

Study: Women prefer muscular, dominant, wealthy men

November 20, 2017 | 949 upvotes | by ObserverBG

Macho men, particularly ones in suits, still reign supreme on the totem pole of sexual attraction, a new study finds.

Researchers at Coventry and Aberystwyth universities in the United Kingdom looked at three years of data from TubeCrush, a British hot-or-not-type site where users upload photos of male London Underground passengers, to evaluate the male archetypes straight women and gay men found most attractive.

One striking initial observation by the researchers was that most men uploaded were white, despite London being a fairly diverse city. Popular images also often made sure to focus on a man's biceps, pectorals, and chest, particularly if he was muscular in those areas.

Many accompanying comments also emphasized a man's physique and supposed sexual prowess, the researchers note.

Another frequent theme in popular images was displays of wealth, whether it was through jewelry, fancy attire, or expensive technology.

Meanwhile, men who demonstrated less dominant or aggressive behavior, such as fathers, or males who seemed more sensitive or awkward, fared worse on TubeCrush.

"From smart-suited City workers to toned gym-goers flashing their flesh, the men featured in the photographs on TubeCrush show that as a culture we still celebrate masculinity in the form of money and muscle," says lead researcher Adrienne Evans. "They are marking the middle-class, wealthy, mobile and sexually powerful male body, not as a political one as feminists intend it to be, but one that should be actively desired."

Although some positive attention can certainly help a guy's self-esteem, Evans argues that women are still looking in the wrong direction.

"It's a problem because although it appears as though we have moved forward, our desires are still mostly about money and strength," she concludes.

Do not try to lie, Evans. You DO NOT prefer poor, awkward, fat males. :)

The researchers' findings were published in the journal Feminist Media Studies.

And men like thin women with big tits. I know, I was mindblown by this groundbreaking discovery too.

Best_Crisis_Actor • 10 points • 20 November, 2017 08:54 PM [recovered]

Lol. I have a friend that has dated only large chicks. Too large if you ask me. He is always commenting on stuff like plus size, curvy, and hmf.

One day we were talking, and I mentioned how he likes the big girls. He disagreed, and I cited examples.

He said, "well I don't prefer them, but it seems its all I can get."

Turns out he's just a realist, who gets laid way more often than I do.

illusiveab • 195 points • 20 November, 2017 09:40 PM

I mean..if your friend likes big girls, that's cool. But let's not pretend like fucking big girls for the sake of getting laid is a legitimate means by which to judge the standard. I'd rather jerk off or work harder than simply accept "welp this is the best I can do" and act like I'm hitting my pinnacle just because I'm getting laid a lot.

balalasaurus • 133 points • 20 November, 2017 10:14 PM

You've got the right idea but don't be so quick to dismiss guys that do that. If you've ever been through a serious drought, then you should know that not getting any can create a crippling feedback loop. Dudes that can at least get some are often better off in their attitudes towards women than those who haven't gotten their dicks wet in a minute.

You are right though; the goal should always be to be better and get better. Hunger drives men on a primal level. That fact should never be forgotten.

[deleted] • 66 points • 20 November, 2017 11:23 PM

Everyone's been hogging before, it's supposed to be shameful though. not accepted and damn sure not celebrated

Wolveryn • 22 points • 21 November, 2017 05:37 AM

Hogging is the funniest term I've ever heard. Gold!

thetotalpackage7 • 46 points • 21 November, 2017 02:25 AM

It reminds me of the old joke which goes, "what does a moped and a fat chick have in common? They're both fun to ride until one of your friend sees you."

Personally I would never date a fat woman. But I would say fucking one is way better than jerking off as long as no one finds out.

pmmedenver • 33 points • 21 November, 2017 02:51 AM

Yeah or until she gets pregnant and decides to keep it.

harsha_hs • 3 points • 21 November, 2017 02:40 PM

This happens quite often than you think.

Wissenschaft85 • 1 point • 22 November, 2017 12:13 AM

That goes with any woman, not just fat chicks.

dave0781 • 1 point • 26 November, 2017 05:32 AM

Hogging , or , "Porkalloading" as we tagged it in the 80s (snarf some gash?) is not an entirely low risk sport, sport. A buddy a mine was into it, MAJORY, and was rather haughty about it, until the unfortunate "incident " occurred. He had a more than embarrassing muff diving accident, one for the journals.

As he was getting into the 69 position , and 190 lbs. of grade A USDA HOG was lowering herself on to his FACE, he was about to discover a very salient part of her medical history. You see, she had been diagnosed with a GI-GU fistula, AND.... and..... this was on top of a smoldering case of ulcerative colitis. The resultant pocket of flatus did a meld move from her rectum into her vaginal vault, with a resultant explosive quieffing/fart fledgling event that would rock the world. And she ate beans. Needless to say, although he was already drunk he ended up adding a whole new meaning to the term "shit faced" that nite, and eventually married an anorexic, one he is still with to this day. I don't want to alarm you but, caveat , hoggers and porkaloaders alike, proceed at your own risk.

