"We want to be treated like men" turned into "no what we want is special treatment from men"

I have to agree with the first part, men are usually arrested for more violent crimes and grand theft while women are more likely going to be arrested for murdering their children and petty theft.

While true, that doesn't mean that they "deserve" a better environment. Prisons are already segregated so why make the women's "more comfortable"?

I didn't say anything about them deserving a more lax punishment I just said they'd commit different crimes.
