I smiled at this nice older gentleman as he walked by and he said "It's a cloudy day outside but your smile just brightened my day!" I then told him he was a sexist pos and he shouldn't tell women to smile. Jk. I said "Thank you so much! That's sweet!" cuz I'm not a bitter psycho

Check the comments to wpt post and lose what little faith in humanity you might have accidentally gotten from this pic.

i am not surprised. I am convinced that reddit is majorly filled with creepy people. especially after this r/FemaleDatingStrategy post in which recommended infidelity to women to withhold sex from the guy they are dating as to get a guy who is "serious", so if they feel thirsty just go FWB on the side and keep it secret from him. that sub has more than 50k visiting women.
