Courting a single mom is hard. She'll cancel dates. Short text & not reply. No time to put you 1st. A woman who puts her child 1st over me makes me want to make her & her child my 1st priority. Be patient w/ her. Take her out. She's not flaking. Childcare costs more than a date you take her on. Its not about money. Spoil her with time. Show you appreciate all sacrifice she makes for her child w/ no help. Be her consistency, she'll be your everything

Sorry what she will be for us? Appreciate her sacrifice for her kids? why? They are not mine and are millions of mothers in the world.

This guy is incoherent.

Wanna bet this dude was raised by a single mother?

How 'bout we just avoid them instead, and let them learn from the results of their bad decisions?

And if enough men ghost the system, why those women will have to work jobs too instead of the public funding their animal get.

Translation: the woman already has another dick to fuck and does not have time for “nice guy romance” there.
