Even for Askmrp this is phoned in low quality shit

Yeah, amazing what happens when men lift vs spending all their time watching and posting about the NFL.

The American sports machine is the religion of the masses. It's the modern equivalent of coliseum combat designed to keep the lower classes dumb and happy.

Seriously, look around at the average guy who listens to sports radio, watches sports all weekend, plays multiple fantasy teams, etc. Chances are high that he's a fat, beta loser who is masking his inadequacy by enjoying vicarious victories.

Oof, yeah this pretty much sums up what I see. I was a runner back in high school for general fitness. I played soccer up until middle school and never had the desire to play football. It's strange to me now when I hear people so enthusiastic about how another guy can throw a ball or how a team is so great. I get that we all have our passions but for me it's just weird to idolize other men like that. Especially, when you're a fat tub of lard who doesn't take care of himself. They know everything about their sport but nothing about themselves.

HeckleandChide • 1 point • 14 November, 2019 03:59 PM

Full offense intended. I'm not surprised you didn't want to play football because you are a weak faggot who is probably scared of getting hit, hence gravitating to running and soccer.

Not everyone who runs and plays soccer is a faggot. Everyone who runs and plays soccer and posts like you is a faggot.

That's some big dick energy. Does your wife share her boyfriend with you or do you just enjoy watching?

HeckleandChide • 1 point • 14 November, 2019 07:46 PM

Funny you should mention her. She weighs 10lb less than you and deadlifts more than your squat and bench combined.

Faggot.

fannyfire • 1 point • 14 November, 2019 07:54 PM

Oh, I guess she pushes roids too? I'm not sure how it works on women. I know it makes men's balls shrink up. Did it make her vagina shrivel up to fit your tiny cock?

HeckleandChide • 0 points • 14 November, 2019 08:30 PM

No, she is not on roids. The fact that you think a woman who deadlifts more than 240 must be on roids speaks to how ignorant you are.

Do yourself a favor. Read, lift, and STFU. Not in that order.

You don't have to DEER to me. I'm just having fun old man.

Serious time.

You talk a ton of shit. That's fine. A lot of guys here talk a ton of shit. Guys like Red, Rian, SK, Perseaus, HoA, etc. The list goes on. This place is full of them.

You want to know the difference between those guys and you? They have earned it. They have spent more than 22 days in the trenches and worked on their shit. They have spent the time, blood, sweat, and tears to become better men. They are the real deal.

Here's your problem. You are a faker. You are a chameleon and not a particularly good or successful one. You probably have a history of drifting from group to group socially, fitting in at first, before fucking it all up and getting kicked out.

You found this place 3 weeks ago and have dozens, maybe hundreds, of posts in that time across this and other subs. You are clearly in the newbie Rambo phase and are like a damn bull in a china shop. Well, maybe more like a chihuahua in a china shop in your case.

Why? Because you aren't a real person. You have zero frame. You have zero depth. You don't know what frame really is. You are weak and see assholes and assume that they are strong so you mimic them. Your bluster comes from a place of insecurity, fear, and self loathing so you self destruct everything in your life. You naturally push people away.

Your relationships are likely a mess across the board because you find ways to consistently sabotage them. Why? Because of a lot of reasons, most of which come down to the fact that you are a shitty person, you recognize you are a shitty person, and thus when others don't see that quickly enough, you do shitty things because that's what you think you deserve. Being shitty is your native language.

Here's the deal. My wife is stronger than you. Who gives a fuck. There are chicks out there that deadlift more than just about anyone in this group. Who the fuck cares? <https://youtu.be/Lrcwaa3qgLo>

The number doesn't matter. It's just a fucking number.

So why talk about it then? Well, we talk about it here because those numbers reflect who you have been and what you have done to get here. They are a lagging indicator of you as a person, at least in a very key area.

So yeah, you are weak as fuck. You bench 85lb. My 13 year old does more than that for reps. Who cares? You can get better. You can get stronger. Keep working. You can be better. But it takes consistent work. The work isn't even hard. Doing it consistently though for months and years? That's the hard part. The thing that stands out here is that you are talking shit when you have no platform to stand on. You have no frame, no substance, and no background to do so. Normally that wouldn't be a big deal except that it comes from the very root of your problem.

Your problem, fundamentally, is that you don't like yourself because you are a shitty person. That truth colors and degrades / poisons everything in your life.

So what? So fucking change it. It's on you. It's your fault you are a shitty person. Maybe your parents played a role. Maybe your youth basketball coach fucked you behind the bleachers. I'm sure there are shitty things that have helped mold you. But it's your choice to stay that way. You own today. You own tomorrow and every day after that. Which means that if you stay shitty, that's 100% on you.

You can take the time to read this shit, reflect on it, and maybe improve a bit. Recognize some flaws and areas to grow.

Or you could keep talking about my cock, my balls, and my wife's vagina.

Your call. I don't care except to this extent that this place has been incredibly helpful for me for years so I like to give back.

Watching sports is similar to watching porn and masturbating

SoggyTrain • 23 points • 13 November, 2019 05:05 PM

The interesting thing in the comments I noticed is that the guys who started lifting just so their wives would fuck them more were disappointed, dancing fucking monkeys.

fannyfire • 4 points • 13 November, 2019 08:06 PM

I read a few comments about that and thought the same thing.

It's also made me more determined to get in shape myself

Based on recent OYS's, no one here

Slow down Rambo. Not all of us have wives...

SBIII • 14 points • 13 November, 2019 07:32 PM

Humble brag.

hack3ge • 7 points • 13 November, 2019 07:24 PM

Doubt it's mine - mine still won't acknowledge the reason she can't get enough dick is the muscles. It's like why are you bringing up that you don't like muscular men all the time and then 5 minutes later your hand is running down inside my obliques and you want to fuck. You honestly can't help but laugh at the insanity of it all.

Like I've said over and over - nothing overcomes millions of years of evolution...

Post Locked.

I'm shocked I say. Shocked!

mabden • 7 points • 13 November, 2019 06:41 PM

Way back, my girl friend and I were talking about improvements we needed to make for ourselves.

Her: "muscles would be nice." Said with doggie dinner bowl look.
