If I was 15 and I identified as 25 does that mean I can drive a car? NO! why do people think that changing genders is a thing?

Isn't that the partial reproductive organs production? Which is physiologically impossible for humans and we're talking about humans so..yes, there are only two genders.

I haven't studied biology but XXY or XYY can't be two different genders since they're literally a 'glitch.'
Lol.

Correct, a mutation is not a gender, it's a mutation
