If feminism is all about "equal rights", how many women have been drafted to war since they signed themselves off when they got there license?

When was the last draft...? People mostly enlist because of poverty and a lack of resources.

Feminists say feminism is about equal rights between women and men then why the fuck is it called feminism not genderism or something. The name is contractory and sexist in its self

Women are aloud to join the military. It is a privilege to not be FORCED to join the military. Men can be forced to join while women can't.

Women should none included the draft, no one should be. Because no one should be forced to go to war. Also I thought the point you were making was that men were privileged because we have to sign up for the draft, wich is absurd. Also what do you mean it isn't up to women they unlike men get to choose to go or not go to war, and also we live in a democracy were women can vote so they do have a say. Also while some feminist may believe women should be in the draft most don't. Feminist only want equality when it benefits them.
