mystery Method, then switched to RSD and after I found TRP, which is not so commercial as RSD and more honest. And have deeper research of feminism and nowadays trends.

theboldmind • 17 points • 25 June, 2019 09:16 AM

Can you link the mystery method? I wanna read about it and I didn't see a sidebar on reddit.

uptimex • 37 points • 25 June, 2019 09:45 AM*

Mystery is the second oldest founder of pickup itself, most of the terms you use now have been crated by him and his partner Lovedrop, for example IOD, IOI, Negs, DHV,DLV, Preselection, Shit-test, HB 1-10 etc. etc.

Search for his first book called "The Mystery Method: How to Get Beautiful Women Into Bed by Mystery".

Also RSD Tyler and Neil Strauss (there is a book about PUAs called The Game) were kind of his students.

yumyumgivemesome • 20 points • 25 June, 2019 01:28 PM

The Game was my bible back in the day. I credit that book for getting me off my ass and learning to talk to women. TRP of course has helped me attract way more women, keep them, and maintain much stronger relationships.

lifeisweirdasfuck • 12 points • 25 June, 2019 01:27 PM

That book will make you a social robot. You don't want that.

hans_flammenverfer • 7 points • 25 June, 2019 03:12 PM

It's a great guide to all of the moving parts involved in pickup, just don't use canned lines and it's great.

uptimex • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 10:28 PM

It is not focused on inner game mostly. But it gives you the game tactical anatomy.

theboldmind • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 03:29 PM

Who is the first oldest?

party_dragon • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 09:38 PM

Ross Jeffries, author of Speed Seduction and pioneer of using NLP in Game and originator of the term "sarging".

uptimex • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 10:22 PM

Ross Jeffries

thetotalpackage7 • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 05:00 PM

Perhaps Neil Strauss

uptimex • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 10:23 PM

No he is kind of a student of Mystery. The same with RSD Tyler.

NaughtybutNice17 • 10 points • 25 June, 2019 12:25 PM

Can you give me a brief description of soft nesting

Is it basically when a girl does something that is "unacceptable for you" and then you just ignore her and move on with your life? Am I getting it right?

uptimex • 29 points • 25 June, 2019 12:48 PM

Nexting is a state of mind more. If she shit tested you, and you couldn't pass it with dignity, just say to yourself "Next.." and move on to another target. Or you could have sex with the girl but it didn't happen because of some technical issue (you couldn't find a place.. her boyfriend appeared) you just say "Next..". Or you couldn't continue the game with her because you just didn't have a mood for it, you say "Next". Only nexting can lead you to abundance mentality.

theboldmind • 9 points • 25 June, 2019 04:00 PM

Hmmm I never associated nexting to abundance. I don't see the connection but it's not very clear...

uptimex • 7 points • 25 June, 2019 10:27 PM

They are directly connected. When you next your 10th or 50th or 100th time, your subconscious mind realizes that you have a lot of options and they appear all the time. So you don't need to cling on just one blondy chick.

theboldmind • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 10:28 PM

But these nexts are women that you don't have a chance with right

uptimex • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 10:31 PM

You could have or you couldn't have, doesn't matter. Nexting itself is valuable. Every next emphasizes your abundance. Like you prove yourself that you can let it go. You work with yourself, with your psychology, you develop and form it by your actions.

dadfrombrad • 4 points • 25 June, 2019 09:49 PM

Weird.. I always did this naturally.

uptimex • 5 points • 25 June, 2019 10:13 PM

Then you are a natural, you don't need pickup and all this TRP stuff. You don't need this sub either.

KaiSmashSmashSawmash • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 04:51 AM

Is this based on the tv show on mtv called Next?

uptimex • 2 points • 26 June, 2019 10:05 AM

No, I didn't even know there was a show like that. It is just a PUA term, like "there is always the next girl" or "there is always a girl who can be your next target".

terra502 • 6 points • 25 June, 2019 01:40 PM

never heard of RSD could you link?

ogkushinjapan • 4 points • 25 June, 2019 10:47 PM

Don't get absorbed into the RSD Mindset tho. RSD group has good methods for pickup but that's it. Do not focus on chasing tail but chase excellence, it should be a side project.

SerialATA_Killer • 4 points • 25 June, 2019 08:32 PM

Real Social Dynamics on youtube. They have a bunch of "associates" that each sort of have their own styles. I think most STEMLords here like myself probably identify best with Tyler and Max. Todd was the first RSD guy I ever watched, but he's a little too douchey for my taste.

I always knew it existed but i dismissed it as me being delusional. The hypergamy and the alpha/beta personality and the lizard brain.

