Hey guys. Long story short i planned a Euro trip for this week. Obviously because of Corona, thats a no go. But before that my dad fell off a scaffold and broke his and arm, so i decided to take the paid vacation anyway to help him out. My boss knows this and yet she texts me the following:

"Good morning. I'm sorry to bother you on your vacation time but I need to know if you traveled while you were off. I know Europe was cancelled but wasnt sure if you went somewhere else. Thank you!"

My intuition says shes trying to get me to work the next couple days or somehow void my vacation. Idk why she "needs" to know.
