

Anyone find some women just really kill a boner even if theyre hot?

November 22, 2019 | 60 upvotes | by xxx69harambe69xxx

I was with a chick that had an objectively beautiful face, but something about the way she would talk about stupid shit incessantly even in bed, and a very peculiar unwashed smell, just made my dick go limp, meanwhile with other chicks who are less pretty, and may smell different, and may even talk a lot, I can go for hours till they are shaking

Is this erectile dysfunction, or does this just happen with some attractive women from time to time?

This is you being turned off by something about a certain chick- her vibe, a weird comment, masculine energy from her, pussy stink, etc. Nothing wrong with you.

It's also easy to boost confidence in these situations. In fact, I learned a lot about game in these situations where the girl was a bombshell but there was something about her that killed my dick. Just practiced game on her because I know I don't care about her because I don't like her, but if I succeed I know she's hot and it gives me confidence.

This is called histocompatibility and is innate biology. Smelling off is your genes saying "bad match". It happens.

VasiliyZaitzev • 98 points • 22 November, 2019 08:06 PM

^ True Facts.

Plus if she's an idiot, your dick thinks, "Do we really want stupid kids? I don't think so, boss."

hoopingblob • 22 points • 22 November, 2019 08:20 PM

Hahahaha! Sounds about right.

Stealing

juggernaut8 • 3 points • 23 November, 2019 05:40 AM

For me, my dick says hell yes. My mind says no.

Onidramon • 3 points • 23 November, 2019 10:00 AM lol this shit is tops, the wording I was looking for

KaiSmashSmashSawmash • 1 point • 23 November, 2019 05:34 PM

But we're all dogs and we'll still smash. It's after the smash you get these thoughts and makes you not go round 2. And leave ASAP

Ha was just talking about the importance of scent when it comes to hooking up with friends. They thought I was a lunatic dutchgguy • 4 points • 23 November, 2019 01:59 AM lol I once dumped somebody for this

JosephBosa • 4 points • 23 November, 2019 02:41 AM

I've also had the opposite effect. I met a girl the other day who smelled like musky armpits but it made her more attractive. I don't like musk but there was certainly some biological thing at work itiswrltten • 13 points • 23 November, 2019 03:00 AM

The actual smell doesn't matter. It's how it makes you react

JosephBosa • 1 point • 23 November, 2019 06:44 AM

It's something along the pheromone concept or maybe it was an evolutionary sign of compatibility. But there was a mutual palpable sexual tension. Which leads me to the latter.

Her scent and my liking to it must have been linked in some ancient genetic matchmaking from mother nature

Sobinia • 2 points • 23 November, 2019 08:55 AM

Matching pheromones. Those were your instincts telling you that if you had a kid with this girl, it would have a stronger immune system than if you were to "mate" with a different woman.

Some girls smell (and taste) absolutely neutral down there. What's weird is that I didn't have such a girl since high school/beginning of Uni. That's 5 years ago already.

I had maybe 3-4 girls who would taste absolutely neutral, like when I'd eat them out and went from the normal skin to the pussy the taste wouldn't change. Maybe only slightly. Smell would also be neutral.

I can't tell if it's about hygiene though. Most girls say it has nothing to do with hygiene so I seem to think it actually is a hygiene thing hahah

You posted on TRP 5 years ago.

Never found the "Respect the tag" article on the main sidebar?

I'll give you a little vacation to read it.

And since you tend to miss the point, it's not about the faggot.

It's on for me. Is mine on? How about Vas? Norvell's mod greenery?

Go to old reddit and ensure the "use subreddit style" sidebar box is checked. There's also a box in oldreddit prefs that can fuck things up, but I'll have to renew my memory about that.

flipdoggers • 1 point • 23 November, 2019 04:20 PM

What's it about then? Cause other than the faggot he was just trying to make a point, even if he ended up being wrong it's easy to see how he thought he was right

RPNorvell[M] • 3 points • 23 November, 2019 05:09 PM

TRP is not a democracy. It's a meritocracy.

That means the guys that have flair are automatically granted more leeway and given more respect because they're proven entities.

Like most male spaces, the hierarchy is well defined even if it's not codified. If you're the FNG then you get shit on until you prove yourself. The foreman gets to do shit that you don't.