_Icarus_Reborn_ • 21 points • 25 June, 2019 11:52 AM*

Same for me, and more so seeing it in action IRL.

Before I I knew what TRP was, I knew it existed, in some form. It made sense that girls would go for the confident smooth player types, and all the other RP truths. And I just wasn't one. So that was it.

Then, once I actually started reading the TRP (Ironically coming here to see why the Reddit Hive mind hated it so much and expecting it to be the misogynistic cesspool Reddit said it would be) and seeing it action literally days after.

Real world examples were more on the female side (AFBB/branch swinging).

From then on it's red pill after red pill almost daily.

I've still got a long way to, but I'm further along than I was yesterday.

Truedemocracy4 • 13 points • 25 June, 2019 06:23 PM

Once you see it you can't unsee it. You know what friends are alpha and betas with women. The ones that have to pay for sex with expensive cars, 60 hour work weeks, begging to get a beer with friends. While the others that maintain frame do what they want when they want zaze12 • 161 points • 25 June, 2019 05:32 AM

How gullible a man can be.

MichaelLifeLessons[S] • 36 points • 25 June, 2019 08:38 AM

Just gullible, or would you go a step further into willful ignorance?

electricspresident • 65 points • 25 June, 2019 08:51 AM

Wilful ignorance is another facet. But gullible is downright crazy. It's because men value words more.

A word is A man's bond or something like that.

When emotionally compromised a man can be fed any info by the bitch and he will accept it. No matter how many times she's cheated or whatever catriel25 • 36 points • 25 June, 2019 10:49 AM

This.

Also, is funny how you realise the girl is happier if you don't give a shit about her bullshit.

Nergaal • 12 points • 25 June, 2019 04:17 PM

When emotionally compromised a man can be fed any info by the bitch and he will accept it.

I bet almost 100% of the guys here have experienced that.

electricspresident • 6 points • 25 June, 2019 04:45 PM

Yes this is true. Unless you're a psychopath, emotional robot unicorn of some kind or you have undergone training to withstand emotional attacks

Irtotallynotrobot • 6 points • 25 June, 2019 12:42 PM

I was thinking about that. I think the deal is that women value signaling what group they are supporting for more than the strength of a cause, strengthening the right cause is our job. So when we bitch at them for making stupid arguments, we're missing the point.

hibloodstevia • 5 points • 25 June, 2019 05:16 PM

It's because men value words more.

It's because AUTISTIC spectrum men value words more.

The primary language of the natural alpha is through body language and behavior. They distrust other forms of communication for important things.

Atriplex124 • 17 points • 25 June, 2019 09:08 AM

They are nor gullible. Men are rationale, they have been brainwashed since childhood. You know how difficult it is to remove 20 years of conditioning....

[deleted] • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 03:50 PM

A primordial man is only concerned with base pleasures. There's no rule set or system of value for him without tradition. Tradition needs to be replaced for men to retake control.

IssaBigLife • 109 points • 25 June, 2019 05:48 AM

Personally for me it was the Alpha personality. It made so much so sense because when I first came across the RedPill, all the people I had known in my life who changed girls like clothes, all had some of those traits.

goldenshoelace8 • 12 points • 25 June, 2019 12:27 PM

YES, this was exactly the same for me

MichaelLifeLessons[S] • 112 points • 25 June, 2019 08:43 AM

Project_Zero_Betas • 5 points • 25 June, 2019 11:37 PM

but when I realized (early twenties) that women weren't the prize

Once I realized all female behavior centers around them obtaining the most desirable alpha to father their children, it all just clicked.

YourShadowScholar • 1 points • 25 June, 2019 08:54 AM [recovered]

How are women not better than men?

Look at every other post in the thread hah... Women are ruthless, privileged, and can use and abuse men easily for their pleasure at will.

It sure sounds like they are far superior hah

GGrub8 • 28 points • 25 June, 2019 09:24 AM

It's because men enabled women's worst aspects to manifest. Peaceful times create weak men, which in turn create bitchy women.

In an apocalyptic scenario, any woman who would dare acting like this will be swiftly put in her place.

YourShadowScholar • -14 points • 25 June, 2019 09:28 AM

Ok, so? We don't live in a fairytale apocalypse. We live in this world, where women are clearly wildly superior. Since they were able to engineer this by outsmarting men, your assertions also clearly imply that women are vastly more intelligent than men as well. Seems like quite a lot of superiority.

What should be done? Start nuclear war in hopes of being a survivor and being able to live better?

Non-Cookie-cutter • 9 points • 25 June, 2019 10:00 AM

They re not these machiavelic master manipulator , men are just way too horny . I can t understand how that would somehow imply they re superior ? They can t compete with men in anything .