Raii-v2 • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 01:27 AM

Idk, my man Paco in college routinely nailed anything on the scale higher than 5-10. They all loved him too.

Garathon • 11 points • 21 November, 2017 01:33 AM

A hog is less than 5, that's not hogging.

fromthecrypt8 • 21 points • 20 November, 2017 11:41 PM

Extremely well said. This is true af. Dipping your schlong in some fat chick poontang if you've had an insane dryspell is better than getting into that negative Feedback loop where all your dick knows is the palm of your hand or a fleshlight.

SpecialSpnk • 7 points • 21 November, 2017 12:24 AM

Ya look at the incel examples. Those people are the trash of the earth

needaparka • 1 point • 16 January, 2018 05:13 PM

Eh, personally, I have no problems with going through a dry spell. It doesn't harm my self-esteem at all. I get a bit rusty but that can be fixed within a week or two of pimpin'.

I think that it's far more damaging to have the belief that you must be continually getting laid otherwise your value is dying. That's like a girl who needs those likes on the 'gram to maintain her self esteem.

GutShot9 • 1 points • 20 November, 2017 10:13 PM [recovered]

I went out solo on Saturday, I got a little too drunk so my game was slipping but I was talking with these two girls, the one was cute but the other was a big girl, not disgusting but too big for me. Well ofc the big girl takes a liking to me, her friend says she's leaving but the big girl was cool so w/e I danced a bit with her but was keeping my distance (something a younger, weaker, more desperate me would have never done at that level of intoxication). Because I was keeping my distance like 4 black guys in a row came up behind her and were grinding on her, the whole time shes giving me this look like "come save me!". Once again a younger, weaker, white knight... So the bar closes and I'm outside talking with some random people and she comes out and instantly the black bouncer is all over her, once again she's looking at me like "come get me!". I finish my cigarette and walk home. Don't have much of a point other than I have grown.

7mile_ • 45 points • 20 November, 2017 10:15 PM

Haha "Come save me". Like she couldn't just walk away from them

Overkillengine • 25 points • 21 November, 2017 05:47 AM

xX-BongRippa420-Xx • 5 points • 21 November, 2017 03:57 PM

"If you save me that's fine. If not, I'll just let this bouncer whisk me away."

Walking away seems the best option.

chuckthundercock • 3 points • 21 November, 2017 06:49 PM

Only recalibration here would have been to hit on the big fat one and completely neg the hot one. You may have ended up with the hotter one. Given circumstances and fatigue, you did well anyway..

plainposter • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 07:14 AM yeah i'd never fuck a fatty.. ever

KnowBrainer • 0 points • 21 November, 2017 12:01 AM

If you can knock up 20 bigger chicks or 1 slim hottie... I mean the girl children will all end up whores anyway, but the male offspring will at least maybe be bigger and stronger.

Quantity over quality if you're following nature.

When I was 20 and 30 I liked big girls. Not obese, but curvy. Turns out I only liked big tits.

Now that I'm older, I had my share of huge tits. I still like them, but now I much prefer thin, young girls. I could care less about their tits. Incredible how tastes change.

Troll_Name • 18 points • 21 November, 2017 01:09 AM

Probably because the ones with big tits have disproportionately massive egos.

banjew • 40 points • 21 November, 2017 02:02 AM

Thin young girls have much bigger egos.

AncientScrolls • 1 point • 22 November, 2017 02:26 PM

Thin young girls have much bigger egos.

Especially if they have a legion of betas following them around and doing everything they can to get their attention. Its usually these types of girls that end up as a narcissistic.

Most guys will fuck what they can get. They lower their standards. This is cuck like behavior, but most men have ultra low self esteem. Especially when it comes to dealing with women.

If you want to Gauge a man's self esteem, just look at the of women he's keeping around.

What is it they say? Fat chicks are like mopeds: fun to ride but embarrassing to be seen with one.

SovereignSoul76 • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 06:36 PM

Hey, it's a legit strategy. It's not only whether or not your dick actually makes it inside her puss; its a matter of effort as well....even quality of life, if you will.

I know that I can send 1 text and have a 6 at my place in 30 minutes. No questions asked. She is HAPPY to respond. Versus all of the hand-holding, cajoling, arguing, validation, negotiating and bullshit that comes along with boning an HB9.

You can have four or five HB6 plates, and maintaining the stable is actually less work than one unstable HB9.

More sex. Less bullshit. Doesn't matter had sex. I don't need arm-candy anyways, I like going stag to events.

Troll_Name • 13 points • 21 November, 2017 01:12 AM

It was attractive when it was rare.

Pale skin is still attractive in East Asia, partly because areas other than Japan are just-now breaking into the wonderful world of wealth. Having dark skin meant you were a farmer or filth-worker, and thus effectively worthless.

