I don't like the hybrid Twitter / reddit flow style. I just see an endless list of messages without context.

Any way to have a list of threads view?

You're in luck- although the feeds themselves are meant to be small "what's new" type tidbits a la twitter / facebook, we are planning threaded forums for launch later this year.

Here's a sneak peek for later this year:

Soo whos making money off of this/is this necessary?

You can follow r/theredpill to answer the question of whether a dedicated platform is necessary. I say yes, but feel free to stay here long after we've been banned.

As far as monetary gain is concerned, I don't know what hit you kids in the head to make you so dumb that you actually think capitalism is bad, but regardless, TRP.RED is something we've been working on at a loss for a long time to protect men's interests. We run almost entirely off donations. We also sell ads but they don't cover anywhere close to a fraction of our operating costs.

TRP.RED is and will always be free.

Feel free to donate on our patreon <https://www.patreon.com/trpred>

Due to recent controversies towards Patreon, I think you should look forward to other ways to monetize, just in case.

I don't know why you're being downvoted, you pretty much hit the nail on the head. There is a disturbingly strong movement not only to influence the minds of young men one way or another, but to also monetize that influence so that it can be bought and sold to the highest bidder. Question everything, remember what this sub originally was.

You have to understand, they're everywhere.

"The matrix is a system, Neo. That system is our enemy. But, when you're inside and you look around, what do you see? Businessmen, teachers, lawyers, carpenters. The very minds of the people we are trying to save, but until we do these people are still a part of that system, and that makes them our enemy. You have to understand that most of these people are not ready to be unplugged, and many of them are so inert, so hopelessly dependant on the system that they will fight to protect it."
