What if some sort of nuclear vapor suddenly made women 100% accountable for their words and actions like men with no excuses accepted, like men.

and then feminists say "be sure to check your privilege" and in reality, they are as privileged as it gets

Yeah, recently a feminist accused me of being privileged and "not realising how privileged I really am" but she is just as privileged as me. Its like feminists try to make other things into feminist issues like race and economic background, where it has nothing to do with it and so they can support their argument.