Men have it worse than women because that s just natural , it makes sense for only the genetically superior men to pass on their genes (not so much for the average and below average male ) , just like every other mammal .

Is a child superior to his parents who spend atleast a decade providing for him and protecting him ?

YourShadowScholar • -5 points • 25 June, 2019 10:06 AM

Well, if men are so pathetic that their horniness makes them subjugated to women...that means women are pretty clearly superior biologically since they can easily manipulate men to do whatever they want just by being born. Women are literally born superior.

Imagine you were on the other side and you were just born with the ability to manipulate any woman to do whatever you want...and all men were born this way...wouldn't you argue that men were born superior? Wouldn't you feel superior?

If men have it worse than women...how is that not clear that women are superior? What does being superior mean if not being better?

Is a child superior to his parents who spend atleast a decade providing for him and protecting him ?

Yes, quite clearly; parents elevate children to superior positions, and so does all of society. Kids get to go on lifeboats first, laws protect them more, they can commit crimes and be punished less, etc... So yes, absolutely, children are placed into a superior class position.

Non-Cookie-cutter • 8 points • 25 June, 2019 10:17 AM

Emotions over logic

pathetic

It's one of the reasons we didn't go extinct, pathetic ?

women are superior

Women are as superior as children are compared to their parents .

I know you think children and babies are your superior (!) so let me give you another example.

If your doing an important school group work and your partner is too dumb to be able to pull his weight , so you end up having to overcompensate for his weakness (which you can because you're smarter ) .

Is your dumber partner superior ? Is your cat superior because you give him free food and a place to crash because you think he's cute and nice to have around (exact same shit with women )

Having it easier than someone else doesn't make you superior . The way you can hamster it is beyond me .

If men were equal to women in the sense that you mean , we would be still living in mud huts . But according to your logic that would make those men superior yeah ? Because they slack like women did ? Because they're too dumb to compete so they just breed and do child tasks like cleaning the hous instead of conquering and inventing ?

YourShadowScholar • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 10:10 PM

> It's one of the reasons we didn't go extinct, pathetic?

In what way?

> If your doing an important school group work and your partner is too dumb to be able to pull his weight, so you end up having to overcompensate for his weakness (which you can because you're smarter ).

If they get an F when you tell the professor, then they are beneath you, and rightfully so. If they get an A from your effort for doing nothing, then they are superior to you.

It is the exact same as how the business owner is superior to you and makes more money than you even if he goes and plays golf all day because he owns the business. You wouldn't say that you are superior to the business owner because you worked in your cubicle all day for his company, would you?

> Having it easier than someone else doesn't make you superior . The way you can hamster it is beyond me

Because there is no other metric that makes any sense whatsoever? If suffering and being miserable makes you superior then you think slaves were the most superior people in all of history? Why did black people want to be freed from slavery in America if they were actually the most superior people in the country? By your metric that toiling away and suffering horribly makes you "superior" they were the most superior people. So your goal is to live a life like that? Being beaten, exploited, tortured, and in constant pain?

I think you will find that most people aren't looking to live that way. Most people think of superiority as being happier and more wonderful; getting to fly around the world in private jets, getting to cut in front of lines, eat the best food, see the most amazing concerts, purchase the best art pieces, etc... No one other than you dreams of being a slave in a field being whipped and beaten daily. And no one else other than you think the slaves were superior to their masters.

To put it in a milder form...no one thinks that a random software developer at MicroSoft is superior to Bill Gates because he actually sits in his cubicle all day coding, and Bill spends his time flying around the world doing whatever he wants.

> If men were equal to women in the sense that you mean , we would be still living in mud huts . But according to your logic that would make those men superior yeah ? Because they slack like women did ? Because they're too dumb to compete so they just breed and do child tasks like cleaning the hous instead of conquering and inventing ?

You really need to make some kind of argument here as this is just some random statements that appear unverified and meaningless. It's not clear how one would imply the other.

If women were attracted to men, maybe people would be happier overall...but it seems unlikely that warfare or inventions would never happen.

You also have a position wherein you are literally saying being at war is the ideal state of humanity. Have you ever been in war?... Most people would rather have sex all day than be in battlefields murdering and having their bodies ripped apart.

Non-Cookie-cutter • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 11:35 PM*

1)The drive men have to breed insured we would go on no matter what.

2) even if they got an a , they're inferior because they're incapable of doing what I did and they didn't manipulate me or use their brain in anyway . No point in arguing past this point , a dumber person who gets my grade out of sheer luck is not my equal, let alone superior.

It's either you do it yourself or you fail (just like men had to either thrive or die ).

