For a moment here, I thought this was the same construction company that was owned by that feminist on Dragon's Den. Remember that all women construction pitch? She was shut down by all dragons?

It highlights serious and big problem: ridiculousness of "equality of outcome", however, "back to the kitchen" part is distasteful and brings us down to feminist level.

As I said, not a very tasteful one. Let's not give reasons to paint this sub in a bad light.

There are women on this subreddit too.
