When did this happen? Last thing I saw about mixed gender games a pro women's soccer team got beat by 15 year old boys.

A woman beat a dude at darts once last month.

Wasn't that the US women's soccer team? Winner of the World Cup?

Bishopwallace • 1 point • 21 December, 2019 02:39 PM

I thought Australia could be wrong though.

Bishopwallace • 2 points • 21 December, 2019 02:41 PM

After a quick google search looks like it was both.

It was.

The Newcastle Jets U-15 boys beat Australia's Lady Matildas (7-1 if I recall)

The FC Dallas U-15 boys beat the USWNT (5-1 if I recall)

Both boys teams are in the development leagues for professional soccer, so they aren't quite the same as a random high schhol team, or even a random travel team. But, under 15 and not national teams.

Grown women equal the elite of high-school boys at best.

Awesome! Then let's eliminate men's and women's divisions and let the Knicks play the Liberty or let Anthony Joshua fight a 230-pound woman.

Hoooooray for equality!!!!

Bishopwallace • 1 point • 21 December, 2019 09:23 PM

Remember that trans mma fighter that put that girl in the hospital?

NohoTwoPointOh • 1 point • 21 December, 2019 10:10 PM

Same weight class. Why not? 145 is 145 in a world of equality.

Bishopwallace • 1 point • 21 December, 2019 11:28 PM

Fallon fox was the name of the trans fighter, the girl got messed up!

VestigialHead • 3 points • 21 December, 2019 04:30 AM

So the man who now identifies as a trans women that won multiple women's athletics events or the other one that is ruling the women's wrestling leagues is being ignored in this?

Is there any source for what events or sports she is talking about?

Cannot think of many sports that women dominate in.

Netball maybe?

hatefulreason • 1 point • 21 December, 2019 12:42 PM

then why are the radical feminists complaining about transgenders in women's sports ?

User-31f64a4e • 3 points • 21 December, 2019 08:30 PM

Because feminism is not about logic, reason, truth, reality or evidence.
