

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER. LOL, DOING A YOUNGER MAN IN YOUR 30'S BE LIKE.....

September 5, 2019 | 288 upvotes | by RadicalREDPILLERZ

Seriously? Wtf?

So Thursday night and Friday morning we were flirty and kissy and cute. Getting each other all riled up in secret during our work shift (23m and me 30f). Talking about getting together again this weekend. Your were asking me to send nudes when I got home to keep the dirty talk going, which I did.

Then less then 24 hrs later you text me to inform me you started dating someone Friday night? Like what the hell dude.

How many fucking "but age is just a number!" Rants did I have to listen to while you were chasing me for weeks. Begging me to give you a chance. So I did, it was actually a lot of fun. And in 24 hrs you went from sneaking off on break to stick your tongue down my throats to, "sorry I'm seeing someone ". If you were building towards a relationship with someone else why the fuck were you chasing me in the first place?

Not cool dude.

Not cool.

Age is obviously not just a number.

Want to be Cougar turns out to be just another feral cat.

She at 30 saw it as a relationship and was pursuing it as one. He at 23 saw it for what it was, a pump and dump. Cue the epiphany and the wall avoidance tactics in...3, 2, 1.

I'm pretty sure that his tongue wasn't the only thing down her throat but ASD and the hamster prevents her from telling the whole truth.

iwanttodofunnyshit • 33 points • 5 September, 2019 04:02 PM

Sorry: ASD ? I'm not sure I've seen or noted this initialism in here yet.

But yeah she definitely swallowed the frankfurter in the back of the stockroom.

might wanna come up with a new acronym. That's the official medical term for Autism Spectrum Disorder. Everytime someone's been using this term, I just thought they were throwing out a general insult against the woman, calling her an autist.

theDukesofSwagger • 23 points • 5 September, 2019 07:42 PM

She probably has that too

Autisticus • 12 points • 5 September, 2019 09:27 PM

ASD is an old term originating from the early 2000s PUA community

"Anti Slut Defense". It's a woman's way of rationalizing her sleeping around and trying in her own mind to shade away the "slut" label. It's basically a subset of "hamstering".

I've heard feminist talk about keeping your options open till the "right man" puts a ring on it. Playing the field, waiting for the man with the most money/looks, whatever. But when a guy does the same they mad!

Traksimuss • 69 points • 5 September, 2019 04:19 PM

Correct. Women can dish out, but can never take the same behavior from man back. They are very insecure that way.

Hahaha. He was just preying on you. Remember, we also see this phenomena with formerly super hot wives of celebrities that divorce raped their husbands and still use their looks to date well known men in their network. Obviously these men only date these former hot women for reliving old fantasies back from the days those women were young and fertile. They gonna smash them for a few months and then they are going to dash. Then they start to fuck a 25 year old.

Women over 30 (max but I say 26 because this is when the defects starts) are good for nothing other to be used as a cumdump and/or to raise children. Anything else to do with them will inevitably lead to a miserable mess and they should be avoided at all cost.

[deleted] • 25 points • 5 September, 2019 06:18 PM

if a woman hasnt found someone by the time they finish college 23-24 at the latest.....they have issues

Thetrvler • 3 points • 5 September, 2019 08:48 PM

Yep. Women really age like milk for multiple reasons- good, good, good, good, NEVER TOUCH OR IMMINENT PROBLEM ☐☐☐

[deleted] • 15 points • 5 September, 2019 09:37 PM

yep the best women I knew found their husbands in high school or early on in college. those who didn't? Sluts, CC Riders, Socially Inept, Fatties, Careerist types, etc.

Thetrvler • 14 points • 5 September, 2019 09:47 PM

Man I JUST got done talking about this... All the friends I knew who got their now-wife when she was under 25 genuinely tries to be a great partner and try to please their man genuinely. All the friends who found their 30+ year old wife? The same shit you ended with ☐☐☐☐. Women just make terrible partners after hitting 30 and not having a man.

[deleted] • 11 points • 5 September, 2019 09:51 PM

It is so true. The most happy couples are the ones were the woman was a virgin and met the husband in high school. Never seen a happier woman than those few were match that criteria. The rest? Some look happy and some not so much.

If a dude is gonna risk it you better find the lowest partner count woman you can who gets your dick hard and is attracted to you. After that it is a gamble.

Thetrvler • 16 points • 5 September, 2019 10:48 PM

Yeah. The more sex a woman has the less devotion she has in her. Women aren't built to take punishment from the world. It just destroys everything that makes them desirable.

