To be fair this is not a bad message. The problem is, they don't live by it

You're generalizing a whole group of people, much like I'm sure some radicals in the group generalize all men. How is this helpful in any way?

True that, my bad. I mostly was thinging about the radicals, but didn't word it correctly

That's fine (: I just think it's better to not play into the other side and make distinctions from the radicals and the normal people. Radicals can make any group of beliefs look insane but there's always the majority of level headed people who are outspoken by loud radicals