Women in this scenario aren't superior, they're an irrelevant factor , just something there . So inferior .

2)Same thing , A cat would do nothing either way , but it would get to reap the benifits if its owner got rich .

3)Bill gates did more than fly around, women aren't the bill gates here , they re the cat who would be homeless and miserable if not for men .

slavery

I'd call it survival . You want the easy way out like all the rest of the cookie cutters , but if your ancestors were like you you wouldn't be here today typing that bs.

You either had to suffer , or your blood lineage or possibly your species would go extinct. Men made sure we didn't go extinct, women weren't capable of doing that . Therefore they re inferior . It doesn't matter if they have it easier , they're not equal to men because they cannot compete with men .

If men were like the superior women , we would be eating shit in mud holes right now

Learn the game don't complain. Wave the right flags. You can't feed a dog plastic that's not what he eats. Don't try to sell what they don't wanna buy. Raise your smv.

YourShadowScholar • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 09:52 PM

Well, unfortunately, it takes time to make a few billion, and the rap game is tough. Getting famous is kind of a crapshoot.

EVILEMU • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 01:44 PM

Why is this question even important? No one is superior, this is just the situation everyone is in because of game theory. Woman invest more into a potential relationship if they're risking pregnancy, guys can have more relationships without the consequence of getting pregnant. So naturally woman need to be more selective. Guys have strengths and opportunities that girls don't have and vice versa. You could argue who is "superior" forever but you'd be arguing about different things. There's more than one dimension of capability to judge and trying to prove who is superior is comparing apples and oranges

YourShadowScholar • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 09:48 PM

In what ways are men superior other than professional sports?...

EVILEMU • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 10:44 PM

Men and woman are very similar but also have many slight physical and mental differences.

Feminist writers probably have lists on this under "male privilege" theory. Different social expectation and treatment between men and woman happen in every culture. When you say "superior", you're implying that one is better than the other. But when you're comparing multidimensional things, then it isn't helpful to try and evaluate which one is the absolute superior. Certain tools are superior for certain tasks. A hammer isn't superior to a screwdriver.

How much physical strength advantage makes up for a higher societal disposability? When a ship sinks, they save the woman and children first, not the strongest or smartest. I don't know how to compare this. You need to propose a metric to grade them by like quality of life or freedom. Maybe a screwdriver is superior because it is less likely to injure you.

YourShadowScholar • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 11:34 PM

This can be easily simplified: How much pleasure and happiness do you get to experience on-demand in your life? How harshly are you punished for crimes?

These are the main objective measures of the quality of life for any human being. Women are vastly superior in both them.

Olam_Sacul • 0 points • 25 June, 2019 12:51 PM

YourShadowScholar • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 09:51 PM

MichaelLifeLessons[S] • 8 points • 25 June, 2019 09:53 AM

Did women outsmart men, or did social engineers/propagandists outsmart men? (and convince everyone that women were the prize, and were better, superior etc. in almost every way and that men were inferior)

I know a lot of women outsmart men day to day, in relationships etc. but on a societal level, was it just feminists that engineered this pro women/anti-men narrative and society that we find ourselves in today, or was there more to it than that?

I don't know the answer to that question, but I'd sure like to know.

How has society been engineered the way it is today?

YourShadowScholar • -6 points • 25 June, 2019 10:07 AM

Did women outsmart men, or did social engineers/propagandists outsmart men?

It definitely seems like women did it.

The superiority seems biologically ingrained, though. The fact that men are attracted to women and not vice versa means women are born superior to men, with power over them that can never really be taken away.

fartt123 • 6 points • 25 June, 2019 11:15 AM

Who said women aren't attracted? Just look at her losing her words in front of alpha. They all attracted to power.

YourShadowScholar • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 09:55 PM

I have to say, I've never seen that occur.

But I also am not really lucky enough to hang out with like Brad Pitt, etc...

Women aren't attracted to men though...money, power, and fame I guess, sure?

They don't fantasize about just like looking at sexy penises, though. Whereas there is an entire porn genre of just closeups of vulvas.

fartt123 • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 05:40 AM*

You could argue that men aren't attracted women, but looks and a hole. As I see it, looks are like living on rent, you wont be there forever. Money on the other hand as long as you don't delve deep in luxuries and go crazy with it, will stay. Your frame stays as long as you dont go ego maniac. As long as you could protect yourself from going too far on any spectrum you will Pull. We all are self absorbed, look outside observe. You will see so much.

As far as them being attracted to penis go. They envy it so much, but men are so horny these days that they flooded the market. Look at ugly women, they'll tell you what it's worth.

