Yes make money and don't help anyone out. If you don't do this people will leech off you and suck you dry.

I got trapped.

Actually it was less than 2 years for me and the child support kicked my ass until I made enough money to soften the financial blow. When I assumed custody son was age 13, she kept my child support money that she was automatically getting even though I told the court I had my son.

When I asked her to contribute financially she became the "Dead Beat Mother", so I took her to court . She ended up having to pay 3x's more than what I had initially asked her for monthly. She turned my son against me because I was hurting her by taking her money to help support our child.

Beware gentlemen, beware!!!!

Clicked on the video to look at dislikes and negative comments... But only found memes and passive-aggressive bitching, as if it's no big deal. Imagine my surprise.

This is why you freeze your sperm and get a vasectomy. You need to be in control of when you want to have a baby.

When I was younger my father gave me the talk He sat me down looked me hard in the eyes and said "No cops at the door, no pregnant girls at the door, condoms fucking use them" and I took this to heart. I have always and will always use condoms

Snakes go for the prey that look healthy and sufficient enough to fill up their stomach. Be extra cautious around female, gentlemen. There is no antidote for a woman.
