The irony: the tattoos last, the sex comes and goes.

No disrespect to anyone and I try not to judge but I still haven't met a short haired like buzz cut having female that was trustworthy. They all have issues. Now I see it as a red flag even though I try not to judge.

[deleted] • 18 points • 11 April, 2020 02:12 AM*

Yeah every short haired buzz cut girl has a look like shes just trying to find any reason to get into a massive argument with a random person in public.

iwviw • 3 points • 11 April, 2020 02:18 AM

I let one be my roommate. I'm fucking with a short haired girl with extreme caution after that mistake

It makes fucking all other plates weird.

there's nothing wrong with judging people. we do it every day, and should.

odaklanan_insan • 0 points • 17 April, 2020 07:07 AM*

Yep. However, we need to be careful not making appearance, our primary criteria of judging. Otherwise you can get fooled by sweet looking, sweet talking people real quick.

I'm judgemental. That's what my brain is there for.

babybopp • 89 points • 10 April, 2020 11:15 AM

Tattoos themselves aren't but it shows impulsive behavior and willingness to put something on their body for life. It usually also shows poor decision making. The larger the tattoo the more likely they are to make impulsive and poor making decisions.

"My brother fought cancer for two years before passing away, and he always quoted this Bible verse to give himself hope."

Vs

"I just love Chinese so much and I thought this would, like, be such a legit tattoo."

Some people put real meaning into their tattoos, others don't. The former is respectable and indicative of what their values are. The latter is detestable and indicative of what their values are. Both are useful for telling you the kind of person you're dealing with.

LazerSpin2 points 11 April, 2020 04:23 AM* [recovered]

pbar • 4 points • 11 April, 2020 01:02 AM

Tattoos, more rings than fingers, more earrings than ears, piercings in places that make you think, "Jesus, that must have hurt"...

All are good or bad signs, depending on what you're looking for.

iwviw • 2 points • 10 April, 2020 09:27 PM

Let's just say they are more "adventurous"

[deleted] • 15 points • 10 April, 2020 06:03 PM

It depends. I know a girl with the pink breast cancer ribbon just slightly above her waistline on one of her sides. Her mother died of breast cancer when she was ~15. It's a subtle, meaningful tattoo. It's not trashy at all and neither is she. But a girl with a giant butterfly tramp stamp has a 100% chance of being a single mother at some point in her life.

[deleted] • 2 points • 12 April, 2020 02:47 PM

However did people live and commemorate things before tats?

[deleted] • 1 point • 11 April, 2020 12:38 AM

I guess there are lots of tattoos that immediately scream "trashy" butterflies on the back is a big one.

[deleted] • 3 points • 10 April, 2020 05:14 PM

It's not trashy, but from my point of view gives a huge statement. I wouldn't call that poor decision making or anything else, it just shows their mindset and the way they think. I myself would probably get a tattoo sometime, but only to remind myself of something, spiritual, not about something Material ( Not a name or car or any other trash people put on themselves)

[deleted] • 2 points • 11 April, 2020 12:39 AM

I always try to preach the importance of picking tattoos to my friends/family. They're cool and all but make sure you really want it and make sure it looks nice ffs I can't stand people who get cheap tattoos they look like stickers.

ZeppKfw • 2 points • 11 April, 2020 10:05 AM

GalcomMadwell • 1 point • 17 April, 2020 03:36 AM

My ex is like a walking billboard of all the red flags:

Covered in tattoos (that she designed herself)
Vapes (so she doesn't smoke, but still smokes frequently) Alcoholic
Daddy issues
Feminist (but really just hates men because of her daddy issues)
Had a big body count prior to me
Wanted to move extremely fast / baby crazy
Constant drama / creating problems where there were none
Terrible with money'

Obviously she was incredibly impulsive. She could never see past her current emotions, she was never wrong in her eyes and never took responsibility for anything (Pure solipsism.) Combined with her alcoholism it quickly turned into a nightmare.

That chick taught me so many valuable lessons, but most importantly never ignore the red flags, no matter how good she makes you feel in the first few months. Leave immediately, and do not look back.

But hey, at least the sex was amazing. It was easy to excuse staying in a shitty relationship when I had constant access to as much pussy as I wanted.