When China's rising middle class turns itself white through sun deprivation, women will fetishize the 'traditional' look.

thetotalpackage7 • 10 points • 21 November, 2017 02:58 AM

That's exactly what happened in the west. The Victorian ladies especially would walk around with the sun umbrellas. A tan meant you were a pleb outside scrubbing laundry on a washboard in a lot all day or picking some crop.

FractalNerve • 6 points • 21 November, 2017 10:19 AM

I still believe that a muscular, suited, tanned man would get laid more often than a pale one, even back then. The "bad" color (cultural ideal) would only add to the hottness factor.

needaparka • 1 point • 16 January, 2018 05:15 PM

Having spent some time in a place where the culture still heavily values white skin, I can say that this is emphatically not the case.

Phoenix torment • 2 points • 24 November, 2017 06:22 PM

Same thing with smoking, the upper class people would smoke. Implied wealth. Then the plebs started smoking, so the upper classes stopped.

UniversalFapture • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 04:02 PM

So if i, a black man, travel to poland, i'd be the shit ?

MilesGroome • 1 point • 16 March, 2018 02:29 PM

It is interesting to think about different places/times in the world and observing what makes people attractive based on their popular culture. Like you say, pale skin in East Asia is attractive because having a tan usually means that you have to spend a majority of your day outside working meaning that you are poor. This is similar to 19th & 20th century Europe. The rich would try their best to not get a tan in order to remain more white/attractive. I find this interesting because in Western society now, there are tanning salon's, tanning creams, etc and everyone is doing what they can to get a little bit of colour. This just goes to show how popular culture can influence the lives of the followers, to make changes in their appearance to appear more attractive.

Moneyley • 42 points • 20 November, 2017 08:31 PM

I wish; I think the pussification of men is rampant. Poor diet and lack of discipline as well as lack of brain gains is possibly going to change the dna of men. Look at the bombardment of recent allegations in combination with women starting campaigns against cat calling. They literally dont have any idea of how they want to be approached. I come here and read of another story where a bro was saved by recording his game, or simply recording himself during a uber ride. If anything, at one point, the suit (ironically because of these type of surveys) will be banned because it is "too intimidating" to women. Women will cry "its no fair, he wore a suit and said HI to me...I followed him to his room and he let me in but but I really didnt want to be in there".

Moneyley • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 02:42 PM

I must disagree. There is resounding evidence, at least on this subreddit, that points to women only wanting more feminine men (beta's/guys only to settle down with) only to get fucked by Chad's, even while married. I've been the beta in my early 20's but around 28 I found TRP and have been the Chad more times than I can count. They secretly love assertiveness and dominance but will never openly say it because of image.

ozaku7 • 13 points • 20 November, 2017 09:04 PM

"One striking initial observation by the researchers was that most men uploaded were white, despite London being a fairly diverse city." As expected. I saw a study from USA some years ago that white females were the most loyal group of any race, even more than white males. Other than that it is pretty obvious that women from other races prefer white men.

areq13 • 23 points • 20 November, 2017 10:03 PM

Did you mean the OkCupid stats about match scores by race? Yeah, that was pretty clear cut, even on an urban, liberal site: white men were the most popular group and black women the least popular.

Churff • 22 points • 20 November, 2017 10:16 PM

Cus nobody actively and looks for a black woman, unless she's light skinned. I don't understand how there can be such a huge gap in attractiveness between black girls and light skin girls. Lightskin girls are 2nd hottest for me behind white girls, and dark skins all the way at the bottom

Taco_Truck_Aficionad • 1 points • 21 November, 2017 12:14 AM [recovered]

I went through a jungle fever phase. What I came to realize is that it's not good to have a LTR with a black woman.

1. If you get her pregnant and she lets the fetus live, your offspring will forever be lower class mixtos. They'll never fully be accepted by your society, your culture, and your family.
2. Even though the ones I dated were some of the "good ones," they came from entire families of niggers. Often would be the case that their friends are niggers, their family is niggers, and ugh, I don't want to be involved in that.
3. They don't age well. How many black MILF's do you ever see? I see plenty of white, Asian, and latina MILF's, rarely do I ever see black MILF's.
4. The facts of reality is that we live in a racist society and culture. Even liberals are racist. If you have an LTR with a black chick, she'll always be second class and treated differently than you. She'll act different, talk different, and think differently than you.
5. You gotta watch what you say around them.

MasterOwls • 18 points • 21 November, 2017 05:01 AM

This is a based post. 100% agree with everything. And the funny thing is I know you are not racist. You are a realist. Lord help you though if you repeat these valid points in public

I agree with all of those except point 1. Lightskins are desired very much now and they're seen as the most attractive group, at least among youngins.