YourShadowScholar • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 05:44 AM

You can't argue that at all. Having a vagina is literally what it means to be a woman (generally speaking... minus the small percentage of trans women, and even then, many trans women want vaginas precisely because of how linked with identity as a woman is).

If men weren't attracted to vaginas, all men would simply be homosexuals as all men have holes.

So you have no way to make such an argument at all.

I spend most of my time outside. Just reporting what I see in the world I live in or appear to live in.

I can't say I've ever had anyone say that money magically lasts forever... it definitely doesn't in the world I'm in. Once it gets spent, it's gone as far as I can tell.

Huffnagle • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 04:55 PM

Most women aren't attracted to most men.

But when they are attracted, they'll do just about anything for that guy. Most guys have never seen this side of women because they usually try to protect their reputation.

As for "power over men", so what? If you get your shit together and get in the top 10% of men, you don't have to put up with much bullshit to get pussy. And it's pretty easy for most men in America to get to top 10% unless they're seriously disfigured. Just have a real job, lift a weight once in a while, and don't be a lard ass.

max_peenor • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 11:34 PM

Superior at what? Using body holes to get an expensive ring? Yes, they are WAYYY better than men at this.

The problem is you are judging each gender with the opposite's criterion. Don't do that.

omega_dawg93 • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 11:47 AM i made my point in my original post.

if you're above men & don't want/need men...

the dildo & vibrator store is over there... and you can Google the location of the closest sperm bank.

just know that if you didn't have that slit btw your legs, some men would hunt women (like you) for sport.

YourShadowScholar • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 11:48 AM

These are very non-sensical things to say lol

So your defense of men is that they are innate serial killers?...

And why would men hunt women without vaginas for sport?

omega_dawg93 • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 02:49 PM

no... men are not innate serial killers and we don't have to be taught to not rape.

sick, fucked up people rape. the other 99% + of men don't think or act on that level.

the comment about hunting women for sport doesn't mean we hate them and are into killing them.

on the surface, it means we really don't have much in common with women which is good imo (we can learn from each other). iow, our interest in you could be equivalent to other hobbies like fishing or fixing on cars.

below the surface it means chasing (which y'all like) is often fun... until the catch when (way more than often) you realize she wasn't worth the effort... so you enjoy her & RELEASE her back into the wild. single moms know this action well.

you catch & RELEASE (gives her the attention she craves) while she catches your dna donation (gives men the physical release we need). quid pro quo?

but again... if you view men as an enemy or don't recognize the values we bring, sex toys and sperm banks can solve that problem. you can choose to live without us... but we all know you're bored to death without us.

male attention >>>>> female attention & company... social media & girl's night out.

I have to ask though, if the creator is looking at the replies to this bot, what do you have against Jynx Maze? Or did you just program it to find any porn star names and try to use them as insults? I'd guess the latter. But I'd find it funny if for some reason the bot is programmed just to use Jynx Maze as a stock pornstar to make fun of people with lol

babybopp • 15 points • 25 June, 2019 09:46 AM

I just made the same post. The power of abundance and preselection.

themun95 • 5 points • 25 June, 2019 10:50 AM

What do you mean by preselection? Can you explain this a little bit

babybopp • 42 points • 25 June, 2019 11:10 AM

So when you are single and try to get a girl, more often than not she will ignore you. But if you have a girlfriend or girls with you, that means those girls that you are with have preselected you. So you become more attractive to her. Kinda like instead of going to buy a watermelon from the aisle, you wait until someone else spends time choosing a nice one, then when it is inside their cart, you steal it. Rather than you trying to buy your own because you might choose one that is not ripe. Girls find men that other women have already selected more attractive.

umizumiz • 7 points • 25 June, 2019 01:27 PM

Preselection can also be presented by attitude alone...

empatheticapathetic • 15 points • 25 June, 2019 02:06 PM

Then it's something else (abundance mentality), not preselection.

-ThePathIsTheGoal- • 3 points • 25 June, 2019 10:43 PM

Agreed, but I think the overarching point is that you can replicate it through your frame alone. The semantics aren't really that important here.

I've noticed it in my own life. If I'm in a LTR, and with that woman physically, the other girls around look at me with interest. If I am in a LTR, and NOT physically with her, the girls around me STILL look at me with interest, and I believe this is due to the manner in which I carry myself.

I am sub-communicating abundance in a way that is just about the same as if I had the girl right next to me. Something in my mannerisms is being translating as if to say: "I am a sexually satisfied man with options".

The sub communication of abundance in those times is genuine, because I AM in an LTR and genuinely feel abundant and satisfied. On the other end of the spectrum, in times where I am single, I notice a drastic decrease in the amount of looks I get. Most likely due to falling back into a scarcity/needy/thirsty frame of mind. I can fake the abundance, but most times it's not genuine, therefore no one believes it.

