0 upvotes | 8 December, 2019 | by ArnoldT1000

She texts me 10 minutes before saying she'll be at my house half an hour later than the set time

How to act here?

She is 10 minute late? Hard next, ghost her mother, kill her dog, enslave her whole family.

Are you actually serious? It's 10 minutes. We are all human fucks sake. Not like she flaked last second.

You should do nothing. Do not give a fuck about that and when she comes just have fun.

Logically you can safely assume that she is late cause she wanted to look good for you and took extra steps to shave her pussy.

My current LTR always was late too around 30mins but i never cared cause I was doing shit in that time so for me no loss.

Plate is added value to your life so why would you care about that if your life already has a lot of value in it?

Did she say why?

ArnoldT1000 • -4 points • 8 December, 2019 08:41 PM*

No explanation, just said I'll be there at x

Its now 10 min past that time and she hasn't shown up.

I'm gonna put this bitch in her place

ceilingsky95 • 2 points • 8 December, 2019 08:57 PM

No. Show indifference.

Who cares? This is not the last "bitch" you will ever know.

Go do some push ups.

ArnoldT1000 • 2 points • 8 December, 2019 09:00 PM

So what should I do in terms of her?

ceilingsky95 • 2 points • 8 December, 2019 09:03 PM

Nothing. I have read your post history. You seem to be decent with women.

Find new women.

Pussy feels the same especially if you're chasing it like a dog.

Don't invite her over anymore

You're trying too hard. If it really irked you that much then fuck her and ghost her. Or you can act like you've been here before and understand that occasionally shit like this happens. If it starts to become a common thing and she starts wasting your time then that's a different story. "I'm gonna put this bitch in her place". You care way too much. Stop trying to act like a hard ass.

Fair enough

She's a plate. Soft next her (even if she shows up at the door). She'll either fuck off or put out some effort to explain AND make it up to you.

You do nothing and stop acting like she flaked on you, she's still coming over right your in a better place than most men who don't even get a notice just keep an eye on how often she does it that's all

Red_Pill_Brotherhood • 1 point • 9 December, 2019 01:03 AM

Dont trip about it. If it becomes a habit, eventually tell her once "let me know with more notice from now on".

OfficerWade • 1 point • 9 December, 2019 01:43 AM

She's shit testing you. Watch yourself react. I see a lot of guys here playing the smallest violin and going nuclear.

If you see yourself inviting her over and she's like "fuck yes" with her attitude but is "late" just take it with her character. Don't do anything else.

ArnoldT1000 • 1 point • 9 December, 2019 01:48 AM

That's how I handled it. I teased her about it and spanked her to "punish" her for it but other than that was non reactive.
