The seller also says how the weight limit is 300lbs, maybe the feminists are mad most of them can't use it.

princesspuppy12 • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 07:43 PM

Most feminist women just sit around all day and do nothing. So I've seen. Most anti-feminist women are opposite. I know that I could lift that much and I'm a woman, but with how fucked up my back is as of lately, I don't want to risk it.

He's just looking out for their well being. He doesn't want them to get hurt trying to install it lol

princesspuppy12 • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 07:45 PM

Lol

It's an ad for a trampoline so upper body strength is the main factor and the average man is significantly stronger than the average woman in the upper body.

the-southern-snek • 3 points • 7 July, 2019 07:38 AM

Well an average men are stronger because of our bone and muscle structure and the creators of the product didn't know there mass so they have to write it on the average strength not the individual

CaptainCipher • 2 points • 8 July, 2019 02:24 AM

Or they could, you know, say something not sexist like "installation may be difficult"

OnlyHanzo • 0 points • 7 July, 2019 02:36 PM

The strongest woman is weaker than the average man. Thats why for manual labor its best for a weak useless (in that field) woman to ask a man who has been doing that his entire life.

Feminists dont want to work in a coal mine or as plumbers. Men do. Surprise.

Jucicleydson • 1 point • 11 July, 2019 12:59 AM

The strongest woman is weaker than the average man.

The strongest woman lifts 850 ponds (400 kg). Do you lift how much?

Feminists dont want to work in a coal mine or as plumbers. Men do. Surprise.

Which coal mine do you work at?

istira_balegina • 10 points • 7 July, 2019 04:55 AM

*the average man has 40% more upper body strength than the average woman.

[deleted] • 0 points • 13 July, 2019 01:40 AM

That is an useless statement.

princesspuppy12 • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 07:44 PM

It's true though...

[deleted] • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 07:48 PM

Still useless.

princesspuppy12 • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 08:40 PM

Yeah, I guess so.

azmareld • 4 points • 7 July, 2019 03:07 AM

Ahahaha

BothWaysItGoes • 5 points • 7 July, 2019 10:09 AM

From the comments:

The assertion that men have strength and women don't is inherently sexist

MarchingFire • 5 points • 7 July, 2019 11:26 AM

BAHAHHAHAHAHAHHA

They are lost...

OnlyHanzo • 3 points • 7 July, 2019 02:39 PM

Yet for some reason i didnt see a single woman unloading even one box of our 400kg of electrical equipment. They stood by and watched us work. They always do.

princesspuppy12 • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 07:38 PM

I'd help if I got free food from it and I'm a woman. Woman like that I just don't really like.

Uno_Cinco • 1 point • 19 July, 2019 01:37 PM

□□□□ Would watching you be objectifying men...? Say it isn't so..., but I believe that's sexual harrassment. □□□□

kekeface12345 • 3 points • 7 July, 2019 12:28 PM

Chinese don't give a f about western style feminism eliminator127 • 1 point • 12 July, 2019 07:46 PM

This is just straight up sexism bruh

princesspuppy12 • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 07:38 PM

Not really if you actually think about it...

princesspuppy12 • 1 point • 14 July, 2019 07:44 PM

Lol, I'm dying! □ □

TheVoidWalker89 • 2 points • 6 July, 2019 11:53 PM

this its a legit complain, i agree with whoever posted that

It's a scientific fact that men are built stronger than women. Can women be stronger? Obviously yes. Are they usually? No.

OnlyHanzo • -1 points • 7 July, 2019 02:41 PM

They can? i dont see a single field where women beat men.

Other than social manipulation.

0r1g1n4ln4m3 • 2 points • 8 July, 2019 05:01 PM

Now that's just blatantly sexist

OnlyHanzo • 1 point • 8 July, 2019 06:18 PM

Saying its sexist does not answer the question though. You cant name even one field, right?

0r1g1n4ln4m3 • 1 point • 8 July, 2019 06:56 PM

In what type of activity? Sport or otherwise, I can still prove it either way but I just want to narrow this down

OnlyHanzo • 1 point • 9 July, 2019 12:53 AM

Just everything. Sports are very obviously male-dominated activity, no need to even go there.

Like work for example, what useful stuff does an average woman do better than an average man? All jewelers are male, all cooks are male, all doctors are male, its even more laughable when you go into dirty work. Women are good only in "social" fields, where them being a woman is the only qualification for the job - like a call operator, cashier or librarian. Sitting nice and clean behind a desk while men risk their lives every day building skyscrapers and defending freedom.

0r1g1n4ln4m3 • 2 points • 9 July, 2019 06:43 AM

Veterinarians, health care workers, teachers, gymnastics, tennis, equestrians, rock climbing, ultra marathons just to name a few woman dominated activities

0r1g1n4ln4m3 • 2 points • 9 July, 2019 06:44 AM

And my sister is an excellent child surgeon

princesspuppy12 • 2 points • 14 July, 2019 07:41 PM

You forgot nurses are mostly woman dominated and they do most of the dirty work for the doctors. They do more physical contact with the patients and usually have to do more lifting and they have to be able to lift at least 50-60 lbs or more in order to be qualified. Not saying that that's alot of weight, just saying how demanding their job is both mentally and physically.