Men are made for it but women simply are not.

nicethingyoucanthave • 30 points • 5 September, 2019 05:23 PM*

If you were building towards a relationship with someone else why the fuck were you chasing me

Here's what this guy did, according to her:

fucked her

"flirted" with her via text, which really just means that when you text him, he responds (eventually) with something short but clever. And I guarantee he was ratioing her too (meaning, she was texting more than he was) told her to send nudes (she says "asked me to" but I'd bet money he didn't phrase it as a request)

Lady, I've got some bad news for you: that's not "chasing." That's what we in TRP call "spinning a plate." This guy has game, and he gamed you with his game, because you're game. If you want to know what chasing looks like it, it looks like actual effort. It's going out of his way. It's doing things he wouldn't normally do.

But to answer your question, which if properly stated would be, "why are you spinning plates while working toward a relationship with another girl" - the answer is: *he wanted to get his dick wet with you while he ... wait for it... chased a girl with higher value.*

Ladies, here's the rule: you cannot lock down a man who is capable of getting a girl of equal or greater value to you, unless that guy is retarded. You can definitely fuck men who are way, way higher value than you. You can fuck literal rock stars if you want to. But you cannot lock such men down. You can only get commitment from some men who are of lower SMV than you.

I know that sucks. Hey, a lot of things about being a man suck too. But that's life. That's how it works. If you're 30 and you want to get plowed by 23 year old men, then by all means, you go girl! Have fun! Maybe teach them a thing or two - they'll be grateful for your experience and feedback. But you're not going to lock these guys down unless (a) they're retarded, in which case you probably won't find them attractive or (b) they're too low in SMV to get a better girl, in which case you probably won't find them attractive anyway.

For you to have imagined that this 23 year old (from what I can tell, high-value alpha) was going to commit to you is laughably naive. But it's also sad because it's damaged you. Even if you correct your course now, and stop being naive, you are never going to be happy with a man who will actually commit. And soon enough, you will age-out of the CC and lose the ability to pull alphas even for NSA sex.

Everlastcanada • 6 points • 5 September, 2019 08:09 PM wait for it...

chased a girl with higher value

I liked this line very much. I'm sure most guys have done the same. I mean I've def pumped and dumped some low SMV and low RMV during a drought.

nicethingyoucanthave • 7 points • 5 September, 2019 08:29 PM

Exactly. I mean, you never know what's going to pan out, so you have to keep a lot of irons in the fire.

The biggest mistake that I see guys make is, they fixate on just one girl, and they do it way too early. A typical blue pill guy will get a girl's number and literally lose sleep thinking about her. Or maybe he doesn't even have a number, he just said "hi" to her. He wastes all this energy on a fantasy he built up around her, and then it turns out she's just not that into him.

And guys do this over, and over, and over.

The smart thing to do is to keep every door open. I'm not saying lie to anyone. I've never lied - never had to. Hell, women like you more when you tell them honestly that you're playing the field. But you keep every door open because believe me, there are plenty of "nobody's fault" reasons for a door to shut.

So if the 35 year old OP wants to flirt, then flirt away. If she wants to bang, then bang away. Chances are, it's not going to work out with the younger girl. When it did work out, kudos to that guy for turning the cougar loose - sort of a tag and release.

[deleted] • 4 points • 6 September, 2019 10:25 AM you never know what's going to pan out, so you have to keep a lot of irons in the fire.

Exactly. Ive got this girl I'm messing with and when we go out, I don't do a damned thing different. I'm my normal charming self.

So naturally, she gets pissed. She huffs off and sends me walls of text about how I'm an asshole and whatever. I don't know. I delete them and don't read them all because I know one thing for certain - she will apologize in a few days of me ignoring her ass.

Of course, shes a single mom in her late 30s so I wonder why shes so quick to backtrack after she realizes that I'm willing to walk away. FUCKING WEIRD, right?

Typo-MAGAshiv • 26 points • 5 September, 2019 04:45 PM

It's interesting how our cultural conditioning can resurface at times. My first impulse was to denounce that dude. But then I remembered that I WAS that dude! Back when my wife and I were dating, she was one of 4 I was fucking, with others in the queue. Once I realized I could actually be serious with one, I broke it off with the others.

It's called spinning plates now, but back then it was exploring my options as I defiled myself.

nggardly_user • 5 points • 7 September, 2019 02:00 AM

I'm confused why would you marry a whore

Typo-MAGAshiv • 1 point • 7 September, 2019 08:18 AM

nggardly_user • 2 points • 7 September, 2019 07:06 PM

Fair enough I didn't mean to insult just wondering if I read wrong. I've dated a girl like that and looking back it was pathetic of me so I get it.

Typo-MAGAshiv • 1 point • 7 September, 2019 08:15 PM

She wasn't a virgin, but she had a low n-count. She pisses me off sometimes, but she's at least been faithful.