Tommy_407 • 0 points • 21 November, 2017 01:26 PM

I understand where youre coming from but as a white "meathead" esque male FWIW i have plates very dark skin black women and had extreme episodes of sexual pleasure from it. Some have large breasts & very curvy asses, and a laid-back sort of "easy to bed" swagger & they are ready to fuck for the right man. They have a sort of rhythmn that certain white females do not. If anyone has the opportunity plate a black female. LTR is a different story. No reason to LTR anyone really unless they're temporarily perfect for you.

Bostenboy • 136 points • 20 November, 2017 05:07 PM

Living in the Bay Area and having worked in silicon valley, 98.5% of young Asian women I see are dating white men. As for the Asian guys, they're shit out of luck. Asian women are a great example of how all women will use any opportunity to get a more dominant masculine man when given the choice.

Gawernator • 57 points • 20 November, 2017 07:58 PM

I see guys saying this but in Berkeley and SF I see a lot of asian girls with asian men too. More like 50/50 split. Definitely white or asian only though. lol

Bostenboy • 21 points • 20 November, 2017 09:29 PM

I know right, only Asian and white. It's like the Asian men around here lost a bet or something.

Gawernator • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 04:55 PM

AllahHatesFags • 6 points • 20 November, 2017 07:58 PM [recovered]

Most Asian and Indian men are beta as fuck.

Bostenboy • 112 points • 20 November, 2017 09:28 PM

True, but I think Asian men in general make great people. They are educated, work very hard, responsible with children, and respectful to people. They are what a women would describe as the perfect men but clearly you don't see women going for them and as much as they won't admit it, it's because they tend to be less masculine. Women instead fantasize about a Latino Don Juan type that goes around fucking and abandoning once she gets pregnant.

[deleted] • 14 points • 21 November, 2017 04:54 AM they for sure are. but they are raised to be beta. isolated from sports, forced to do extra homework or musical instruments, usually no good dominant male model, few role models to look up to (if they are focused on race, which unfortunately most minorities are) a lot of them have a defeatist attitude towards dating as well, which is the real killer for them

Women instead fantasize about a Latino Don Juan they just fantasize about someone who is dominant and treats them the way they actually want to be treated (not what the movies/tv show). their mind will fill in the rest whether its don juan, the 50 shades of grey guy, whoever

Bostenboy • 1 points • 21 November, 2017 06:25 AM [recovered]

Well they focus and try to excel in what they can and that's what anyone in their situation would do. Let's be real, an Asian man's physique could not typically compete in sports like football and basketball when put among other races. They use their brains, and it works for them, that's their strong point and where the focus is at. Whenever I need something done right in the office, I seek out help usually from Asian male counterparts, they know how to get shit done without fucking around and complaining. I appreciate their style of doing things, and honestly think that it would make no difference if they did things, "masculine things" that women liked. There is no pleasing women, when the first thing they see and look for in a man is his masculine physique and features. There's plenty of Asian men here in CA living a completely "western" life style as a white American would but that doesn't change the fact that all things compared, the girl will go for the next guy who has the more masculine physique.

SweetCheeksMagee • 12 points • 21 November, 2017 06:41 AM

This is racist as hell. The most muscular men I know irl are all Asian. Asians as a race are not physically inferior to any other race, rather the average Asian man is less muscular than the average African or European simply because Asian cultures place less emphasis on weightlifting and sports in general. Computer programmer Ping might be scrawny, but its just because he spends all his time indoors writing code. If he spent time in the weight room he could be as muscular as any man.

Utterberetacht • 2 points • 22 November, 2017 07:57 AM

If "computer programmer Ping" ditched glasses, lifted, stopped being geeky, improved his fashion sense and started implementing game, he'd have no problem.

Bottom line = get your house in order before playing the race card.

Bostenboy • 1 points • 21 November, 2017 06:50 AM [recovered]

No, I'm not racist alright. Muscular and Masculine are not the same thing. The verdict is up to women, and all things being equal they're obviously not choosing Asian guys.

Josh98123 • 1 points • 22 November, 2017 08:27 AM [recovered] environment plays a role too since you live in a white society, women would get shunned by the majority whites for dating minority men. Like how it is in any country. Self hating Asian girls just want white acceptance by dating white men. Also media plays a role since every tv show or movie portrays white men in a positive light and shitting on minorities.(Asian men always portrayed as weak nerds in Hollywood)

CoupDeGrace22 • 35 points • 20 November, 2017 09:31 PM

Propagandized into portrayal as the most dominant you mean, only idiots in the US believe that which is also reinforced by how garbage a big part of male population is here, most other white parts of the world(Most of Europe, Japan, China, Russia,) black men still sit on the lower parts of the totem pole.

red_matrix[] • 42 points • 20 November, 2017 10:22 PM

Blacks in the US seem to be more aggressive, but it could also be a class thing too. Lower class and blue-collar (all races) seem to be more aggressive and have that natural DGAF attitude, it could be due to testosterone (from physical work), working around men all day, or just a fuck the man mentality.

