Maybe that's how we get rid of feminazis, putting those hairy douche bags in the military

no one asked them

Society and the government, commanded them to do so. Women don't need to sign a pamphlet stating that they will fight in a war if the government wants to draft them, and that's just for a driver's license. Women don't have to do that, why don't feminists protest that law?

maybe because they don't want to go to military? it's not like all men are happy with compulsory service

Yet they still have to get it due to a lacking amount of women in the military. Maybe if this law was spread to women, more would join the military? Give women something to complain about besides 'abortions' and how 'oppressed' they are.

send pregnant women who'll face sexism an rape threats to military then Pregnant women send sexist comments and rape threats to military personal? Please better articulate.

Or maybe send able-bodied people, regardless of sex/gender? Just a thought

To clarify, it was "why don't feminists protest against menbeing forced to join the army"

no one asked them

If they didn't surely you'd ask