But if I could do it all over again, I'd have remained a bachelor.

lurkerhasarisen 2 points 5 September, 2019 04:59 PM* [recovered]

So doing a little kissy-face and sending dirty pics is now what women define as the official start of an exclusive relationship with a man?

Does that mean that a guy who spends money and time on a women is also entitled to an exclusive romantic/sexual relationship with that woman if she accepts them? I thought that anyone was entitled to change his/her mind at any time (even retroactively according to the PoundMeToo spokeswomen). Have the rules changed so much so quickly?

Beta orbiters everywhere would like to know.

FactCheckOnTheFly • 8 points • 5 September, 2019 07:22 PM

I had a friend this happened too. Career woman, no one was ever good enough for her. She meets this guy at a work conference and falls in love. After he had his fun with her, he (24) goes "My dream girl isn't 33 I'm breaking up" and...she did not take it well. I had to chuckle.

goodmansaysfuckyou • 15 points • 5 September, 2019 07:58 PM

Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned.

It is popular these days with women's empowerment, feminism, and the poundmetoo movement for a woman to accuse a man of inappropriate behavior and/or sexual harassment in the workplace. Sometimes for reason, but often as a form of revenge or power move. This guy was fucking with someone from work and then dumped her. She will want her pound of flesh. Regardless of what the circumstance, as a male, he will be guilty until proven guilty. HR will drop him like a nuclear potato and she will likely get a promotion/pay raise.

PhoenixRising-MGTOW • 3 points • 5 September, 2019 11:10 PM

DeeplyDisturbed1 • 10 points • 5 September, 2019 07:13 PM

I have been in similar shoes before when I was much younger. Slightly bigger age gap.

She has no clue how it can look when an older woman starts looking at you like you are meat. Not sexually, but like serious relationship or whatever the hell she's thinking.

It is creepy. She is all powerful and arrogant in the beginning, but the sex is good and she is good looking, so you enjoy it.

Then a much younger serious gf candidate comes into the picture and her jealousy and desperation becomes exponentially more pathetic and creepy.

Then you realize that what she has been telling you about how things should take their course, and we should just enjoy what we have and not expect too much from each other, and freedom is important - that was all just bullshit.

Not sure if it was a sort of addiction to a younger man that she never had before, or she started taking things seriously. But it just ended awkwardly.

BluepillProfessor • 8 points • 5 September, 2019 09:52 PM

I think women can smell the midichlorians or maybe they can smell other women on a man. When a man is 'on' and being successful with women and playing suckee face and ramping up the seduction with one woman he can much more easily score with another. I don't think it's all behavioral change. There is some deep biology going on and it is related to the whole women like the bad boys thing.

monkensteinstupido • 7 points • 6 September, 2019 03:52 PM*

This.

There is a different world of reactions to a man who has gotten some lately vs. a man who has run dry.

They can smell it.

EDIT: also, to sound even more crazy, I suspect they can tell ETHNICITY and QUALITY as well.

I could never Land an Asian woman, even get their attention. Once I was banging one in a relationship I was getting looks from all of chinatown, where before I had been invisible.

If I recently banged a fatty (my guilty pleasure). Every woman in walmart was all of a sudden wide grins. It's like they knew.

Also, when I'd come back from vacation after surfing the spanish hotties, anybody 6 or less was straight up trying to lay down in front of me at a moments notice.

These things are real.

EndTimesRadio • 6 points • 6 September, 2019 04:18 AM

When you're over 30, you're a pump-and-dump. If you're under 25, you're marriageable material.

I spell it out to the women I'm dating, but I do it in a very cut-and-dry way that I think even they have a hard time arguing or getting mad about.

"I spell out what I want to do with a girlfriend- you know, with marriage on the horizon, a family, work hard, plan and pay for exotic vacations, a house, a car, take places, etc.,"

"If she's over 27 then she needs to pull her own weight because she should be established in her career and is paying for her half of these things. I do not see any long-term future, however, as having children is extremely important to me." I don't spell out the why, but I just leave it there for her to connect the rest of the dots as to why this keeps happening to her.

Finally, someone just out and says it. The hamster doesn't even go nuclear. Sometimes they say they're wonderful and amazing and experienced-and I say back "yes, you are, and I hope my wife is when she turns your age. I hope I've gotten to see her grow into someone just like you. If she is anything like you, she will be a fantastic mother, and we will have spent years together, planning, and building a family." They can't even be mad about that. It's in no way an insult, it's even rather flattering to them.

Women really do prefer the "finished product." They want the guy with the car/house/job/income/status, (not the student). They can't understand that men don't want the fantastic mom with the kid. Instead, most of us would rather marry a woman and turn her into the fantastic mom with the kid.

Men, ironically, see resources and think of things that can be rather than seeing what is, and taking.
