Hello I'm a new moderator. After seeing a post here about a pro femenist trying to gain this sub which was likely so that they could make it pro femenist I put in a request to gain the subreddit instead of them and I just got a message saying that my request was accepted. I have some mod experience and will try my best.

Well done on stopping that shithead from gaining control of the subreddit.

Thanks. Do you have any ideas for the subreddit?

VileInsidias • 3 points • 19 April, 2019 10:27 PM

I would make a note in the subreddit explaining that anyone who wants to go to r/feminism and explain that not all men are monsters will most likely get banned or muted. The people in those subreddits despise people contradicting their ideas so anyone who disagrees that men are sociopathic freaks will get banned and muted. No I'm not saying men are psychopaths because the people in r/feminism are actual psychopaths. Have you seen the shit they post? Anyway yes I would explain that they don't see logic and that anyone who tries to explain to them that we aren't as bad as they think do it at their own risk. I know it's a long suggestion and I tried several times to make it shorter to no success, but this is my idea.

Do you guys do AMA's?

DankDoggos84 • 1 point • 25 April, 2019 09:55 PM

I just started and am figuring things out but before now there were no AMA's. Also what does AMA stand for and what AMA would you want.

Undead_Chronic • 1 point • 25 April, 2019 11:34 PM

AMA stands for Ask Me Anything, it is where commentators post their questions for the person doing the AMA. They can ask him/her anything. I would be willing to do an AMA on this sub. I have a youtube account with around 29k subs that focuses on roasting and making fun of feminists. I am sure we could have a good time.