Modern jobs have men sitting all day, slowly dying, working in cubes under artificial light, and working with women, and in many cases nowadays working for women. I wonder how years of this could rewire a man's brain.

fromthecrypt8 • 19 points • 20 November, 2017 11:46 PM

Andgelyo • 15 points • 21 November, 2017 02:31 AM

It is definitely a class thing. I grew up in metro NJ and close to NYC and most of my friends (regardless of race) had the IDGAF attitude. High school friends were in gangs, smoked weed, talked about hoes all day, etc. Shit it's probably where I got my behavior from too. When I went to graduate school in Massachusetts it was like the upper class white men there had vaginas.

[deleted] • 2 points • 22 November, 2017 10:13 PM

Lower iq on average, also. Men with higher iq tend to be hyper intellectual, which often bars them from expressing their masculinity/true selves.

red_matrix[] • 2 points • 23 November, 2017 12:16 AM

I'm not to sure about that. People in college back in the 60s and 70s weren't the wimps we see on campus today.

[deleted] • 2 points • 23 November, 2017 12:26 AM

That's because those in college nowadays aren't nearly as intelligent as those in the past. In the 60s/70s, those who went to college were top tier, intellectually. Today, every generic dope goes to college.

red_matrix[] • 1 point • 23 November, 2017 12:34 AM

Lower iq on average, also. Men with higher iq tend to be hyper intellectual, which often bars them from expressing their masculinity/true selves.

But doesn't that go against your assertion that the more intellectual you are, the less masculine.

[deleted] • 3 points • 23 November, 2017 12:50 AM

Yes, I did just contradict myself there.

I would argue that higher iq men in the 60s and 70s also shared a similar lack of masculine expression to their lower iq counter parts, however, when considering the same iq difference today, I'd bet the difference in masculine expression is much larger due to increased culture persuasion over the past 5 or 6 decades.

maplemaximus • 2 points • 23 November, 2017 04:21 AM

IQ tests only test a specific type of intelligence. People specialize in different forms of intelligence, we just happen to prefer a specific type in our society.

As a black male, I've found my peers (mostly black) to be pretty competent in the criteria posed in an average IQ test. They on average aren't shit when it comes to being intellectual (which most people aren't), but higher IQ has little to do with masculinity. You're either a smart wuss or you're not.

Men from the 60's and 70's were high IQ'd but weren't bitches because of how they were raised. Race realists discount environment greatly for the sake of confirmation bias. A black suburban kid with no access to the hard and confrontational life of his inner city counterparts is going to be a blue-pilled sissy.

majorketone • 16 points • 20 November, 2017 10:28 PM

I have no scientific study to back this up but I feel as though there is a larger gap between attractive black men and unattractive ones. Like proportionally there are fewer very attractive black men than very attractive white men. Maybe something to do with a bell curve. Maybe I'm just projecting Being witty, providing banter, or having the ability to add an intelligence multiplier to your physical prowess is not a meme. The meme is when beta nerds over compensate by marketing the only quality they think they antigenocide1 • 5 points • 21 November, 2017 04:44 AM

It's called kin selection and it goes farther than that. Even within a race, you see sub-types select for each other, which is why it's common to see couples that look like they could be brother and sister.

Asian women are hyper sexual, too. Don't let that coy shy conversative bullshit fool you. No one is forcing Japanese women to make all that porn, the Chinese chicks to give those handjobs at massage spas. Even if they are forced into that sort of work, good chance they actually enjoy it. If not, they can easily get an accounting job.

Bostenboy • 11 points • 21 November, 2017 06:15 AM

Thailand literally sells sex to foreign tourists which is how they've become the wealthiest in the region from the tourist dollars. So yes, Asians are hypersexual and that's why it's funny when they try to say things about sexualization in the west.

Utterberetacht • 8 points • 22 November, 2017 08:11 AM

Many Asian women are notoriously white-worshipping and self-hating, and will take every opportunity to throw their male counterparts under the bus. They have kids with white men hoping their kids will be white, but instead they almost always end up looking even more Asian than full-blooded Asians and becoming mentally unstable, e.g. Isla Vista shooter.

In many cases, Asian men are also their own worst enemies due to fobby tiger parents raising them to be neurotic subservient betas: over-focus on academic success, little exposure to athletics, no lifting, respect at gunpoint, etc. So my advice is to reclaim your masculinity, lift, learn+adopt game and if you have tiger parents, tell them to fuck off.

Those who aren't the "typical Asian man" tend to slay well so yeah, being an Asian male doesn't curse you to a life of celibacy.

[deleted] • 20 points • 20 November, 2017 07:37 PM

Yeah not sure if there are any statistics out there, but if you look at trends in single motherhood, divorce rates, etc. it would be asians followed somewhat closely by white people, then mexicans and blacks at the very top end. Black people are huge outliers in all those statistics, having between 70-80% single parenting rates in developed countries compared to asians at about 15% and whites at about 28%.

So, realistically it's probably asian girls.

