This is how every Oppression Olympics work. Bleating on about past injustices, because there are no injustices today.

They bleat about past injustices in order to shame you into submission. They only hate what happened in the past cause they weren't the oppressors. They would not have have problem with injustices happening as long as they are the oppressor.

That's right, they would have been the oppressors if they had the power. I think its a reflection of their personalities (or lack of).

When will they get that Affirmative action is a horrible practice?

AbstruseMurmurings • 18 points • 30 March, 2020 02:15 AM

This never happened. This is Feminist History, not reality.

No, there are cases of being diagnosed with "female hysteria" and hooked up to a giant automatic dildo as treatment

Needless to say, the past is very weird and fucked up

People not wanting children is not a bad thing. It does not make you a feminist to not want children. both my fiancé and I do not want children. We just don't like children and we can't afford them so why would we have them anyway on this overpopulated earth with all the other people who have children but can't afford to take care of them? people need to have self control. Apparently so many humans on this planet don't have that. That's why there are 7.8 billion of us vasekgamescz • 2 points • 30 March, 2020 10:26 AM

If those people weren't dumb fucks then the earth could fit in 13 trillion humans but the dat feminists who call themselves plus size are taking too much fucking space.

I've not a clue how that is relevant laptopdragon • 11 points • 30 March, 2020 02:28 AM so, is her point that women (guessing she means 100% of them, at a certain age) are and have always become hysterical and frantically insane in which the doctors did everything they possibly could to save them to no avail?

hmm, point made in "the fairer sex" which then says in all caps stfu... yeah, I think someone is expressing hysterical points right now.

Undead_Chronic • 9 points • 30 March, 2020 03:42 AM

The only thing that can fix a feminist is a lobotomy biggameprogramming • 2 points • 30 March, 2020 10:55 AM

That's overly optimistic ;)

Ourmutant • 8 points • 30 March, 2020 03:34 AM

Lmao looks like someone watched bojack horseman and took it literally hatefulreason • 3 points • 30 March, 2020 05:52 AM they treated hysteria by giving them orgasms. can i go to a state paid therapist to take out my feelings 3 times a week ? i swear i'll be more relaxed tiredfromlife2019 • 1 point • 30 March, 2020 09:41 AM

Yes. Don't buy into the bullshit where feminists say that men should be more open with their emotions and feelings. That's a lie.

You are only allowed to express feelings, emotions and feelings that are approved by feminists. Otherwise you get shutdown and told to shut up.

vasekgamescz • 1 point • 30 March, 2020 10:29 AM

We should kill their Minecraft dog and then show them no visible emotion and watch them cry.
