Remember, a woman is only as loyal as her options and as moral as society allows her to be.

She will always put herself first, and will follow the more promising prospect.

When the Nazis occupied france, all the French women spread their legs.

Women have evolved to fall in 'love' with the conquering rapist who just killed their husband, expecting male morality and love from them is silly.

Pretty much, anyone that says that their love can be unconditional if you find a NAWALT is projecting.

DoctorKnockboots • 1 point • 21 September, 2018 11:46 PM

anyone that says that their love can be unconditional is someone who puts the absolute most conditions upon giving it up.

When the Nazis occupied france, all the French women spread their legs.

I remember watching Band of Brothers, and when E company liberated a town (I believe it was in northern Europe, perhaps Denmark(?)) the townsfolk were of course overjoyed to see them. While the townsfolk were cheering the incoming soldiers, a few lovely local lasses sidled up to them just as pretty as could be. The townsfolk weren't having any of that shit, however and promptly started kicking "little hoor" ass, as these young "ladies" did the exact same thing to the Nazi officers when the Nazi occupation rolled into town.

In fact, I think they had a specialized one-word pejorative indicating that they weren't just unscrupulous with their vaginas, and were in fact traitorous sluts.

Does anyone know off the top of their head what the word for these "ladies" was?

El famoso "cuck up!" back at it again

BitcoinBoffin • 8 points • 21 September, 2018 07:37 AM

Producing & raising offspring is usually the single most costly pursuit of any organism, human or animal. Not only is that kind of energy expenditure shortening to the length of ones life expectancy, even more importantly being cuckolded into expending time, energy & resources raising another man's offspring reduces a males excess productive output he could otherwise invest into raising his own offspring. Women pretending they can't see this kind of conflict of interest is just them showing how much they see their own self interest sitting above a man's. If most men woke up to this being the universal constant it so obviously is, it would become quite normal for every child to have a paternity test. Im quite sure if this ever happened we'd see that old chestnut; the Pareto Distribution show it's honest face yet again.

This is also known as they only care about status that's it.

TheRabbitTunnel • 5 points • 21 September, 2018 03:23 PM

Loyal women might be upset at the lack of trust if their husband asked for a paternity test. But they would definitely agree that its more detrimental to risk a lifetime of finances, energy, and love into a child that isnt his, than it is for her to feel not trusted.

The woman that said "a lack of trust" is more detrimental than "raising a child that isnt" his are so full of shit, and they know they are full of shit. Loyal woman may be offended by the request for a paternity test, but they would (probably) agree to it.

Unfaithful woman are the ones that need to say ridiculous things, such as "a lack of trust is worse than raising a child that isnt yours", because they need to do anything they can to avoid paternity tests, because it would expose them for who they are.

Long story short, all the woman that are saying that paternity tests are bad, are the unfaithful ones that want Chads genes for their offspring and dont want billy beta finding out. The men that agree that paternity tests are bad are the simps that are stupid enough to fall for their bullshit.

Loyal what?

MenGoingTOWin • 2 points • 21 September, 2018 06:48 PM

Commitment and loyalty are not part of a woman's "love". They only come from lack of opportunity or risk. They are ALL like that. They are animals, they will go as far as they've been restrained ajaski708 • 3 points • 21 September, 2018 03:11 PM

If anyone here ever plans on having kids, you should discuss this before you start trying. Say that you are going to take a paternity test no matter what. If she doesn't want you to, DTB and move on.

Celtabria • 3 points • 21 September, 2018 04:35 PM

That last one.. man up.. how about you fuck off. DNA tests should be done as standard when a kid is born these days since falling pregnant by someone else happens so much. If it's someone else's then the man in the relationship isn't required to pay child support in the event of a split. Of course that'll never happen, it'd cost governments far too much.