Project_Zero_Betas • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 11:40 PM

Abundance and pre-selection are two sides of the same coin.

umizumiz • 0 points • 25 June, 2019 04:11 PM

Preselection is the term that refers to what SHE is witnessing, abundance mentality is a term that defines a state of mind...

If you simply tell a woman you have 6 plates, then you have 6 plates. And preselection has been confirmed, so long as you're believable...

empatheticapathetic • 1 point • 25 June, 2019 04:13 PM

Attitude is a state of mind. Saying something is not 'attitude'.

Pre selection is therefore not an attitude.

Cmon bro...

umizumiz • -2 points • 25 June, 2019 06:24 PM

When did I ever say you had to speak out loud that you have chicks?

You could literally have your wingman set you up, and you can be on the other side of the bar.

Those chicks he told still think you have a harem

Spez: ok, I did say that. But that's only one way. Attitude is nonverbal as well.

_PM_ME_UR_LINGERIE_ • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 04:37 PM

Preselection is a mechanism based on social proofing. Best non dating example I use is a CV/Resumé reference. If you are going for job and you can get a recommendation from Richard Branson, that will nearly always get you the job on its own. (Whether your skills are worthy or not)

Social proofing basically gives you the benefit of the doubt i.e. positive preselection.

E.g. hanging out with a group of attractive guys has shown to make you rank higher in attractiveness than if you were only hanging out with ugly guys

That the red pill applies to everyone, not just women. You will be treated like trash if you're not a strong, powerful man.

If you lack wealth and status you can't get through life by acting nice, you have to be proactive, bordering on aggressive to everyone or you will be taken for granted.

That everything is about frame and confidence and sexual market value rather than your actual words... which allows you to voice things that you would inherently assume would be unattractive and GAIN from it, as long as the other factors are in play.

Are you a jacked dude with good frame and social control? Yeah, you can enrapture a party talking about fucking SPREADSHEETS if that's your jam, and girls will not only tolerate it, but feel more attracted to you, because:

You're displaying unusual confidence in talking about it because of the stereotype that it's nerdy

You're probably standing out from all the other guys trying to impress by talking about 'cool' shit

They can't figure you out because you're a mix of stereotypes

I mean, you can't just do it whatever your stature in life - if you're behaving like the nerdy loner at the party, it's just going to reinforce that stature instead. But if the frame and confidence and SMV comes first, then you can say all the same 'unattractive' shit and make it actively work in your favour.

I always thought that in my transition to becoming more popular with women, I'd have to give up all my nerdy interests and quirks and thoughts about life. Exact opposite has happened - I'm more publicly nerdy than ever before, but because I got my shit together, it now works for me instead of putting me behind.

I'm not suggesting this is IDEAL game (maybe being 100% player really is better, sure), but you can certainly have your cake and eat it too, at least to the extent you've got a better sex life than 99% of men.

In the comments from Franco (hopefully I'm allowed to share it, he's RP):

<https://www.francoseduction.com/girlfriend-2/>

"Helllo Marcus, the attraction in the female is always coming from the primeval part of her personality. Powerful "high" and "low" emotions are related in the woman to hormonal changes and are the main channel of her femininity. Female attraction's main channel are those emotions. If a man is worried too much about acting on the primeval part of a female personality he is shutting off the main channel to have her attracted. So.. a man cannot be too much worried of will be the social part "angry".. by the way: it's always the primeval part to be "angry" The social part is the part which is in charge of the emotions so more of a logical structure.

In a word: one cannot build attraction (real attraction!) in a woman and be too much worried of what her social part will do. You need to address both of them and calibrate. That does not necessarily mean that you would be a jerk or a "bad guy". Freak females are attracted to bad guys who abuse them and violate their boundaries. Feminine women are attracted to men who exert leadership over their primeval feminine part."

In fact, this was one of the facts that surprised me too about women

Yashugan00 • 3 points • 26 June, 2019 10:41 AM

Sure: met a lefty liberal from major metropolitan area so I just knew all the buttons to push.

Went with the white men are the victims of prejudice which sets her off big time. I mean she was fuming, she left, came back to argue some more. I refused to apologise. Almost got in a fight with another guy which I defused by standing my ground without escalating. She was blowing my cock at the end of the night and I just left her at that point. Alcohol was involved: many "not smart" decisions were made that night.

But a good lesson: It doesn't matter that she's angry with you, she can still be attracted even when you've pissed her off to no end.

How much women want to be told what to do, and how they defect to leadership/local alpha.

