

Formar redpill. Trying to piece life bacj together.

July 31, 2019 | 6 upvotes | by RadicalREDPILLERZ

Hi. I am a 22-year-old college student. I was exposed to the "red pill" on campus by some friends. Since then I have struggled to reconcile my RP knowledge and life. I refuse to go to parties, hang out with girls from fear of false accusations. Long story short, My girlfriend wants to marry. I am only 22 and have barely finished college. She is pregnant and wants the child to grow up with a loving father. I am fine with a ceremony but refused to sign marriage papers. I will raise him happily but now red-pillars are telling me to get a DNA test, that it may not even be my kid. I don't know what to do. My family is all over this, saying I need to man up but FUCK!!! I don't know what to do.

Edit 2: Thanks guys. Just to clear up a few things. I am a former redpill, however i keep what I've learned in the back of my mind. I can not reply to everyone so just some house keeping. -I'll pay child support and don't mind raising the child and taking responsibility -I don't mind staying with her and raising the child but what u have to understand is I'm in university and its stressful. My parents would probably help but the real problem is she wants a full blown wedding. I don't want to be divorced and dragged through the cleaners. -A DNA test is definitely going to happen and I'm just hoping she'll agree to an abortion . I used protection and we didn't have sex that often. We agreed she'd used birth control and we'd at least talk about abortion if she ever got pregnant. I can't help but feel like I'm being trapped by her.

I'll keep you posted as this plays out. Right now shes staying with my parents because we need time apart. I am avoiding everyone and just focusing on Work and just dodging calls.

Edit 3. So we got to talking and she's not sure if it's my child or not, SURPRISE SURPRISE!!!! I told her if it's my child she'd have my full support but under no circumstances will I be marrying her. She asked me what I would do if it's not my child and I refused to answer. In all honesty I still love the cheating harpy but I refuse to marry someone who could so easily cheat and not even feel bad about it. Guess I am A purple pill fool, she'll be staying at her parents house in another city because I refuse to support her or talk to her until the child is born and I can get a DNA test. She's seriously considering abortion because if it's not mien her bastard child won't have a father. I feel like shit but I don't know what else to do am i the ass hole?

Get to know actual women and realize they are just people.

baiboosar 1 points 31 July, 2019 02:54 AM [recovered]

Then u get to know them better and realize their snakes.

yoyo01323 • 25 points • 31 July, 2019 03:05 AM

Men can be snakes too. So relax.

Criticalthinking346 • 5 points • 31 July, 2019 11:51 PM

So you mean people?? Since all “people” can be snakes?

absolutebeginners • 17 points • 31 July, 2019 02:26 AM are you really exredpill? you've just posted in redpill subs for 8 hours (same age as your account)

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 7 points • 31 July, 2019 02:28 AM*

yeah, I am redpill, that's why I am struggling to make a decision. I have half a mind to just run away and transfer universities.

veremita • 9 points • 31 July, 2019 05:30 PM

Be mindful of the fact that that is a luxury only afforded to men. Make the effort to empathise with your girlfriend on a human level, let her know that you are afraid - she won't reject your feelings.

Criticalthinking346 • 4 points • 31 July, 2019 11:52 PM

Sooo in other words fuck your kid? Nice, karma going to be hard on you.....

iheartlucifer • 1 point • 10 August, 2019 12:53 AM

And what if the kid is not his?

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 3 points • 31 July, 2019 02:31 AM

I am struggling with the red-pill. I keep finding my self going back and forth. Yeah I do post on the mgtow sub Reddit. I agree with a-lot of what they say. A-lot of it I have experienced, and now I am kinda in trouble.

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 4 points • 31 July, 2019 02:32 AM in short I am struggling to get away from the redpill and am in a situation where most of my friends are redpilled.

onthevenue123 • 9 points • 31 July, 2019 03:32 AM

This is confusing because if you are struggling with the red pill, as you claim, why would you be posting in redpill accounts?

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 0 points • 31 July, 2019 03:38 AM

I agree with alot of what they have said and have experienced some minor shit. Iam trying to have a relationship without involving the government. Now shes pregnant n family forcing me to marry or they'll take her in plus make make pay child support. This is the most fucked up thing thats happend to me n its pushing me towards the redpill n its content. Plus its summer sp other the work no real distractions.

ontheavenue123 • 14 points • 31 July, 2019 03:47 AM

So yes, if a woman is pregnant with your baby then you should pay child support. What are you trying to d exactly- get out of supporting your own child? If you aren't prepared for a baby you shouldn't be having unprotected sex. I'm really confused as to how this is pushing you towards red pill ideology.