BitsAndBobs304 • 37 points • 10 April, 2020 11:00 AM it's actually scientifically decribed as "willingness to engage in self-destructive behaviour and propensity for risk"

Wabbajak • 29 points • 10 April, 2020 11:52 AM

One might ask "Isn't that common knowledge?". While it is common knowledge, it is just a claim until proven.

This is called the scientific method. You can't simply observe something in nature and go: "yeah that's what promiscuous women do." (Theory). A theory that is not falsifiable is useless (e.g.: God exists).

Instead, you design an experiment in which you are in principle able to disprove a theory (falsification). If the results still indicate in favor of the theory, then it is scientifically valid. (On the other hand, for "God exists" you cannot devise an experiment where this claim could be disproven - it is unfalsifiable)

sadomasochrist • 8 points • 10 April, 2020 03:32 PM

If you need science to prove things which are plainly observable you're going to have a bad time at life.

This is 100% one of these things that you shouldn't need someone to "prove" to you.

IfThenPill • 1 point • 23 April, 2020 05:45 AM

This should be common sense, but I'm thankful that studies like this exist because bluepillers will deny basic red pill knowledge to no end.

TheGweatandTewwible • 3 points • 10 April, 2020 05:05 PM

I agree for the most part. What people have to understand is that the reason why the Red Pill is still mostly theory is because no top scientist in their right mind would publish the raw truth of sexual dynamics between humans. They'd get crucified and possibly lose their job if they did that lol

Despite the fact that I truly believe in TRP theory because I've seen it proven over and over without fail, I still gotta acknowledge that it's a theory. A hell of an accurate one, but a theory nonetheless pbar • 1 point • 11 April, 2020 01:00 AM*

Oh yeah you sure can. In fact you have to, if you want to make life decisions. Unless you want to wait 500 years for science to prove whether everything you ever observed or heard about human relations either is or is not true.

Science is a powerful tool, especially real, hard science, which physics is and this stuff is not. But you cannot sit and wait for science to catch up and confirm all the stuff your granddad told you...or, rarely, disprove it.

letsdobish29 • -4 points • 10 April, 2020 12:17 PM*

Power is more important than science. This isn't going to change anything because those in power want to encourage this behaviour. So you can show the proof all you like, it won't have any impact on the brainwashed. I think science proved there's only two genders quite a while back, and any mental disassociation with your physical being is technically a mental illness.

Tattoos (and excessive piercings) are correlated with lack of impulse control, which is why they're a red flag for LTR material. It stands to reason women with impulse control problems are more likely to hop in the sack with randoms.

hsinoMed • 1 point • 15 April, 2020 12:56 AM

I'm young, new here and I'm reading side bar now a days. Can you elaborate on this? I thought tattoo or no tattoo girls have the same dopamine seeking agenda : Fuck the exciting man. Yet this statement confuses me because it implies that girls with no tattoos are intrinsically more valuable and makes me wanna LTR them. Shouldn't I just assume tattoo or no tattoo, all are just sluts? And there is some guy bored of fucking that bag of flesh and bones. It takes her right off of the pedestal in my mind no matter how pretty she is or whether she has tattoos or no tattoos.

I once literally had a contractor bag of returnable cans in the back of a Ford Escort and fucked this girl who laid on my trash in a Bible College parking lot after the bars closed on St Patty's day lol.

I don't know man when I was younger I partied my ass off and was complete degenerate. Shit happens. I used to be friends with a few strippers so that helped. It's not even a technique. It's literally just not giving a fuck.

No shit, my dude. I've also had sex in unconventional places, that's no news for anyone who lightly lurks TRP.

My point was that you seem to point out that the 'obvious' thing to do is to creampie them outside of your house on a first date without giving them any real contact info. I assure you most people don't do that. IMO either vet your girls better not to be "tattoo sluts willing to ruin your life" or at the very least use a condom on them.

This study from Utah shows the same effect :

<https://ifstudies.org/blog/counterintuitive-trends-in-the-link-between-premarital-sex-and-marital-stability/>

And here :

<https://socialpathology.blogspot.com/2010/09/sexual-partner-divorce-risk.html?m=1>

“A soon as a woman has had more than one partner her long term marital stability risk drops to near 50%.”
(from 75%)

So for a man with 1 million dollar divorce bill (if he gets divorced). The cost to him of finding out his potential wife slept with one extra guy is $250,000. $500,000 if she slept with 10...

Having a sister is one of the best ways to get a dose of red pill truths from the source without having to learn the hard way.