Hypergamy can be outrageous when you keep your eye on it. Have seen women in a work setting go for the guy with the highest title, then in a coed sports team go for the guy who is playing QB and barking commands, and then at a bar go for the best looking guy. Their attraction can be incredibly situational.

And how little women truly care about equality. Really is a watch what they do not what they say. Every (attractive) feminist I know have the same dating preferences of a homewife. A strong man to put them in their every big time pussy hound i know was once a blue pill beta bitch boy, including myself, but that one girl...

she cheated by fucking half the football team and you didn't know.

she fucked your friends behind your back.

she used you for attention.

she had 30 orbiters kissing her ass daily... waiting to do anything she wanted.

and other examples.

when you see that "light," you wonder then see that AWALT.

that can unleash the beast in a man and set him on a path of IDGAF, & "what's in it for me!"

then you realize to women it's all a game... they just want to have fun, fuck a LOT, then pick a beta to marry & pay their way thru life.

men have to learn game to survive the games that women play. women are ruthless about this shit.

omega_dawg93 • 9 points • 25 June, 2019 05:40 PM understood.

but a beautiful thing happens when you look at your life and move forward with YOU (and your happiness) as your #1 priority.

you naturally stop caring what people think/feel about you... stop worrying about pussy all the time... stop wasting your time trying to figure it all out.

when you put women on the back burner and focus on you, they pick up on it... they feel it... they want a man that does NOT put them on a pedestal.

they in turn, get into and remain in their feminine energy.

you don't say, "I'm the damn prize," you live your life as such. they are bringing kids, emotional baggage, drama, credit issues, lack of life direction etc. they know they don't deserve to be placed at that point in your life. they are a complement... NEVER the focus.

iow... living your life without a fuck to give makes life enjoyable. listen to them, and you'll believe that battle-tested DNA collection hole btw their legs is worth all the trouble.

it's not worth it. never.

Sorry for the edit, found myself overwordy, and now can't find it back.

Totally agree.

And this indeed applies to all areas of life.

For instance, doing commissioned job when you already have enough money. So you're just doing it for fun, and can throw a rude client away any time. Flipping the script over them when they try to lure you with vague promises, realize it doesn't work, and try very amusing alternate ways to appease you :).

At the end, not caring is key for getting to the bottom of anything.

if the truth hurts, get some lube.

but the game doesn't care, doesn't end, and doesn't care if you play or not.

as the saying goes, "men live their lives trying to get credit for the virtuous things they do... while women live their lives trying to avoid punishment for the depravity (debauchery) they enjoy."

I think most men will become red pill after experiencing life.

If you're a normal young dude with a mediocre sex life eventually you're going to want to wake up and change.

A lot men make the change when they realize that they are putting way too much effort in without receiving the benefits. And hopefully this happens in mid to late 20s unless a guy was truly sheltered or in a serious ltr, in which case he may learn later in life.

To your point, the red pill community shocked me because it's literally thousands of men that either went through the same bs I did or worse. It's hard to find guys that are willing to talk about these topics in the open, so seeing so many on the internet discuss this stuff is what shocked me.

Okynrom • 3 points • 25 June, 2019 05:58 PM

It's hard to find guys that are willing to talk about these topics in the open

This is why TRP is so essential.

The thing is: Chads and BP men brag all the time. The former because they get pussy, the latter because they don't want to appear desperate and stick to the social narrative.

Only honest (autistic) men, a minority, will actually say the truth. Happened to me a few times. But then there is a bias: maybe they are negative because they indeed are, ahem, autistic, and thus unsuccessful with chicks ? How to be sure ?

There comes TRP.

they just have to remember 2 things: turn down (can't turn off) the emotional switch... turn on the logic switch and keep it on for the duration of the exercise.

How marriage is completely unnecessary for a man the Western Hemisphere. I'm still too young for my parents to nag me about marriage but I'm mentally trying to prepare myself for the eventual day where I have to sit them down and tell them I do not want a marriage. I have brought it up with them in the past but they just hamster it off as me being too young and immature to understand the true value of marriage.

dj1041 • 4 points • 25 June, 2019 06:40 AM

Do you want a family?

StoneHurk • 55 points • 25 June, 2019 07:36 AM

Maybe. But just because I want kids doesn't mean I should have em. Until I'm at point in my life where I'm well off enough and be willing to make the sacrifices for the kids, I do not deserve to have em. I need to become successful myself first before entertaining the idea of starting a family.

If I'm gonna be having kids, I'm gonna make sure I do a damn good job at raising them. Too many people have kids for the sake of having em or because society says getting married and having kids is what you're supposed to do, regardless if you're actually ready or not. But we just end up with a bunch of little shit heads running around raised by people who have no idea what the fuck they're doing.