ObserverBG[S] • 2 points • 21 November, 2017 03:51 PM*

The link also mentions that

Black men are the most likely to marry outside their race while black women are least likely to enter into an interracial marriage.

If thats the case, though, white women in SA are more likely to race mix compared to black women, and white men.

If Whites are least likely to race mix of all groups, yet black women are those who are least likely to race mix of all subgroups, this means that the low level of race mixing among whites in SA is caused by white men shunning it, since black women have lower rate of race mixing compared to white women, yet blacks have higher rate of race mixing compared to whites.

As mentioned, while black women are those least likely to race mix, black men are those most likely to race mix, which causes higher race mixing among blacks overall.

It would be good if the study itself could be found for more clarity.

jewishsupremacist88 • 1 point • 23 November, 2017 08:55 PM

It usually leads to the ultimate sin, producing bi-racial children who have lots of issues. It's a fucking crime.

maplemaximus • 5 points • 23 November, 2017 10:11 PM

The ultimate sin is a ridiculous description of it. Not murder, not rape, not genocide, none of that but two people who didn't get to choose which race they'd be born into, getting together in a relationship. Yep, that's definitely worthy of being the ultimate sin.

Two people from different races being together is not worthy of being called a crime. We're all human, we're bound to be attracted to one another regardless of race. People against race-mixing always turn the other way when the person doing it is personally undesirable to them. White men freak out when beautiful white women date out, and black women freak out when handsome successful black men date out. Silence ensues when two ugly poor looking people are race mixing at wal-mart.

If a kid can't handle being bi-racial, then honestly that's just pathetic, just another one of the West's first world problems. Race is only as big a deal as you want it to be. Is it a real thing? Of course. Is it something we need to bring up 24/7? I doubt it. Biracial children struggle because of the hyper-racialized world we live in. They don't have a clan, ethnicity, or race to yell at people about on college campuses. That's all there is to it.

A solution to the biracial identity issue is bringing back a clan system but that's just my opinion.

jewishsupremacist88 • 0 points • 23 November, 2017 10:19 PM

If a kid can't handle being bi-racial, then honestly that's just pathetic, just another one of the West's first world problems.

Yeah, I don't think half white/black kids like getting clowned on for being too white or not acting black enough. Never-mind the fact that suicide rates for these types of people are higher than for single race people. They also cannot accept bone marrow / organ transplants either. It's a public health issue.

Mate, by Halacha law I am a Jew but I am not religious at all. I can go to Israel and I will be treated as a first class citizen due to my mothers race (Ashkenazi). I know lots of "half" jews whose fathers are Jews or Israelis who married gentiles and they will not be considered Jewish at all and wind up having identity issues due to the fact it is natural to have some affinity toward your parents ethnicity/culture/etc. This is why I think race mixing is wrong, it isn't fair to the kids and it's selfish on the parents behalf.

maplemaximus • 3 points • 23 November, 2017 10:36 PM

Mixed race people can help one another in regards to transplants. But you're not wrong in thinking that ending it would end those transplant issues.

Who's at fault, the assholes who create these ideas and use them to harm others for circumstances they can't control, or the people who decided to be together despite racial differences? This idea of just letting the norm be the norm and capitulating to people who behave like this is the very thing that created this subreddit in the first place. We capitulated to Social Justice bull-shit and it went too far, and now here you and I are.

If you're a Jew, why don't you talk to other Jews about changing the ideals of your race. Just because it's a long standing practice or idea doesn't change anything. Are you willing to make a change for the sake of others who are clearly Jewish by birth but are considered second-class through bronze-age laws made by desert men who didn't understand genetics?

jewishsupremacist88 • 2 points • 23 November, 2017 10:43 PM

why is everyone so obsessed with white people.. i'm white and my life has been mostly miserable because my parents and childhood were trash... all that matters is how your brain develops and how you interact with the environment.. it has nothing to do with your skin tone for fucks sake.. it's about how you use your brain to get ahead in life by any means necessary.. people who are saying skin colour matters are making excuses to not achieve things

From OP's quote:

show that as a culture we still celebrate masculinity in the form of money and muscle

Oh, so women liking looks and resources is a cultural thing?

Thank goodness for that... for a second I thought we were going to blame female nature on female nature.

Psynaut • 8 points • 21 November, 2017 07:07 AM

Yes, we just need to parent girls differently and then 60 million years of evolution will instantly cease to have any effect on their instinctual desires.

pmmedenver • 9 points • 21 November, 2017 03:00 AM

I know this is obvious to most of us around here but I like it because:

1. Its an actual scientific study. Most of the theory around here borders on bro science
2. Its important enough that it needs repeating often
3. If you ask women what they find attractive they simply won't give this answer. It is, for some reason, "counter intuitive" in many cultures.

BrodinsOats • 4 points • 23 November, 2017 01:19 AM

This website is disgusting. I am absolutely horrified that something like this could be allowed.