Redpill77 • 10 points • 10 April, 2020 10:08 PM

Depends. My sister got married at 18 and has been with the same man since then. I wouldn't be surprised if she had a couple of more dudes but it seems she has an n-count of 1. It's funny because I always say unicorns don't exist but she seems like one.

yungassed • 2 points • 13 April, 2020 12:13 PM

Maybe she is but probably not. More likely, she is incredibly skilled at keeping certain aspects of her life private from the people she doesn't want knowing. If anything it should teach you how well females are able to manage perceptions of themselves when someone wants to believe a certain thing.

Its like when a girl is cheating on her boyfriend and everyone can tell except him. You can call him a fool but its more likely a combination of her knowing him well enough to spin the narrative to fit into what he wants to believe.

Redpill77 • 1 point • 13 April, 2020 06:21 PM

She's always either working or in the house taking care of my niece. Like I said I wouldn't be surprised if she has cheated because we are all weak, but all in all I'd say she has done a good job as a woman.

TheReplierBRO • 2 points • 18 April, 2020 05:32 AM

Some of these guys are going to be too cynical because they only know they've been hurt and "all women are the same" but they're too pussy to not mgtow and go make something relevant in their life. Which is why instead of doing something amazing they then put the focus back on women and "proving THEM wrong!" "I'm gonna get all the pussy now! I'll show them!!" There's a possibility your sister could have been until marriage and even then committed. It happened in history. It could happen today too. Not very likely. But thinking in my life there has been those true unicorns, 1 out of 1 million who I would verifiably say they've only been with one. I've lived a lot of places. Met a lot of females. Very rare. I'd imagine you know your sister better than other men. I'd also say we can call out when a dude is being played. Even being that guy, it's being in denial. And being the guy doing it, it's bitterness passing on the pain. Don't be the bad guy, like they may want you to be.

Redpiller77 • 1 point • 18 April, 2020 06:58 AM

That's a pretty good comment.

I'd imagine you know your sister better than other men. I'd also say we can call out when a dude is being played

This is why I believe it's more likely that it hasn't happen. He's no pushover, lightly redpilled. I'm also originally from a latin country, and women are kept in check a little more.

This. I thank all the fat chicks, bar whores, damaged sluts with daddy issues, cougars and all the other trash I pumped and dumped for making me the man I am today. I don't care if people judge me for what I used to fuck. All that matters is what I'm fucking now. My wife is smart and hot, and it takes A LOT of meaningless sex with crazy stupid bitches to be able to handle a real woman. You can't fake abundance mentality or get it by being picky. From 16 to 26 your main focus should be numbers. Not just for the sex but the experience with all facets of the woman animal.

Not sure I get what you're saying. If you're able to get women in general, you're able to get sluts, period. In fact, the point is sluts are easier to get then "high quality" women.

hmsthinkingmeat • 15 points • 10 April, 2020 06:15 PM

An old friend of mine had a major heart attack and was confined indoors - he spent his time looking at web cam girls and porn - and this was a good 25 years ago, right at the dawn on internet thottery.

I always remember he said to me (something I hadn't noticed) - have you seen that ALL of these girls doing sex online have tattoos - what do you think that means?

At the time I thought it meant girls with tattoos are more likely to be sluts, which might be true, but I had no explanation for it.

It's all about poor impulse control, poor self image issues, self esteem, ego boundaries, etc.

They've basically probably come from troubled childhoods and get tattoos etc to "show their individuality" or "make a statement" or to "stand out".

The problem is that whatever they do t for, they're harming (disfiguring) themselves to make a point to someone else.

Which means that if you get involved with them they're going to fuck you up - emotionally, mentally, psychologically, or physically - they're going to project their own malfunctions onto you and you're going to be the one who suffers by trying to fix it all.

And while you're trying to put out fire no.1 they're pouring gasoline on fire no.2/

Just avoid them, it's easier.

[deleted] • 1 point • 12 April, 2020 03:13 PM

Webcams weren't really a thing into until the late 90s (they existed but were expensive and hardly had the internet speed anyway), but matured more in the 00s as youtube bloomed (reflecting streaming tech got better, not the website itself). He probably was just streaming shitty little porn vids and pics and selfies as they were. I mean, even shitty digital still camera were somewhat expensive then.