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 0 points • 1 August, 2019 02:14 AM

Feel like shes trapping me with the child. We talked about what we'd do if she got pregnant and it wasn't tell my family and get married

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • -5 points • 31 July, 2019 04:01 AM

I will if i have too but read the damn post again.

ontheavenue123 • 6 points • 31 July, 2019 04:17 AM

I have read the post several times and am still confused as to what you're asking about. You got your girlfriend pregnant and you are confused as to what exactly? Whether or not you should be a father?

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • -1 points • 31 July, 2019 04:24 AM

GF pregnant, not sure what to do. I haven't asked her if abortion is an option. Maybe then we can get on without lives n get together after I've completed university. If she has that kid it will literally put my education in danger, I can't afford child support right now and my parents are demanding it if I don't get married and they have to take her in. I guess we could cohabitate but shes demanding marriage. WTF, I got redpillers telling me she's trying to trap me with that baby because I have a good education and possible future.

Child support is a joke. If you're not making money, the court will only make you pay an extremely small amount of money. Watching shows like Paternity court, in some jurisdictions some guys only paid like $35 a week... I feel so bad for the woman who loves you, who you've already abandoned emotionally. The red pill is poison.

Criticalthinking346 • 8 points • 31 July, 2019 11:57 PM

Anyone over the age of 18 has been burned by the opposite sex. Shit I was left homeless and pregnant, yet normal well adjusted people don't blame the whole gender....

You father a CHILD you should pay support, children are expensive and you are half the reason it's here. It not okay to engage in sexual activity but refuse to accept the consequences of it. In future If your not ready for another child you probably should use protection.

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 1 point • 1 August, 2019 02:12 AM*

I am not blaming the whole gender. I used protection and we didn't have sex that often. We agreed she'd used birthcontrol and we'd at least talk about abortion if she ever got pregnant. I can't help but feel like im being trapped by her.

baiboosar 1 points 1 August, 2019 03:07 AM [recovered]

Tell her she should see other people and to get an abortion. She's only 19 n sees you've got a decent future. Tell her you wont date anyone else but her and you need to build up the wealth and assets for her. That you will have childern with her only. Once she gets the abortion play along, finish your education and ghost the bitch.

Criticalthinking346 • 2 points • 1 August, 2019 05:45 PM

That's one good way to really get raped by karma and is something a child not a man would do.

baiboosar 1 points 1 August, 2019 07:12 PM [recovered]

True. Having a child at 19 will ruin her future too. You cant accomplish much after that. An abortion is the best option right now. He doesn't have to abandon her but again she's a child herself. Neither of them are ready.

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 1 point • 1 August, 2019 03:13 AM

Thats tough. Not a bad idea i guess. I dont know man, i've been avoiding talking to her. I guess we'll have to cross that bridge soon or later.

Criticalthinking346 • 3 points • 1 August, 2019 05:54 PM

It's a horrible idea, if you don't want the child man the fuck up and tell her you think she should get an abortion, and no longer want to be in a relationship with her. That is what an adult would do. This is actually probably a good thing since your not mentally prepared or mature enough for a relationship or to be someone's father. However if she choose to keep it, you should be in the child's life since it will need you. If you don't you will pay for it in karma on top of the support.

Coollogin • 13 points • 31 July, 2019 11:58 AM

Don't get married. You're not in the right headspace to be a good husband at the moment.

If she chooses to have the baby, you will have to pay child support. You have no choice in that. However, you do have a choice about whether or not you fill the role of father and take part in the child's life.

Do you want to stay in a relationship with your girlfriend? That's an important thing to decide. Once you've decided, talk to her and tell her your decisions: not marrying her (ever? not yet?), staying in relationship/breaking up, participating/not participating as father. Based on those decisions of yours, she can make an informed decision about abortion, adoption, and continuing her relationship with you.