First of all it is ILLEGAL to take photos of people without their permission. And then to go ahead and POST THESE PHOTOS AND RATE THEM! This is objectification and it is disgraceful. How can we judge ourselves as a species when this rubbish continues?!?!?!?

Oh...it was men being photographed without permission? That's alright actually. Never mind nothing to see here.

Flawless44 • 14 points • 20 November, 2017 11:41 PM*

It is absolutely not illegal to take pictures of people in public. You have no privacy there. It is also not illegal to post them.

Maybe not but I think I made my point. If it were a site for rating women the owner and all users would be destroyed.

Troll_Name • 2 points • 21 November, 2017 01:18 AM

It's a civil matter. Criminal law isn't the only kind of law you can get burned by, as evidenced by pretty much anyone here who has been married or left for dead by someone else's divorce before. (Boss' wife cleans out the business accounts while her husband is drugged in a hospital bed.)

If you use someone else's likeness without their consent, then you had damn well better be well-versed in state law. Contrary to popular misconception, laws aren't exactly the same all over the world.

jokuhuna • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 11:22 AM inner workings as to why these things are attractive

I may be misunderstanding your question, but the answer is so simple it hardly needs explaining.

tl,dr: Darwinism:

Muscular, wealthy, dominant men can contribute the best genes and the best provisioning to help raise attractive offspring. Dad's high social status helps that offspring succeed in life even more.

Auvergnat • 43 points • 20 November, 2017 07:39 PM

the answer is so simple it hardly needs explaining.

Evo psych is shunned hard in progressive circles. I've even met a girl finishing a PhD on birds biology tweets some stabs at evo psych. Let me write that again: a woman whose job is to know inside out how the biology and behavior of birds was shaped by evolution through natural selection would not consider for one second that same phenomenon to explain why human males of all ages are naturally sexually attracted to young and beautiful females. Nope. Gotta be patriarchy. Such is the power of ideas.

UrsusG[] • 22 points • 20 November, 2017 08:01 PM*

Their argument is basically that humans are now more influenced by culture and ideas than by biology because we're so advanced.

It is true to some extent that culture and ideas greatly accelerate evolution, but that does not mean they invalidate the biological underpinnings.

Culture is a young and thin veneer on the human animal. Strip us of crude oil, electricity and fertilizers and we're back to cavemen priorities in the current year (big strong Gronk gets all the women because he enables survival)

Besides, culture and ideas themselves stem from DNA if you look deep enough.

Attraction is still non-negotiable; women are still attracted to men who would have done well in caveman times, and men are still attracted to women who look like they might bear healthy children (big tits, wide hips, healthy skin and hair)

Gawernator • 5 points • 20 November, 2017 07:54 PM

Overkillengine • 7 points • 21 November, 2017 06:10 AM

Many make the mistake of assuming that intelligence and education automatically counteracts ego protection and post-hoc rationalization.

Nope. Just gives a person more (powerful) tools with which to do so.

foggydew42 • 16 points • 20 November, 2017 05:01 PM

This study provides no insights beyond the fact that women find attractive men attractive. Only those who are deeply blue-pilled would be surprised by this.

Another frequent theme in popular images was displays of wealth, whether it was through jewelry, fancy attire, or expensive technology.

Women aren't so much attracted to money as they are to displays of wealth such as fancy watches or jewelry that convey dominance.

AllahHatesFags • 5 points • 20 November, 2017 08:00 PM

I bet if the guy was surrounded by fat stack of cash or gold bars the women would find him attractive.

Troll_Name • 8 points • 21 November, 2017 01:25 AM

Women seek resources. That doesn't mean they love the man who has them.

AllahHatesFags • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 02:50 PM

No, but unless the man is a blue pill beta cuck doormat they will at least have to put out to have any access to said resources.

juliusstreicher • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 10:27 PM

This isn't saying anything, because displays of wealth are about 99.99% of what moneyed people, uh, display. I suspect that you will NEVER see a wealthy person wave any money around.

gatsmd • 11 points • 20 November, 2017 06:26 PM*

Everyone here needs to STOP thinking about the WHY and START thinking about the HOW.

The why, even in regards to science and technology, has driven men mad for centuries. The how tells us how we can do what works, from what we observe. Really, it's all that matters.

You want X, do Y to get it. Who cares why it takes Y to get X?

winner_lahmacun • 5 points • 20 November, 2017 08:32 PM

By constructing a strong base for our motivations, it is easier for us to universalize what is obvious. Because nowadays people easily turn a blind eye to things that are way too fucking obvious. It is easier to take advantage of science while arguing, since it is the most universal shit we have as humankind. That's why I think WHY is important.

grass_cutter • 6 points • 20 November, 2017 07:01 PM

That would be as useful as arguing amongst males why they like the shit they do, from crazy anime porn to some slut getting gangbanged by the football team to whatever.

