for every 1 dollar a man earns, 98% of it goes to women, rent, food, fuel, elec, clothes, cable, healthcare, education, etc...

for every 1 dollar a woman takes, goes only to herself.

Their reaction has been to gaslight us and claim they never lied about it. They now claim they always knew it was a raw gap, and that they never said it was for the same work.

so you're telling me that more men in a work force means more of the money goes to men then women statistically? huh its weird how numbers work isnt it?

Oh nooooo... Is someone offended by being called a boomer??!! Calls me out for a "generic insult" and proceeds to use a small dick insult... Talk about being generic... XD
