Feminism never was and never will be about equality. It was always about getting the best possible deal for women with a mix of man hating. Not even the first wave was exceptional.

Back in the days of industrial revolution in 1890, feminists were whining about not having the right to vote. Back then not even regular men had the right to vote. Voting was a privilege given only to the rich and wealthy. Regular men were given the right to vote in exchange of getting drafted in case of war.

Feminists eventually got the right to vote without having to get drafted. They got the "equal rights" they wanted without having "equal responsibilities"

And slowly after that it became more about man hating than actually fighting for "rights"

Take a look at the second wave feminism. All of their achievements were achieved through demonizing men and hating on them

I'm not even going to start talking about third or the fourth wave. They are acting as if we're still living in middle ages when it's completely legal to buy and sell women as sex slaves

Women could vote in the US from the very beginning. They just had to be a citizen and own property. Obviously it skewed heavily toward men but that was because women demanded a man have money and a home before they would agree to marriage. Funnily enough when it came time to vote for universal suffrage the women who could already vote voted against it by majority. The whole "women couldn't vote" thing is a flat out feminist lie.

Ah, lovely. So you're telling me that this. ~~ent~~ movement is least factually than what I thought it is? Unironically unsurprising.

Oh and btw, your statement is true about America. Far as I know circumstances were different in Britain and France

Yeah, I'm not sure about Britain or France. Being American it's probably best that I stick to fighting the Devil I know.

Feminism is trash. Feminists need to be put down.

OnlyHanzo • 4 points • 26 April, 2020 06:48 PM

Egalitarianism is about equality. Feminism is about female dominance.