Regarding DNA test: There's nothing wrong with getting one, but there's no reason to make a big deal about it. It's not something that needs to be mentioned now. When the baby's born, request it. (However, do you really have any reason to believe she got pregnant by someone else? Use your brain here. Were you having unprotected sex? Do you think she's seeing other men? I'm not trying to persuade you one way or the other, but you haven't really offered any reason to believe it's not yours.)

Thanks alot. Good advice.

I get what you're experiencing. I was also in a phase recently where I had a dilemma between going back to red pill, or recognising that its toxic for me and leaving it.

Firstly, leave all red pill related sites, subs, forums, insta/facebook pages. They won't help you get laid, will only make you bitter and angry at yourself, and will even erode your personality.

Secondly, go out with real people. Stop spending time online. And start meeting people in real life. This shouldn't be really difficult for you since you're in college.

Thirdly, check out some posts on this sub. EDIT:

https://www.reddit.com/r/exredpill/comments/4fjpcg/red_pill_detox_first_aid_kit_start_here/?utm_source=share&utm_medium=ios_app I meant this post

Yesm3can • 12 points • 31 July, 2019 11:47 AM

So you played 'big man', got your GF pregnant and now you want to play 'little boi' who panicking around, begging everyone for help?

1. Get DNA test. It is fine to want to know if the kid is yours.
2. Make a decision to either raise the kid together with her or separate.
3. You can also do TRP 'hail mary' tactics of manipulating her to get abortion. Sounds bad in theory, for the woman and the child, but in reality, it is better for them, rather than being tied for 18 years with a TRP cultist or being born and raised by a TRP father.

The woman can find a more mentaly sane man and the child does not need to be exist in the first place.

CaptinSuspenders • 1 point • 31 July, 2019 01:09 PM

Wow this is like red-pillled redpill. Okay. Take my upvote.

U start by saying u avoid college girls n parties n the go into how your gf is pregnant. Which is it u avoiding them or have a gf. T u truly Ex redpill?

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 1 point • 31 July, 2019 03:22 AM

I motioned already that i believe in the Mgtow message but going full monk is not my plan. I support anyone who wants too though. However im moving on with my life while keep RP knowledge kn the back of my mind. The username radical redpillerz was a bad choice, how do u change usernames?

ontheavenue123 • 16 points • 31 July, 2019 03:35 AM

There is not possible way you believe in the MGTOW message if you have a girlfriend. The whole point of MGTOW is to not have anything to do with women; you have a girlfriend so clearly have a lot to do with women.

Don't keep red pill knowledge in the back of your mind; it is toxic. Treat and enjoy people as people.

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • -3 points • 31 July, 2019 03:44 AM

MGTOW n redpill are alot bigger then I dont want to get married and women=bad. Theres alot about societies treatment of boys/divorce rape etc. that i feel strongly about. I fell.like its good to have multiple perspectives on life.

ontheavenue123 • 13 points • 31 July, 2019 04:20 AM

It's not good to have different perspectives on life if some of those perspectives dehumanize other people.

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • -6 points • 31 July, 2019 04:22 AM

There is more to it then just the dehumanization of women. Men's issues are a big part of it. You have to understand the RP and then make your own way.

distance00000 • 10 points • 31 July, 2019 12:47 PM

If part of the ideology includes dehumanizing humans, what does that say about the ideology as a whole? Can't you focus on men's issues without denigrating the other sex? Do your own research; you don't need red pill or MGTOW. Check out r/MensLib as there are some great articles and discussions in the comments.

ontheavenue123 • 2 points • 31 July, 2019 03:48 AM

You think women=bad? Does that even make sense to you??

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 1 point • 31 July, 2019 03:57 AM

No but that's wht alot of ppl burn redpill down too. Its alot more then tht.

yoyo01323 • 4 points • 31 July, 2019 03:05 AM

This is a sticky situation. As a woman; I completely understand your girlfriend. My worst fear is having a child with a man who doesn't want one or is happy to have one. I feel you getting a DNA test would probably hurt hurt her depending on the relationship and how long you two have been together.

However; you have to be honest with yourself and girlfriend. You both deserve that. If you don't trust her; then get a DNA test. If you're scared to get married; tell her because she deserves to be with someone who wants to get married just as you deserve the time to get to the level of being prepared. A ceremony is just as good as a marriage liscence in my op; though it would hurt me if my long term bf didn't trust me.

