In my limited martial arts training, I've sparred with girls before. They will ALWAYS try to take you down hard, ALWAYS try to hit too hard. They'll say it's because "in a real fight," you have to deal with that.

Never knocked a bitch out though. She probably wouldn't be able to deal with that.

I always hated sparring with women, you're fucked if you hit them, and fucked if you don't.

I remember this one chick front teeped me, then with her leg still up did this sideways heel kick into my solar plexus. I'd never felt pain like that from a dude ha! I guess the look on my face said it all cause she just ran away from me the rest of the round.

For the most part I'd just use the opportunity to practice counters. That way you hit me hard, I hit you hard.

Cut out any unnecessary fluff to save up for it. There are always ways to reduce expenditures.

Handle that 30k a year problem you have first.

Dude, my Muay Thai classes were $300 for 4 months. That's less than a dollar per day. Are you telling me you can't cut out 80 cents from your daily expenditures?

Priorities my friend.