No one exactly 'knows' why they have a certain type. They just do. Why do they like McDonald's Big Mac hamburgers and fries? Who the fuck knows why, they just do!

Of course the real reason is evolutionary biology of course. Through millenia it's honed instincts to attempt to make you mate with a worthwhile partner. Of course, many of the sexual attraction markers can be flawed in terms of actual healthy/ mating fitness, but ... it's was caused one's dick to rise.

In this case, women being attracted to wealth and power and strength and dominance? Color me fucking shocked.

[deleted] • 8 points • 21 November, 2017 05:43 AM

One major disservice that holywood is perpetuating is that a "Normal" dude can look like a super hero. I've seen numerous trainers and competitive lifters say "There's no way to look like them with out steroids". The super hero look is basically the 9" dick. Its used as the "baseline" of what they deserve. Its frustrating to be the strongest person I know and still not be close to looking like Hugh jackman (wolverine) or dwayne johnson (the rock) or dreamface hemsworth (thor).

EvilBananaManRD • 7 points • 25 November, 2017 11:02 AM

Look up Fabian Buchert and others in his category (natural bodybuilding, no steroids). He's big but nowhere as big as some of those "superheroes", even though he was World Champion a couple years ago. Quite literally all professional athletes and many actors and models do roids on a weekly basis. Natural bodies don't get near that big no matter what.

I would double down and say, that from experience, I have tried to teach guys how to be wealthy, ripped and dominant for 10 years now. I get met with 110% pure skepticism. Wealth, Dominance, and Muscle is not a silver bullet. There are plenty of these dudes who are complete 100% assholes who are unbearable to be around. If you really take of the goggles. Normal guys get laid everywhere you go... Water seeks its own level. No two ways about it.

360_no_scope_upvote • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 09:43 AM

Obviously your mentality and game needs work. Women know when your full of shit and forcing confidence crdr88 • 1 point • 21 November, 2017 06:02 PM*

My game and confidence is fine. The reality is... I am out of a lot of Average to Above Average girls' leagues now. No one tells you when you hit your goals you have to move to where better looking women are which is not always easy. It's a worthwhile challenge. But it's risky. This is why there is so few people at the top with good looking wives. But, when you win, you win big!

But to say Wealth, Dominance and Fitness is the bullet that will have women all over you... That's completely not true. It helps, but you need to pair it with social standing as well. Social standing cannot stand on its own either though... You need to be the complete package.

It's like designing the Greatest App Ever created without an audience that has a problem... Which is also very common. Does a tree make a sound if no one is there to hear it?

I am saying if you are the Ideal. Which I am. You must go to Ideal Environments where you can be valued. Making money, getting ripped and being a dominant guy is easy compared to climbing the social ladder where you will be considered valuable. Anything lower, you are not only undervaluing yourself. You will be ignored and ironically suffer the same consequences as if you done nothing at all in the first place.

TLDR: You can be the most jacked, dominant and wealthy guy in the world. Without social status you're nothing. Vice versa.

360_no_scope_upvote • 2 points • 21 November, 2017 08:17 PM

If you are jacked, dominate and wealthy, and you're not slamming 8-10's you are fucking up some where and I now know it's for sure your mentality and game. Be real with yourself, and work on cold approaching and upping your game. You're not giving the tingles, you're not being outgoing and a person people want to gravitate to. That average guy you're talking about that's slamming the pussy you want to is putting his shit on the line and going for what he wants, your just watching this shit happen instead of getting yours, you're at fault.

so much ignorance in this thread. The average educational level of the posters here are even lower than I thought. Correlation vs causation. This is a correlation data picked from non methodological means.

If we had better that controlled for ethnicity, I would bet rich career focused > color of skin. The rich have set the smv and fashion setters for a long time. Even the names we were given follow a correlation of what rich people name their children.

The median white is way less successful than the median Indian or Asian in California. It's not because some skin color is better, it's because the selection criteria for international immigrating is much more stringent than being born here. Also, there is data that woman choose men who are genetically different.

it's mentally lazy, easy, and weak to just assume you're born better than your competition. I thought we emphasized strength and hard truths in here.

She said that all cardio and dance moves and yoga shit were in, LOL. The same chick whats wrote it prolly doing some married power lifter on the sly, leaving her skinny beta at home.

I have heard this called "the poindexter syndrome"; whats where a chick chooses one type for sex, and another for a hubby. Gender Studies needs a purpose of being since it has no purpose whatsoever.

TangoZulu • 11 points • 20 November, 2017 09:52 PM

Gender studies has a purpose; at its core, TRP is gender studies. The difference is that liberal/feminist Gender Studies starts with a faulty premise (patriarchy, victim-hood) and reverse engineers the data to fit their agenda and narrative.

[deleted] • 8 points • 20 November, 2017 10:44 PM

You are right, but gender studies, as you define it, already exists: it's called evolutionary and behavioral psychology. TRP is the most practical and more precise (theoretically and practically) approach.
