

Goals for first date?

February 8, 2020 | 5 upvotes | by SingularityOne198

We are going to a bar to play some pool, darts, ping-pong etc.

I've heard that keeping the 80/20 rule with talking is a good metric and playing games, etc.

Any tips y'all have for first dates?

1. Be Attractive.
2. Don't be unattractive.
3. Don't "see where the night goes"
4. Decide whether you want to see her again. Follow up and if she is weird about setting up a 2nd date - then she isn't worth your time.

What do you mean about #3? I understand the other points, for sure.

Set mental parameters for the date, don't drag it back to your house or hers.

Don't be...tense? Get to know her better, be yourself, and make a few jokes.

Haha, nice. Yeah, that's what I did. Thanks.

Have fun? Learn more about her? Your mindset is already to a bad start: you are trying to "win" this girl. Let her win you. Like secular RP circles like to say: "women are the gatekeepers of sex, and men are the gatekeepers of relationships." As a Christian man, you aren't going to be seeking pre-marital sex. So that leaves you with the power of deciding if you want to start a relationship with this girl. So have fun, get to know each other and relax.

That makes sense. Helpful in the switch of mindset, thanks.

1. Practice leading.
2. Be open about yourself and how you operate to show her that you have a good potential for being a leader
3. Find out more about her to see if she's someone you'd want as a follower
4. Have fun and tease her

Agreed. Thanks for the advice. Did just that. - Date 2 is in the works.
