This is the text I got from a girl I had been on two dates with after I told her I didn't want to have sex at this point.

I'm done.

That is not her decision, her committee of girlfriends decided this for her.

Good for you, dude. You dodged a bullet or worse. Consider this a free gift from above. Learn from it. Don't let this lesson go to waste. Work on yourself. Go your own way. And make sure you most definitely ghost her. Be strong, buddy.

I've experienced this first hand. Went on a couple of dates with a girl. The discussion of sex came up and I said as a Christian I want to wait until marriage for sex (she also claimed to be Christian).

This sent her into a rage saying "You're being controlling, I won't let a man control when I can or can't have sex. If you don't give me sex then i'll get it from someone else".

I didn't see meet Her again, though she did text and email me a number of times asking to meet up again.

All ignored with no response :-D

Well, good

If she can't offer you her pussy, what else is she going to use to manipulate you with?

It goes completely against her Modus operandi.

Many women did that to me. I am Baptist, and stuck to the "no sex without marriage" doctrine. When I was Blue Pill, I thought women who were also Christian would appreciate being able to control myself and not being like those "other guys." Then I swallowed the Red Pill, and I woke up.

If women can't manipulate you with sex, they will leave you. You're denying their "golden vagina."

You're better off, believe me.
