A pedophile man is attracted to girls who didn't reach puberty. After puberty the girl develops breast, wide hips, etc so she becomes hotter than those post-wall women.

As for her comments about makeup, those are women trying to look like young girls so why is she blaming men for her failed personal life?

Good point. The term for adolescents (11-15) is hebephile.

Pedophilia is a strange concept just like being a child or an adult. Either way, female pedophiles are probably more numerous than male pedophiles. If only the courts would stop saying that women can't be pedophiles, especially when so many of them abuse their children. It is also so recurrent among teachers (female).

i looked into this and i find way more cases of pedophilia from women than from men but sources still say men are 4 times more likely to be pedophiles
i hope these people stop protecting these horrible people just because they're women