I can only provide for myself, and wouldn't dare drag someone into this world of I couldn't give them the best opportunities. I'm sick of these poor ass people with way more children than they have any business having, and I refuse to be a part of the problem.

Women loving opportunistically, and being incapable of truly romantic love. While men are the ones that do love romantically. It's so directly counter to the mainstream thought that men are the vain and callous ones when it comes to love and relationships.

JyoungPNG • 1 point • 26 June, 2019 07:39 AM

This is what people mean when they talk about the cruel nature of life. We are raised and conditioned to believe a false narrative and once we uncover the truth, it hits you like a fucking brick. The realization that “she’s not yours, it’s just your turn” absolutely sucks. I think the gays have found the secret to escaping women and finding love.

Briffault's Law

The female, not the male, determines all the conditions of the animal family. Where the female can derive no benefit from association with the male, no such association takes place.

There are a few corollaries:

1. Past benefit provided by the male does not provide for continued or future association.
2. Any agreement where the male provides a current benefit in return for a promise of future association is null and void as soon as the male has provided the benefit (see corollary 1)
3. A promise of future benefit has limited influence on current/future association, with the influence inversely proportionate to the length of time until the benefit will be given and directly proportionate to the degree to which the female trusts the male (which is not bloody likely).

Evolution doesn't give a fuck about what's fair thetotalpackage7 • 0 points • 25 June, 2019 05:11 PM

" Where the female can derive no benefit from association with the male, no such association takes place. " This "law" seems a little too under-developed for me. Flip it...wouldnt it also be true that if a woman offers no value to man, no association will take place? This is just common sense...not some revelation. Maybe I am missing something.

Saveyourselfgurl • 3 points • 25 June, 2019 04:35 PM

Hell fucking no, shaming and harsh penalties that came with it put men in power. Of course they were able to cheat and cuck their men but if they were caught they were either killed or labeled as an adulterer forcing them to lowest of the low jobs.

NOWIFE • 2 points • 25 June, 2019 09:54 PM

Slut shaming is a female tactic used against other females. It was at the time the direction of the culture that woman chose. Women as a whole choose the moral direction of society. Women as a group govern what is acceptable behavior from other women and from men as well.

man I remember partying at the hottest club in San Diego with dudes that'd literally spend $20-50k a night on their table and have bottle shows kind of spectacles. Girls would literally come up from outside the table and whisper in my ear from the non -vip area that they were DTF and would do ANYTHING to kick it with us.

Those times I indulged in too much pleasure as a consequence of girls raining when I'd hangout with these dudes and got distracted from my purpose but this all made me confirm from firsthand experience that Hypergamy is very real and that when you're a top dawg (perceptually or realistically) sex will never be a concern ...

On a last note having a hedonistic lifestyle also served me as a powerful reminder to always put purpose over pussy. Pleasure is cool but can't be pedestalized if we want to be our very best versions..

Lmao wut???? Black chicks are probably the easiest for a white dude. As long as you aren’t a pussy at least, in my experience they aren’t big fans of limp wrists and small dicks.

They are definitely not. Or in your case this really depends on the type of black chick you're referring too.

Black women tend to date within their race more. If anything Hispanic men will tend to have a better shot.

The types of black women that white guys usually get are the ones who grew up in the suburbs surrounded by whites. Black girls tend to stay within their own social groups like going to black clubs, black hangout spots, hang around with majority black people, ect..

Look up the phrase "invited to the cookout" to get a better sense of what I'm saying.

Unless a white guy is truly putting himself out there as in going to those types of environments then he will struggle with women because seriously how the hell would he even relate to them?

[deleted] • 3 points • 25 June, 2019 05:02 PM

askmrcia • 4 points • 25 June, 2019 05:08 PM

I know you were not talking about ghetto Thots. I'm talking about the same type of black women you are talking about.

Look up black female athletes and look who they are dating. If you're in college look at who the black females are dating. Black women are one of the most outspoken demographic when it comes to stay dating to your own race.

Black women usually tend to date black guys only because they tend to stick in their own bubble. That's just how it is. When you go to the gym, run 5ks, go to high end clubs or bars, go snowboarding, go rock climbing, ect... How many black women do you see there?

White guys are not slaying black girls like you think they are. Black girls are not easy for white guys.

That men and women have different biological imperatives.

Women want the best option available at the time. This time is determined by their biological clock. They want an alpha while they are at their sexual peak. And they want a beta to decline with. After they have kids they want to try and seek out an alpha again.

Male reproductive strategy is to impregnate as many women as possible.

Men can always get a woman pregnant but, women can only get pregnant every 9 months.