It's feminine and unrealistic to assume your vote counts. It's entitled and nowhere near reality.

Mismm got a vacation because he just assumed it's writ was wrong out of the gate. Respect your elders.

It also cuts the other way... if an EC starts spewing nonsense or behaving in ways contrary to TRP, the tag gets pulled. So there is a burden of performance on every guy with flair.

Which should make you even more attentive to what they have to say.

flipdoggers • 1 point • 23 November, 2019 06:38 PM

Mismm got a vacation because he just assumed it's writ was wrong out of the gate.

Well it wasn't just out of the gate, it was based on his prior knowledge of histocompatibility that seemed to directly contradict what it is written said.

It's feminine and unrealistic to assume your vote counts.

I didn't see a vote anywhere, just a dude sharing his opinion. Just like I'm disagreeing w you right now. That doesn't mean I don't respect you or think I'm entitled to anything, but it'd be strange if you banned me just because I'm contradicting you in this comment. I respect you and the other mods/ECs, and appreciate the work you guys put into this sub, but there will inevitably be things I disagree with you guys on.

I'm not arguing against banning him, I just suspect your real reason was the "faggot" and the way he wrote the comment. I suspect you wouldn't have banned him if he'd just written "Actually, histocompatibility refers to tissue compatibility in an immune system context, not a sexual one".

itiswr1tten • 1 point • 24 November, 2019 01:06 AM

While I can't speak for the mods, last sentence is exactly it. If reply user hadn't gotten triggered by my tone and recognized it as a joke, he would post something like: "Oh yeah fgt? I just looked it up and it said this."

Then I would have responded with the same study and said yeah, it's a broad term. Check this out.

Instead reply guy tried to flex with the dictionary acting like he's the smartest guy in the room. That's no bueno.

Bing_Bang_Bam • -1 points • 23 November, 2019 03:03 AM

I think it's spelled fagget. Faggot.

Dude, anything can kill a boner. Boners are the most psychological biological function we have. So much of it relies on where your mind is at and what your thoughts are.

SeasonedRP • 10 points • 22 November, 2019 09:47 PM

It happens. I experienced it last spring with a very attractive woman. Dick didn't go limp though I definitely lost arousal and had to focus to keep the erection. Something about the way she smelled was very offputting. Fucking her doggy ameliorated it somewhat, however I no longer see her nor have any desire to.

FinancialThanks1 • 17 points • 22 November, 2019 07:58 PM

It's just your body telling you not to fuck tramps

vondoom900 • 12 points • 22 November, 2019 09:36 PM

Yeh was pretty attracted to this girl for awhile in my early 20s then she started talking about reality show bs (very very very enthusiastically) and my entire attraction to her died in that moment. Think everyone has these moments.

ChadTheWaiter100 • 12 points • 22 November, 2019 10:19 PM

This is the exact reason why you screen women. Bc looks aren't everything and this is also why we are the prize. This is why they must validate themselves to you.

This happened to me last week... it was her voice I couldn't fucking stand it and she started acting weird when she woke up in bed one night and that was what sealed it

[deleted] • 6 points • 23 November, 2019 03:31 AM

After a Uni class I was going to my classmates flat to have sex but on the way she started telling me she was clean and had no STDs because she went to the doctors to check. I know she was just talking out of nervousness but it was an instant mood/boner kill. I made an excuse before I got to her flat saying I felt quite ill and left.

Kabuki431 • 5 points • 23 November, 2019 05:22 AM

I read here and it's called boner test. I have absolutely dropped some 9s because simply there was no attraction. Physical or otherwise

Compelimator • 4 points • 23 November, 2019 05:36 AM

My ex gf was hot with huge amazing tits and her attitude and rule the roost personality just killed attraction for me. We didnt fuck for months. I thought i had ed . Get with new chicks and everything went back to normal

Domebeers • 3 points • 22 November, 2019 09:51 PM

MultiMidsets • 1 point • 23 November, 2019 03:45 AM

You simply aren't used to those smells getting you turned on. Sleep with more girls and it should change - or offer them showers before sex.

JosephBosa • -1 points • 23 November, 2019 02:47 AM

Your possibly bisexual bro.