What is wrong is letting the opinions of damaged/insecure men rule you and your relationship. Your girlfriend hasn't done anything to you or the relationship. She's already paying for the insecurities and fear in a sense. Though marriage is not something that should be forced on a 22 year old boy. Be honest and take your time

ImNotSue • -2 points • 31 July, 2019 11:54 AM

"I have no desire to devote my life and effort to raise a child that is not mine" is a perfectly valid desire. Knowing the answer is so much more important I'm shocked that anyone would doubt it. Being uncomfortable that someone may have hurt emotions? That's the reason to avoid finding out if the kid is his, a decision that can completely decide someone else's like that life? That is deeply and painfully immature.

If she knows the kid is his, then getting the paternity test, THAT shows trust. Because it will show to him that his belief in her loyalty to him was right.

Criticalthinking346 • 2 points • 1 August, 2019 12:09 AM

No it does not show trust, it literally shows the opposite to her, but it does not matter. If you want one, get one. I had no issues with getting one, however I sure as fuck didn't stay in the relationship. Because I wouldn't stay with anyone who questions my loyalty when I ever gave any reason to.

yoyo01323 • 1 point • 31 July, 2019 09:33 PM

And also that she somehow believes that she could possibly be unfaithful. If he's that scared to point of doubting her then simple; don't get married or better yet don't be with her.

And you completely missed what I said. No one said to be "uncomfortable with hurting someone's emotions". I've said; time and time again to be honest with himself and his girlfriend. So don't make what I said to be this immature notion or just completely ridiculous. I also stated that he should get a test if he's unsure. But the reality is that there are gonna be some hurt emotions; and they both have the right to feel whatever they feel. It's immature to think that someone shouldn't be somewhat offended or hurt by any of this.

It will develop trust. But it can also have that girl questioning the relationship. Which they both should together before this child comes to be birthed.

Criticalthinking346 • 2 points • 1 August, 2019 12:10 AM

It's what ended mine!

DD2398 • 2 points • 19 August, 2019 07:41 AM

Please dont get married if you dont want to. Just explain to her that your so excited to be a father, and that your committed to both her and your baby, but right now its just not the right time for marriage for you.

Tell her that you would really appreciate it if she respected your wishes and if your going to get married then you want to do it right. She might be feeling insecure that you might leave her, but assure her in your actions and words that you arent going anywhere, and be consistent.

Next, try to look at the situation objectively. Did any of her behaviour tell you, or is still telling you, that shes a cheater or has cheated? Look at signs of a cheater, if there arent many there then maybe thats telling you something.

Just recognise that your stressed atm (your about to be a Dad), and that is making you think some thoughts that are pretty far fetched. Maybe try to do some activities that calm you and have some time away from those that stress you out so you can think more clearly.

Also maybe talk to older men that have positive healthy relationships and seek some down to earth advice. Good luck.

greensciencegeek • 1 point • 21 August, 2019 09:54 PM

If the 3rd part is true, no you are not the asshole. If it's your kid, you should support it (and it sounds like you are, but you shouldn't have to support her).

Sorry she wasn't faithful. I hope you find a good woman in the future.

ZigZagProton • -1 points • 31 July, 2019 08:40 PM

Get a dna test isn't redpill, it's just to make sure who the baby is. Problem is child support which you will likely be in trouble for. Definitely be ready for the unfair amount of cost.

RadicalREDPILLERZ[S] • 1 point • 1 August, 2019 02:09 AM

Yeah :(thanks.

Ever heard of abortion? Suggest it to her. I would not marry at 22 or 19 your too young. It will radically fuck up your life. Lastly change your username 'radical redpillers', if you dont want people to judge your harshly when giving advice. Never tell someone outright your redpill/mgtow. I lost alot of friends because of that. Im i college too. -Dont have sex in college, tinder is good alternative. -Dont marry the bitch? Get abortion and dump her ass - never tell some one your redpill/mgtow right away. -for fusks sake dont date till your done college and on your feet. -dont worry about what famiky says unless your living under their roof they dont get to tell you wht to do yeah I jump back and forth. What do I know, I'm just a college student with some life experience. That being said, I have seen redpill ideology play out in and around camps and their not wrong 70 percent of the time.

Criticalthinking346 • 1 point • 2 August, 2019 01:03 AM

Well I am 39, and know a few things. I can reassure you I have witnessed enough to say that in fact the ideology is completely bull shit.
