How have we got to a point where anyone thinks that it is okay to accuse someone without evidence and expect everyone to immediately believe them?

Women are well known for being devious and sneaky with words. So I give them less credibility than I give a man. Not that I would believe any man accusing someone of a crime if there was not good evidence. It is simply irrational idiocy.

That's another problem that feminism creates, it's detrimental to women, and the worst part is that most feminists and young women begin to embody and turn into the people who lie and cheat. Of course, they also slander women and men who disagree with them.

NewJesus69 • 5 points • 8 July, 2020 06:53 AM

We live in a society where people would blindly believe whatever story a female recites about Man, She can put up any allegations against the Man and the society is gonna believe it . They won't ask for evidences as they still think that " Man are Trash "

Feminism has changed drastically and now it's creating problem in the society, There's one more thing people need to understand about gender pay gap - You are gonna earn more if you bring in more for company. Ight ( Mic drop )

It'd be a terrible shame if these virtue signalling cunts suddenly had a bunch of women come forward with accusations about THEM

SirPeanutTheSecond • 17 points • 7 July, 2020 05:00 PM

The simple logical thinking skills are so fucking absent

Rhayn08 • 18 points • 7 July, 2020 06:45 PM

Yeah, okay. Someone tweet back at her that they are a woman and this idiot raped them. I'm pretty sure she will suddenly be demanding you provide proof.

princesspuppy12 • 5 points • 7 July, 2020 11:21 PM

Lol, maybe I should. Been thinking about it and when she says provide proof, I'll say oh well you said I don't need any proof before...

chambertlo • 13 points • 7 July, 2020 08:42 PM

Never believe a women that doesn't have evidence and proof. No man should have his life ruined based on an allegation.

fatalityforever1 • 6 points • 7 July, 2020 10:23 PM and they are going to decide if a man is a rapist by his physical traits.

Xsailrx • 5 points • 7 July, 2020 10:56 PM

They dont need such frivolous things like logic emotion is enough

ZeZapasta • 5 points • 8 July, 2020 12:23 AM

In that case, "GRACE" has raped me. Take her to the gulag.

princesspuppy12 • 4 points • 7 July, 2020 11:22 PM

She'll change her mind when someone accuses her of rape, guarantee you that...

zipflop • 2 points • 8 July, 2020 03:23 AM

Funny how miserable these people are without anyone doing anything

AnimusMilitia • 3 points • 8 July, 2020 04:34 AM women are liars. they love playing the victim because that's all they know how to be in life.

kep3 • 2 points • 8 July, 2020 04:56 PM

feminists love to play victim, not woman mygstacy • 0 points • 10 July, 2020 03:05 AM

You know as a man youre more likely to get raped by another man than falsely accused by a women

Jakeybaby125 • 1 point • 10 July, 2020 04:29 PM

Still doesn't stop it from ruining a man's life. By saying that men are more likely to get raped by other men than they are to be falsely accused is basically downplaying false accusations. That's not a good thing

mygstacy • 1 point • 10 July, 2020 04:33 PM

Im not downplaying false accusations im just stating how unlikely they are because whenever someone talks about rape a man brings up false accusations and accuses the girl of lying when statistically its very likely shes telling the truth. Men talk about false accusations ruining lives when people bring up rape as if rape doesnt ruin lives and happen way more often.

Jakeybaby125 • 1 point • 10 July, 2020 04:36 PM

So fucking what?! Just because it doesn't happen that often does not mean it shouldn't be taken as seriously as actual rape! Btw, we shouldn't just believe women. I'm not gonna believe her if she doesn't have some kind of evidence on her. Give me the statistics of what you said. I'd like to see them myself.

mygstacy • 1 point • 10 July, 2020 05:37 PM

When did i say it shouldnt be taken seriously? I also didnt say you should just believe women im saying you shouldnt accuse them of lying. The average man in england and wales has a 0.03% chance of being raped in a year and a 0.00021281% chance of being falsely accused in a year. My source:

As shown in this article by Forbes, it's not the rarity. It's the impact of what can happen when they do happen. Why do you think Wall Street adopted the Modesto Manifesto?

mygstacy • 1 point • 10 July, 2020 06:01 PM

Im not saying its not serious, obviously being wrongly accused of any crime is serious. I just dont think men should accuse girls of lying when they talk about rape when they probably arent. You dont have to believe them without evidence just remain neutral. Unless theyre like your girlfriend or something then you should probably trust them.

Jakeybaby125 • 1 point • 10 July, 2020 06:03 PM

Sorry but I've seen way too many stories on false accusations thanks to #believewomen to think that girls are automatically telling the truth. NAWALT I know but I'm not willing to take the risk and most men aren't either.

Just dont think women are automatically telling the truth then... Like i said stay neutral if you dont know whether to believe them but automatically assuming theyre lying just makes victims scared to speak up. 90% of rapes already go unreported.

alep2007 • 1 point • 8 July, 2020 06:07 PM

A link?

yeet_n_skeet • 1 point • 11 July, 2020 09:49 PM

it's a crime, it should require evidence or else it's just a he-said she-said debate. That's how every trial is, you show...evidence. that's not sexist i don't understand how they can be so brain dead

squidhandss • -2 points • 8 July, 2020 06:54 AM

What if the guy starts bragging about it? What if he literally confesses it himself? I'm not going to disagree with innocent till proven guilty, but not all "evidence" has to be graphic.

Another issue is that rape kits cost $1000 if you don't have health insurance. It's all too common for police departments throw rape kits away to "declutter", so when some women mentally recover and want to seek justice later, all the evidence is tossed away.

What about women who were raped as children and didn't realize it was rape until they were adults? Are we not going to believe them when they confide about their trauma because there's no longer any evidence?

I hate to be the bitch to break a circlejerk here, but just because forensic evidence wasn't formally collected, doesn't necessarily mean a rape did or didn't happen. It's very disingenuous to make it all "but teh evidence or you a lying hoe”.

baxigamer22 • 4 points • 8 July, 2020 07:34 AM

What if that bitch lying? What if?

squidhandss • -4 points • 8 July, 2020 07:36 AM

What if that bitch not lying? What if?

baxigamer22 • 4 points • 8 July, 2020 07:36 AM

What if the bitch is lying? What if?

squidhandss • -5 points • 8 July, 2020 08:29 AM

I love how you don't address any of the facts I just mentioned.

baxigamer22 • 4 points • 8 July, 2020 08:43 AM

Coz that's not the issue of this thread. No one is victim blaming here. We are just talking about fake allegations kepz3 • 3 points • 8 July, 2020 05:01 PM

It doesn't matter how much they cost, you still need evidence to convict, and so we should not agree with them or go on witch hunts until it's confirmed

kepz3 • 1 point • 8 July, 2020 04:59 PM

Have you ever heard of the presumption of innocence, you know, the thing we base our model legal system on. Innocent until proven guilty, yes some rapes will go unpunished but far less people will be falsely imprisoned of rape and other crimes.

NoxiousDiscord • 1 point • 9 July, 2020 08:10 AM

If there's no evidence there should not be a case. That's just common sense. How about I accuse you of rape? There's no evidence but I swear, you raped me a long time ago so I don't have evidence. Word evidence is what gets rappers arrested for rapping about murder, which is pretty unfair.
