

Idiocy is a spectrum

March 10, 2019 | 200 upvotes | by pseudonympholepsy

Males are oppressors
Women are victims
But gender is a social construct
While also being a spectrum
Yet I was born in the wrong body
So I'm going to have a sex change
And I'm bisexual
But I hate men
Yet I love gender diversity
So I celebrate our differences
Because we're all the same
But you used the wrong gender pronoun
So you're a sexist bigot
Did I make myself clear?

If gender is a social construct and women are the victims then just identify as a male and you get all the privileges we have

Was thinking that whilst driving this morning. The contradictions and falsehoods hurt my brain.

It's a great thought exercise, actually. The more feminist statements you can find that don't contradict each other, the more points you have.

My record is 2.

By born in the wrong body transgender people mean that they have the brain of a male/female but the body of a female/male. Brains between the genders are even more different than the body's.

Think about this... The term bisexual. The "bi" refers to there being 2 genders. Yet they're using it in the LGBT acronym. That's weird.
