We will be hosting a TRP Endorsed Contributors advice AMA megathread for /r/asktrp on March 4th, 9:00am PST / 12:00pm EST.

If you want some direct advice for the situation you're in, or if you have general red pill questions that you want answered, join our megathread. ALL RPECs are invited to participate, and many have agreed to come weigh in as much as possible.

From beginner questions all the way to advanced theory, sky's the limit.

Due to the schedule of some of our RPEC team, the thread will be live for two full days as different members sift in and answer as much as they can.