Anyway, I think the thing that everyone is missing isn't so much the tattoo itself, it's that girls with high n-counts will have lots of short-term boyfriends too. And they act like water, being very quick to mold themselves into the "culture" of the current boy or group they're with. They might cut drastically cut their hair to a buzzcut to fit with a punk one month and tote a bible the next. Doesn't matter. A lot of that is temporary shit except the tattoo.

You might be seeing the lasting results of her 3rd boyfriend or group or her 500th, doesn't matter, but the average and evidence is clearly there.

It's like saying a car with dings probably was driven shittier and probably has a fucked up engine. The dings didn't cause the engine damage or the shitty driving, but it's evidence all the same.

Whether or not tattoos look good highly depends on the aesthetics of the person rocking them.

You could argue that he'd look better without them but David Beckham can rock tattoos pretty well.

The problem with tattoos is that they might look good in your 20s/30s but they will look absolutely shit after you turn 50 for the most part.

bssftw • 0 points • 11 April, 2020 09:55 PM

They may not look as "good" but you'll still look like a badass after 50 (in fact you'll look bad ass as fuck) and it will give you more of a fun, youthful appearance.

She was great in bed, but very untrustworthy, dramatic, bipolar, smoked (not when I was close), heavy in alcohol, not very bright, attention seeking in social media, etc, etc. Wish she had made the tats before I met her.

[deleted] • 9 points • 10 April, 2020 03:32 PM

there is absolutely nothing in this world that cries "stay the fuck away from me!" as those very visibly forearm tattoos with some vague, cryptic saying written in cursive with a feather pen that says some shit about how strong she is after daddy/an ex/some man did her wrong in life.

Getting a tattoo is beyond retarded. It's also counter culture today to not have tattoos.

bssftw • 0 points • 11 April, 2020 09:59 PM

I disagree, there will always be people afraid to get tattoos because of it's permanence. The biggest mental gymnastics are people who tell themselves they're cooler ie your counter culture comment, than men with high quality tattoos that wear them well versus a man with no ink. Sure women think the non inked guy is cooler than the tattoo guy, sure.

BuckeyeGuy8 • 3 points • 12 April, 2020 11:34 AM

Tattoos are trashy and show that you are impulsive. There are no "high quality tattoos" lol. You'll attract low quality women if you have a lot of tattoos. Higher class women are not going to go for a dude that's all tattooed up.

bssftw • 0 points • 23 April, 2020 04:28 AM

Same high class women who wouldn't go for juiced out bodybuilders in your mind, until they cuck you and fuck your girlfriend.

BuckeyeGuy8 • 0 points • 23 April, 2020 06:41 AM

Being jacked and having tattoos are completely different things. Usually women are more attracted to a guy who has considerable muscle mass compared to a guy who's a twig. I think men should lift and should get big. I saw way more success with women when I put on 25 pounds of muscle, with higher and lower class women.

Aesthetik_1 • 5 points • 10 April, 2020 02:22 PM

lol why do you care, if she's a plate? A tattooed bitch will be better in bed than any virgin you guys always dream about. Let's face it: The reason you hate tattooed women is because of your deep seated blue pill LTR desires, or because you see someone who is sexually very active while you yourself aren't and therefore feel inadequate.

If you plated women successfully and were truly accepting the red pill you wouldn't even see tattooed women as an issue. Your ego intimidated by them and nothing more

SteroidsFreak • 8 points • 10 April, 2020 03:35 PM

LMFAO being in a LTR with someone who you want to be with doesn't make anyone a Beta. Where did you get this analogy from? Fucking around with different plates can make you a Beta, wanna know why, cause you're scared of a committed relationship. That's Beta. Can go the other way around chief.

Tattoos have been a red flag in red pill circles for like 10 years. Actually, the term tramp stamp was a thing before the red pill even existed.

<https://www.rooshvforum.com/thread-12960.html>

Edit: Actually tattoos have been viewed as negative for longer than they've been neutral/positive. So the question shouldn't be "when did men start caring about women having tattoos?" and should be more like "when did men stop caring about women having tattoos?"

every girl has tats, idk where you're from. maybe not as long as you but I've been red for years now and never heard anyone important ever care about tattoos

ProFriendZoner • 2 points • 10 April, 2020 07:45 PM

I wonder how much money they wasted on this? I've been saying this for decades.
Get off my lawn!

YngWn • 3 points • 10 April, 2020 04:20 PM

Basically, tat yourself up, Then 90% of the people who would've tried to bring a negative influence in your life will avoid themselves. Doesn't sound that bad.

Bing_Bang_Bam • 2 points • 10 April, 2020 05:07 PM

Don't they all have fuckin tattoos now?

posseltsenvel0pe • 2 points • 10 April, 2020 04:34 PM

I have tattoos. Am I trashy and uncommitted then?

Trump45and2zigzags • 4 points • 11 April, 2020 06:02 AM

Thank God for science. Who would have thought?

Sake99 • 1 point • 11 April, 2020 09:35 AM

They forgot to mention that they are full of STI's too.

BugsySmeagol • 1 point • 13 April, 2020 11:54 AM

Its shows that they've made poor financial decisions and most likely work in red flag fields as well. I've noticed that they don't hold males in very high regard and generally grew up in fucked up homes. Her problems are bigger than slipping and falling on dick should you date them any period of time. You'll be waking up to a sob story about uncle Rick if you catch my drift. Maybe a month after that she'll get off her medication and decide to stab you the sky is the limit with tatted up hoes.

And so many of them are also pro-abortion, no surprise.

"I don't want to become pregnant, it could ruin my life project and it's a permanent burden" said the thot that has Pikachu, an Om symbol and Pickle Rick tattooed in visible places and will have them for life.

[deleted] • 1 point • 13 April, 2020 11:10 PM

some people here spinning the hamster wheel and defending women with tats. this should be fun.

TomahawkSuppository • 1 point • 20 April, 2020 12:37 PM

Well fuck me with a pole axe, you mean to tell me that women who have shitty judgement will make shitty choices? Nooooooooo

[deleted] • 1 point • 29 April, 2020 08:34 AM

Typically I agree.

However, in my home town I saw the most beautiful, fit, attractive girl (healthy fit. Not smoke cigarettes but relying on young-20s age to appear fit) with beautiful tattoos.

She picked them so well and designed them so well. They were truly works of art on her body. For the other 99% though, flowers on shoulders, at-home tattoos with friends, yes. Red flag.

brodjyo[ ] • 1 point • 10 April, 2020 01:56 PM

I 3 decent tattoos, but I'm also a black guy so I think it gives off a different signal to people.

But fuck yeah, chicks with tats are generally more down for casual sex if you're attractive enough, but it doesn't mean every chick is max_peenor • 4 points • 12 April, 2020 12:34 AM

Men and women used to get tattoos for the same reason. They were signaling their participation or belonging into something. They were part of ritual, religion or community. And don't think this is just a recent thing; cultures have used tattoos for a very long time.

The difference now is some men still do the same thing. Other men and most women are just attention whoring. They aren't sending a message. They are just trying to advertise.

So yes, I completely agree. It's the signaling that matters. Blue haired gutter sluts aren't signaling anything other than blow a load while inside them...

shadowrush228 • 1 point • 10 April, 2020 03:07 PM

I'm a black guy as well. What signals do you believe it gives off?

brodjyo[ ] • 2 points • 10 April, 2020 03:51 PM

Almost the same as if you're a chick, that you make impulsive decisions and you're not serious about shit. Also that you're more DTF

i-pace_around • 1 point • 11 April, 2020 06:37 PM

So since tattoos represent poor decision making skills and a trashy attitude, everyone here must hate men who have tattoos too, right? Who wants to be friends with a trashy man with no foresight?

CoeurDeLion-Sag • 1 point • 10 April, 2020 06:55 PM

I thought it was given, you don't need research.

[deleted] • 1 point • 10 April, 2020 07:48 PM

There isn't a song about women like this?

[deleted] • 1 point • 10 April, 2020 08:23 PM*

Rule: Never have sex with a woman who has more tattoos than you do.

RStonePT • 0 points • 15 April, 2020 01:16 PM

In the town I served in every woman had a tattoo. I may as well filter for 20 year old female virgins or unicorn dust.

[deleted] • -1 points • 10 April, 2020 01:05 PM

How many tattoos is too much? If she has a small one is it still a red flag? Or is it about the number? And what about myself? If I had tattoos wouldn't it be hypocrite of me for an LTR not to have one? Or for me to look for one who doesn't have even though I have?

furry8[S] • 3 points • 10 April, 2020 01:11 PM look for one who doesn't even if you have. Reality isn't symmetrical
